NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

American National Insurance Company and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively American National) operate in the insurance industry. Operating on a multiple product line basis, American National offers a broad line of insurance coverage, including individual and group life insurance, health insurance, annuities, and property and casualty insurance. In addition, through non-insurance subsidiaries, American National invests in stocks and real estate. The majority of revenues are generated by the insurance business. Business is conducted in all states and the District of Columbia, as well as Puerto Rico, Guam and American Samoa. Various distribution systems are utilized, including multiple-line exclusive agents, independent agents, third-party marketing organizations, career agents, and direct sales to the public.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PRACTICES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for Form 10-Q. In addition to GAAP, specific SEC requirements applicable to insurance companies are applied to the consolidated financial statements.

The interim consolidated financial statements and notes herein are unaudited. These interim consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments, which are in the opinion of management, considered necessary for the fair presentation of the consolidated statements of operations, financial position, changes in equity, comprehensive income (loss), and cash flows for the interim periods. These interim consolidated financial statements and notes should be read in conjunction with the annual consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in American National s Annual Report on Form 10-K as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010. The consolidated results of operations for the interim periods should not be considered indicative of results to be expected for the full year. American National consolidates all entities that are wholly-owned and those in which American National owns less than 100% but controls, as well as any variable interest entities in which American National is the primary beneficiary. Investments in unconsolidated affiliates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. Certain amounts in prior years have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported consolidated financial statement balances. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following estimates have been identified as critical in that they involve a high degree of judgment and are subject to a significant degree of variability:

- Other-than-temporary impairment (OTTI);
- Deferred policy acquisition costs;
- Reserves;
- Reinsurance;
- Pension and postretirement benefit plans;
- Litigation contingencies; and
- Federal income taxes.

As of September 30, 2011, American National s significant accounting policies and practices remain materially unchanged from those disclosed in Note 2, Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Practices, of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in American National s 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-06, Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements. ASU 2010-06 was issued to improve and expand fair value disclosures. Newly required disclosures are as follows: 1) provide information about movements of assets among Levels 1 and 2 of the three-tier fair value hierarchy; 2) provide a reconciliation of purchases, sales, issuance, and settlements of anything valued with a Level 3 method; and 3) provide fair value disclosures for each class of assets and liabilities. This guidance is effective for interim and annual periods commencing after December 15, 2009, except for the disclosure of the reconciliation of the Level 3 activities, which is effective for annual periods commencing after December 15, 2010. American National adopted this guidance on January 1, 2010, except for the disclosure of the reconciliation of the Level 3 activities, which was adopted effective January 1, 2011. American National's adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-15, How Investments Held through Separate Accounts Affect an Insurer's Consolidation Analysis of Those Investments. For accounting purposes, ASU 2010-15 clarifies that an insurance entity should not consider any separate account interests held for the benefit of policyholders in an investment to be the insurer's interests and should not combine those interests with its general account interest in the same investment when assessing the investment for consolidation, unless the separate account interests are held for the benefit of a related-party policyholder. This guidance also clarifies that for the purpose of evaluating whether the retention of specialized accounting for investments in consolidation is appropriate, a separate account arrangement should be considered a subsidiary. The amendments do not require an insurer to consolidate an investment in which a separate account holds a controlling financial interest if the investment is not or would not be consolidated in the stand-alone financial statements of the separate account. ASU 2010-15 is effective for interim and annual periods commencing after December 15, 2010. American National's adoption of this guidance did not have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In July 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-20, Disclosures about the Credit Quality of Financing Receivables and the Allowance for Credit Losses. Additional disclosures are now required that enable readers of the financial statements to understand the nature of the credit risk inherent in the financing receivable portfolio, how the portfolio's credit risk is analyzed and assessed in order to arrive at the allowance for credit losses for each portfolio, and the changes and underlying reason for the changes in the allowance for credit losses for each portfolio. Disclosures previously required for financing receivables are now required to be disclosed on a disaggregated basis. In addition, new disclosures under ASU 2010-20 are required for each financing receivable class including credit quality indicators of financing receivables at the end of the reporting period, aging of past due financing receivables, the nature and extent of troubled debt restructurings that occurred during the reporting period, the nature and extent of financing receivables modified as troubled debt restructurings within the previous 12 months that defaulted during the reporting period, and significant purchases and sales of financing receivables during the reporting period. The ASU 2010-20 disclosures required as of the end of a reporting period are effective for interim and annual periods ending on or after December 15, 2010. Disclosures concerning the activity that occurs during a reporting period are effective for interim and annual periods beginning on or after December 15, 2010. American National adopted this guidance effective January 1, 2010, except for the disclosure requirements for activities that occur during a reporting period, which was adopted effective January 1, 2011. American National's adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In January 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-01, Deferral of the Effective Date of Disclosures about Troubled Debt Restructurings in Update No. 2010-20. This update temporarily delays the effective date of the disclosures about troubled debt restructuring required within ASU 2010-20. The delay was intended to allow the FASB time to complete its deliberations on what constitutes a troubled debt restructuring. ASU 2011-01 is effective upon issuance. Accordingly, this update was retrospectively adopted on December 31, 2010 and did not have a material effect on American National's consolidated financial statements.

