Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 15, 2011, Time Warner Cable Inc. (the Company), its wholly owned subsidiary (Merger Sub), Insight Communications Company, Inc. (Insight) and a representative of the stockholders of Insight (the Insight Stockholders) appointed pursuant to the Merger Agreement entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company has agreed to acquire Insight and its subsidiaries on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, as described below. Insight operates cable systems in Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio that serve more than 750,000 customers.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Insight (the Merger), with Insight surviving as a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Merger Sub will pay a cash purchase price (the Purchase Price) of $3.0 billion as reduced by Insight's indebtedness for borrowed money (including under Insight's outstanding Credit Agreement and 9 3/8% Senior Notes due 2018) and similar obligations. The Purchase Price is also subject to customary adjustments, including a reduction of the Purchase Price to the extent the number of Insight's video subscribers at the closing is less than certain agreed upon measures as well as a working capital adjustment.

At the closing, $100,000,000 of the Purchase Price will be deposited into escrow to secure Insight Stockholders indemnification obligations for, among other things, breaches of Insight's representations, warranties and covenants and certain tax liabilities of Insight related to the pre-closing period. The total liability of the Insight Stockholders for indemnification will not exceed the escrowed amount. Any claim for indemnification by the Company must be asserted within 12 months following the closing. The Company is not obligated to indemnify Insight or the Insight Stockholders under the Merger Agreement.

Insight has made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement relating to, among other things, its (and its subsidiaries') capital structure and organization, its financial condition (including the availability of net operating losses), its business, operations and assets and FCC and franchise licenses. Insight has also made customary covenants with respect to the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing, including, among others, covenants to conduct its business in the ordinary course and not to engage in certain transactions. The parties are generally required to use commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the transaction, subject to specific exceptions.

The closing of the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, which is expected to occur in the first half of 2012, is subject to various customary closing conditions, including (i) antitrust clearance, (ii) receipt of FCC approvals and the consent of certain local franchising authorities to the change in ownership of the cable systems operated by Insight, and (iii) the number of video subscribers served by Insight's cable systems as of a specified date prior to the closing exceeding an agreed upon threshold (generally 95% of Insight's subscriber forecast).

The Merger Agreement can be terminated by either the Company or Insight, subject to certain conditions, if the closing has not occurred by May 15, 2012 (the End Date), provided that if the conditions relating to antitrust clearance or regulatory or franchise approvals have not been satisfied by such date, either party can extend the End Date to August 15, 2012.