Table of Contents

In April 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-02, A Creditor's Determination of Whether a Restructuring is a Troubled Debt Restructuring. The new guidance clarifies the creditor's evaluation of whether it has granted a concession and whether a borrower is experiencing financial difficulties. In addition, the new guidance precludes the creditor from using the effective interest rate test in the borrower's guidance on restructuring payables when evaluating whether a restructuring constitutes a troubled debt restructuring. ASU 2011-02 is effective for public companies for interim and annual periods beginning on or after June 15, 2011 and must be applied retrospectively to restructurings occurring on or after the beginning of the year. American National's adoption of this guidance did not have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

Future Adoption of New Accounting Standards

In October 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-26, Accounting for Costs Associated with Acquiring or Renewing Insurance Contracts. The new guidance redefines the term "acquisition cost" and added the term "incremental direct cost of contract acquisition" to the master glossary. These changes limit the deferrable cost to those costs that are related directly to the successful acquisition of insurance contracts and those that result directly from and are essential to the contract acquisition and costs that would have not been incurred had the contract acquisition not occurred. The new guidance also specifies that advertising costs should be deferred only if the capitalization criteria for direct-response advertising are met. ASU 2010-26 is effective for interim and annual periods, commencing after December 15, 2011. This guidance will be adopted by American National on January 1, 2012. American National is currently assessing the effect of ASU 2010-26 on its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-04, Amendments to Achieve Common Fair Value Measurement and Disclosure Requirements in the U.S. GAAP and IFRSs. ASU 2011-04 clarifies the intent of the FASB about the application of existing fair value measurement and disclosure requirements such as: (1) the application of the highest and best use and valuation premise concepts; (2) a requirement specific to measuring the fair value of an instrument classified in a reporting entity's shareholders' equity; and (3) a requirement to disclose unobservable inputs used in the fair value of an instrument categorized within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The new guidance also prohibits the use of block premiums and discounts for all fair value measurement, regardless of hierarchy. In addition, ASU 2011-04 expands the disclosures about fair value measurements. ASU 2011-04 is effective for interim and annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2011. American National is currently assessing the effect of ASU 2011-04 on its consolidated financial statements.

In June 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-05, Presentation of Comprehensive Income. ASU 2011-05 makes the presentation of other comprehensive income (OCI) more prominent by giving reporting entities two presentation options. Reporting entities can present the total net income and total OCI along with their respective components as one continuous statement or as two separate consecutive statements. The new guidance also eliminates the option to present OCI in the statement of changes in stockholders' equity. In addition, the new guidance requires reporting entities to present reclassification adjustments from OCI to net income on the face of the financial statements. ASU 2011-05 is effective for interim and annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2011. American National's adoption of this guidance on January 1, 2012 is not expected to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

Table of Contents

In July 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-06, Fees Paid to the Federal Government by Health Insurers. ASU 2011-06 addresses questions about how health insurers should recognize and classify in their income statements fees mandated by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, which imposes an annual fee on health insurers for each calendar year beginning on or after January 1, 2014. The new guidance specifies that the liability for the fee should be estimated and recorded in full once the entity provides qualifying health insurance in the applicable calendar year. The corresponding deferred cost is then amortized to expense using a straight-line method of allocation unless another method better allocates the fee over the calendar year that it is payable. ASU 2011-06 is effective for calendar years beginning after December 31, 2013. American National's adoption of this guidance on January 1, 2014 is not expected to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In September 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-08, Testing Goodwill for Impairment. ASU 2011-08 allows an assessment of qualitative factors to determine if it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying value as a basis to determining whether the two-step goodwill impairment test is necessary. ASU 2011-08 is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2011. American National's adoption of this guidance on January 1, 2012 is not expected to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

Actual maturities will differ from contractual maturities because borrowers may have the right to call or prepay obligations with or without call or prepayment penalties. Residential and commercial mortgage-backed securities, which are not due at a single maturity, have been allocated to their respective categories based on the year of final contractual maturity. The amortized cost and estimated fair value, by contractual maturity of fixed maturity securities are shown below (in thousands):

There were no securities transferred from held-to-maturity to available-for-sale during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010.

Derivative Instruments

American National purchases derivative contracts (equity-indexed options) that serve as economic hedges against fluctuations in the equity markets to which equity-indexed annuity products are exposed. Equity-indexed annuities include a fixed host annuity contract and an equity-indexed embedded derivative. These derivative instruments are not designated as accounting hedges. The following tables detail the volume, estimated fair value and the gains or losses on derivatives related to equity-indexed annuities (in thousands):

For all investment securities with an unrealized loss, including those in an unrealized loss position for 12 months or more, American National performs a quarterly analysis to determine if an OTTI loss should be recorded. As of September 30, 2011, the securities with unrealized losses were not deemed to be other-than-temporarily impaired. Even though the duration of the unrealized losses on some of the securities exceeds one year, American National has no intent to sell and it is not more-likely-than-not that American National will be required to sell these securities prior to recovery, and recovery is expected in a reasonable period of time.

Table of Contents5. VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITIES

In the normal course of investment activities, American National and its wholly-owned subsidiaries enter into various real estate partnership agreements. Generally, real estate partnership opportunities are presented to American National by a sponsor, with the significant activities being conducted on behalf of the sponsor. American National participates in the design of these entities, but in most cases, American National's involvement is limited to financing. Through analysis performed by American National, some of these partnerships have been determined to be variable interest entities (VIEs). In certain instances, in addition to an economic interest in the entity, American National holds the power to direct the most significant activities of the entity and is deemed the primary beneficiary or consolidator of the entity. The assets of the consolidated VIEs are restricted and must be used first to settle the liabilities of the VIE. Creditors or beneficial interest holders of these VIEs have no recourse to the general credit of American National, as American National's obligation is limited to the amount of its committed investment. The total assets and liabilities relating to VIEs in which American National is the primary beneficiary and which are consolidated in its financial statements for the periods indicated are as follows (in thousands):

| | September 30, 2011 | December 31, 2010 |
|---|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Investment real estate | $ 154,751 | $ 156,441 |
| Short-term investments | 3,364 | 1,991 |
| Cash and cash equivalents | 1,463 | 1,164 |
| Accrued investment income | 2,047 | 2,035 |
| Other receivables | 14,191 | 16,524 |
| Other assets | 4,384 | 3,884 |
| Total assets of consolidated VIEs | $ 180,200 | $ 182,039 |
| Notes payable | $ 58,481 | $ 60,140 |
| Other liabilities | 2,553 | 3,499 |
| Total liabilities of consolidated VIEs | $ 61,034 | $ 63,639 |

For other real estate partnerships in which American National is a partner, the major decisions that most significantly impact the economic activities of the partnership require unanimous consent of all partners. American National is not the primary beneficiary and these entities were not consolidated. The following table presents the carrying amount and maximum exposure to loss relating to VIEs for which American National holds significant variable interests but is not the primary beneficiary and which have not been consolidated (in thousands):

| | September 30, 2011 | | December 31, 2010 | |

| Investment in unconsolidated affiliates | $ 76,297 | $ 76,297 | $ 36,226 | $ 36,226 |

Financial or other support was not provided to investees designated as VIEs in the form of liquidity arrangements, guarantees, or other commitments by third parties that may affect the fair value or risk of American National's variable interest in the investees designated as VIEs as of September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010.

Table of Contents6. CREDIT LOSSES

A financing receivable is a contractual right to receive money on demand or on fixed or determinable dates that is recognized as an asset in a company's statement of financial position. Commercial mortgage loans on real estate are the only financing receivables reported by American National.

Nonaccrual and Past Due Mortgage Loans

Interest ceases to be accrued for loans on which interest is more than 90 days past due, when the collection of interest is not considered probable, or when a loan is in foreclosure. Interest received on non-accrual status mortgage loans is included in net investment income in the period received. Once a loan becomes current, it is placed back into accrual status.

The amounts of commercial mortgage loans placed on nonaccrual status are shown in the table below (in thousands):

Table of ContentsAllowance for Credit Losses

Each loan is evaluated quarterly and placed in a watchlist if events occur or circumstances exist that could indicate that American National will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan. If, in evaluating loans for inclusion in the watchlist, sufficient analysis is performed to conclude that a loan is fully collectible, no allowance is required. All loans in the watchlist are then analyzed individually for impairment. Fair value is determined by estimating the present value of future cash flows or the fair value of the underlying collateral. Estimation techniques vary depending on the quality of available data, the type of collateral, and other factors. When the fair value analysis shows that not all of the amount due is collectible, the difference between the estimated fair value and the loan balance is recorded as an allowance (a loss). The allowance is reviewed quarterly to determine whether further allowance is required, or whether recovery of the asset is assured and the allowance can be reduced. Loans not evaluated individually for collectibility are segregated by collateral property-type and location and allowance factors are applied. These factors are developed annually, and reviewed quarterly based on our historical loss experience adjusted for the expected trend in the rate of foreclosure losses. Allowance factors are higher for loans of certain property types and in certain regions based on loss experience or a blended historical loss factor. The allowance for credit losses and unpaid principal balance in commercial mortgage loans are shown in the table below (in thousands):

Impaired loans

Mortgage loans on real estate are considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that American National will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. American National closely monitors its commercial mortgage loan portfolio on a loan-by-loan basis. Loans with an estimated collateral value less than the loan balance, as well as loans with other characteristics indicative of higher than normal credit risks are reviewed quarterly for purposes of establishing an allowance for credit losses and placing loans on non-accrual status as necessary. The allowance account for mortgage loans on real estate is maintained at a level believed adequate by management and reflects management's best estimate of probable credit losses, including losses incurred at the reporting date but not yet identified by specific loan. Management's periodic evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for credit losses is based on past loan loss experience, known and inherent risks in the portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, the estimated value of the underlying collateral, composition of the loan portfolio, current economic conditions and other relevant factors. Loans are charged off as uncollectible only when the loan is forgiven by a legal agreement. Prior to charging off the loan, an allowance is recorded based on the estimated recoverable amount. Upon forgiveness, the allowance is reduced and the loan balance is reduced which results in no further gain or loss.

Credit Quality Indicators

The credit quality of the mortgage loan portfolio is assessed monthly to determine the credit risk of each borrower. A loan is classified as performing or non-performing based on whether all of the contractual terms of the loan have been met. Retail loans classified as non-performing amounted to $10,857,000 and $3,685,000 as of September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively. Office loans classified as non-performing amounted to $8,436,000 and $0 at September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively. All other loans were classified as performing.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2011, American National sold one industrial loan with a recorded investment of $27,532,000 and realized a gain of $4,968,000.

There were no troubled debt restructurings during the nine months ended September 30, 2011.

Table of ContentsMortgage loans and investment real estate

American National makes mortgage loans and invests in real estate primarily in the commercial sector in areas that offer the potential for property value appreciation. Generally, mortgage loans are secured by first liens on income-producing real estate. American National attempts to maintain a diversified portfolio of mortgage loans and real estate properties by considering the property-type as well as the geographic distribution of the property, which is the underlying mortgage collateral or investment property.

Mortgage loans and investment real estate by property-type distribution are as follows:

| | Mortgage Loans | | Investment Real Estate | |

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability. A fair value hierarchy is used to determine fair value based on a hypothetical transaction at the measurement date from the perspective of a market participant. An asset or liability's classification within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of significant input to its valuation. The input levels are defined as follows:

- Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. American National defines active markets based on average trading volume for equity securities. The size of the bid/ask spread is used as an indicator of market activity for equity securities.

Table of Contents

- Level 2 Quoted prices in markets that are not active or inputs that are observable directly or indirectly. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities other than quoted prices in Level 1; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.
- Level 3 Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities. Unobservable inputs reflect American National's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose values are determined using pricing models and third-party evaluation, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation.

American National has evaluated the types of securities in its investment portfolio to determine an appropriate fair value hierarchy level based upon trading activity and the observability of market inputs. Based on the results of this evaluation and investment class analysis, each price was classified into Level 1, 2, or 3.

American National utilizes a pricing service to estimate fair value measurements for approximately 99.0% of fixed maturity securities. The pricing service utilizes market quotations for fixed maturity securities that have quoted prices in active markets. Since fixed maturity securities generally do not trade on a daily basis, the pricing service prepares estimates of fair value measurements for these securities using its proprietary pricing applications, which include available relevant market information, benchmark curves, benchmarking of like securities, sector groupings and matrix pricing. Additionally, the pricing service uses an option adjusted spread model to develop prepayment and interest rate scenarios.

The pricing service evaluates each asset class based on relevant market information, relevant credit information, perceived market movements and sector news. The market inputs utilized in the pricing evaluation, listed in the approximate order of priority, include: benchmark yields, reported trades, broker/dealer quotes, issuer spreads, two-sided markets, benchmark securities, bids, offers, reference data, and economic events. The extent of the use of each market input depends on the asset class and the market conditions. Depending on the security, the priority of the use of inputs may change or some market inputs may not be relevant. For some securities, additional inputs may be necessary.

American National has reviewed the inputs and methodology used by the pricing service and the techniques applied by the pricing service to produce quotes that represent the fair value of a specific security. The review of the pricing service's methodology confirms the service is utilizing information from organized transactions or a technique that represents a market participant's assumptions. American National does not adjust quotes received by the pricing service.

The pricing service utilized by American National has indicated that they will only produce an estimate of fair value if there is objectively verifiable information available. If the pricing service discontinues pricing an investment, American National would be required to produce an estimate of fair value using some of the same methodologies as the pricing service, but would have to make assumptions for market-based inputs that are unavailable due to market conditions.

The fair value estimates of most fixed maturity securities including municipal bonds are based on observable market information rather than market quotes. Accordingly, the estimates of fair value for such fixed maturity securities provided by the pricing service are included in the amount disclosed in Level 2 of the hierarchy.

Additionally, American National holds a small amount of fixed maturity securities that have characteristics that make them unsuitable for matrix pricing. For these fixed maturity securities, a quote from a broker (typically a market maker) is obtained. Due to the disclaimers on the quotes that indicate that the price is indicative only, American National includes these fair value estimates in Level 3. The pricing of certain private placement debt also includes significant non-observable inputs, the internally determined credit rating of the security, and an externally provided credit spread, and these securities are classified as Level 3 measurements.

For public common and preferred stocks, American National receives prices from a nationally recognized pricing service that are based on observable market transactions and these securities are disclosed in Level 1. For certain preferred stock, current market quotes in active markets are unavailable. In these instances, American National receives an estimate of fair value from the pricing service that provides fair value estimates for the fixed maturity securities. The service utilizes some of the same methodologies to price the preferred stocks as it does for the fixed maturity securities. These estimates for equity securities are classified as Level 2 measurements.

Some assets and liabilities do not fit the hierarchical model for determining fair value. For policy loans, the carrying amount approximates their fair value, because the policy loans cannot be separated from the policy contract. The fair value of investment contract liabilities is determined in accordance with GAAP rules on insurance products and is estimated using a discounted cash flow model using American National's current interest rates on new products. The carrying value for these contracts approximates their fair value. The carrying amount for notes payable approximates their fair value.

The transfers into Level 3 were the result of existing securities no longer being priced by the third-party pricing service at the end of the period. In accordance with American National's pricing methodology, these securities are being valued using similar techniques as the pricing service; however, the service-developed data is used in the process, which results in unobservable inputs and a corresponding transfer into Level 3.

The transfers out of Level 3 were securities being priced by a third-party service at the end of the period, using inputs that are observable or derived from market data, which resulted in classification of these assets as Level 2.

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 fair value hierarchies.

Commissions comprise the majority of the additions to deferred policy acquisition costs for each year. All amounts for the present value of future profits resulting from the acquisition of life insurance portfolios have been accounted for in accordance with the relevant accounting literature and are immaterial in all periods presented.

10. LIABILITY FOR UNPAID CLAIMS AND CLAIM ADJUSTMENT EXPENSES

The liability for unpaid claims and claim adjustment expenses for accident and health, and property and casualty insurance is included in the liability for policy and contract claims in the consolidated statements of financial position and represents the amount estimated for claims that have been reported but not settled and claims incurred but not reported. Liability for unpaid claims and claim adjustment expenses are estimated based upon American National's historical experience and other actuarial assumptions that consider the effects of current developments, anticipated trends and risk management programs, reduced for anticipated salvage and subrogation. The effects of changes in such estimated liability are included in the consolidated results of operations in the period in which the changes occur.

Activities in the liability for unpaid claims and claim adjustment expenses (claims) are shown below (in thousands):

Table of Contents

The potential uncertainty caused by volatility in loss development profiles is adjusted through the selection of loss development factor patterns for each line of insurance. The net and gross reserve calculations have shown favorable development for the last several years as a result of favorable loss emergence compared to what was implied by the loss development patterns used in the original estimation of losses in prior years. Estimates for ultimate incurred claims and claims adjustment expenses attributable to insured events of prior years decreased by approximately $47,864,000 during the first nine months of 2011 and $70,174,000 during the same period in 2010.

11. NOTES PAYABLE

American National's real estate holding subsidiaries are partners in certain ventures determined to be VIEs, and are consolidated in American National's consolidated financial statements. At September 30, 2011, the current portion and the long-term portion of the notes payable to third-party lenders associated with these consolidated VIEs were $0 and $58,481,000, respectively. At December 31, 2010, the current portion and long-term portion of the notes payable to third-party lenders associated with these consolidated VIEs were $47,632,000 and $12,508,000, respectively. The long-term notes payable have interest rates equivalent to adjusted LIBOR plus 1.00% and 2.50%. The average interest rate on the long-term notes payable was 4.33% and 6.38% during the first nine months of 2011 and 2010, respectively, and will mature in 2012, 2016 and 2049. The real estate owned through the respective venture entity secures each of these notes, and American National's liability for these notes is limited to the amount of its investment in the respective venture, which totaled $21,505,000 at September 30, 2011 and $21,224,000 at December 31, 2010.

12. FEDERAL INCOME TAXES

Management believes that a sufficient level of taxable income will be achieved to utilize the deferred tax assets of the companies in the consolidated federal tax return; therefore, no valuation allowance was recorded as of September 30, 2011 or December 31, 2010. However, if not utilized beforehand, approximately $30,408,000 in ordinary loss tax carryforwards will expire at the end of tax year 2030.

American National recognizes interest expense and penalties related to uncertain tax positions. Interest expense and penalties are included in the "Other operating expenses" line in the consolidated statements of operations. No interest or penalties were recognized or accrued for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 or year ended December 31, 2010. Management does not believe that there are any uncertain tax benefits that could be recognized within the next twelve months that would affect American National's effective tax rate.

The statute of limitations for the examination of federal income tax returns by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for years 2006 to 2010 either has been extended or has not expired. In the opinion of management, all prior year deficiencies have been paid or adequate provisions have been made for any tax deficiencies that may be upheld. Approximately $34,441,000 and $35,893,000 in net federal income taxes were paid to the IRS during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively.

14. STOCKHOLDERS EQUITY AND NONCONTROLLING INTERESTSCommon stock

American National has only one class of common stock with a par value of $1.00 per share and 50,000,000 authorized shares. The amounts outstanding at the dates indicated are shown below:

| | September 30, 2011 | December 31, 2010 |
|--|-------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Common stock | | |
| Shares issued | 30,832,449 | 30,832,449 |

| Restricted shares | (261,334) | (261,334) |
| Unrestricted outstanding shares | 26,559,950 | 26,559,643 |

Stock-based compensation

American National has one stock-based compensation plan which allows for grants of Non-Qualified Stock Options, Stock Appreciation Rights (SAR), Restricted Stock (RS) Awards, Restricted Stock Units (RSU), Performance

Awards, Incentive Awards or any combination of these. The number of shares available for grants under the plan cannot exceed 2,900,000 shares, and no more than 200,000 shares may be granted to any one individual in any calendar year.

RS Awards entitle the participant to full dividend and voting rights. Unvested shares are restricted as to disposition, and are subject to forfeiture under certain circumstances. Compensation expense is recognized over the vesting period. The restrictions on these awards lapse after 10 years, and feature a graded vesting schedule in the case of the retirement of an award holder. Restricted stock has been granted, with a total of 340,334 shares granted at an exercise price of zero, of which 261,334 shares are unvested. The compensation expense recorded for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2011 was $678,000 and $2,011,000, respectively. The compensation expense recorded for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010 was $630,000 and $1,970,000, respectively.

Table of Contents

The SARs give the holder the right to cash compensation based on the difference between the price of a share of stock on the grant date and the price on the exercise date. The SARs vest at a rate of 20% per year for 5 years and expire 5 years after the vesting period. American National uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model to calculate the fair value and compensation expense for SARs. The fair value of the SARs was $4,000 and $17,000 at September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively. Compensation income was recorded totaling $9,000 and $13,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, respectively. Compensation income was recorded totaling $23,000 and $1,606,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, respectively.

RSUs are awarded as part of American National's incentive compensation plan. In 2011, RSUs were also awarded as part of the Board of Directors compensation. The RSUs are converted to American National's common stock on a one-for-one basis subject to a two-year cliff or three-year graded vesting requirement, depending on the grant date.

These awards result in compensation expense to American National over the vesting period. Compensation expense was $530,000 and $1,343,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, respectively. Compensation expense was $130,000 and $390,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, respectively.

Dividends

American National Insurance Company's payment of dividends to stockholders is restricted by statutory regulations. The restrictions require life insurance companies to maintain minimum amounts of capital and surplus, and in the absence of special approval, limit the payment of dividends to the greater of statutory net gain from operations on an annual non-cumulative basis, or 10% of statutory surplus. Additionally, insurance companies are not permitted to distribute the excess of stockholders' equity determined on a GAAP basis over that determined on a statutory basis. American National Insurance Company's statutory capital and surplus was $2,008,626,000 at September 30, 2011 and

The same restrictions on amounts that can transfer in the form of dividends, loans, or advances to the parent company apply to American National's insurance subsidiaries. Dividends received by the parent company from its non-insurance subsidiaries was zero for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 and $2,000,000 and $6,000,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, respectively.

At September 30, 2011, approximately $1,383,199,000 of American National's consolidated stockholders' equity represents net assets of its insurance subsidiaries, compared to approximately $1,396,736,000 at December 31, 2010. Any transfer of these net assets to American National Insurance Company would be subject to statutory restrictions or approval.

Noncontrolling interests

American National County Mutual Insurance Company (County Mutual) is a mutual insurance company that is owned by its policyholders. County Mutual has a management agreement, which effectively gives complete control of County Mutual to American National. As a result, County Mutual is included in the consolidated financial statements of American National. The interests that the policyholders of County Mutual have in the financial position of County Mutual is reflected as noncontrolling interest totaling $6,750,000 at September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010.

American National's wholly-owned subsidiary, ANTAC, Inc., is a partner in various joint ventures. ANTAC exercises significant control or ownership to certain of these joint ventures, resulting in their consolidation into the American National consolidated financial statements. As a result of the consolidation, the interest of the other partners of the joint ventures is shown as noncontrolling interests. Noncontrolling interests were a deficit of $16,051,000 and $2,708,000 at September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively.

15. SEGMENT INFORMATION

American National and its subsidiaries are engaged principally in the insurance business. Management organizes the business into five operating segments:

The Life segment markets whole, term, universal and variable life insurance on a national basis primarily through employee and multiple-line agents, direct marketing channels and independent third-party marketing organizations.

The Annuity segment develops, sells and supports fixed, equity-indexed, and variable annuity products. These products are primarily sold through independent agents and brokers, but are also sold through financial institutions, multiple-line agents and employee agents.

The Health segment's primary lines of business are Medicare Supplement, stop loss, other supplemental health products and credit disability insurance. Health products are typically distributed through independent agents and managing general underwriters.

The Property and Casualty segment writes personal, commercial and credit-related property insurance. These products are primarily sold through multiple-line agents and independent agents.

The Corporate and Other business segment consists of net investment income on the investments not allocated to the insurance segments and the operations of non-insurance lines of business.

The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those referred to in Note 2, Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Practices, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements. Many of the principal factors that drive the profitability of each operating segment are separate and distinct. All income and expense amounts specifically attributable to policy transactions are recorded directly to the appropriate operating segment. Income and expenses not specifically attributable to policy transactions are allocated to each segment as follows:

Recurring income from bonds and mortgage loans is allocated based on the funds accumulated by each line of business at the average yield available from these assets.

Net investment income from all other assets is allocated to the insurance segments in accordance with the amount of equity allocated to each segment, with the remainder recorded in the Corporate and Other business segment.

Expenses are allocated based upon various factors, including premium and commission ratios within the respective operating segments.

Realized gains or losses on investments and equity in earnings of unconsolidated affiliates are allocated to the Corporate and Other business segment.

Federal income taxes have been applied to the net earnings of each insurance segment based on a fixed tax rate. Any difference between the amount allocated to the insurance segments and the total federal income tax is allocated to the Corporate and Other business segment.

Beginning in 2011, American National discontinued the allocation of a default charge to its segments to improve the comparability for measuring business results between segments and between periods. This default charge represented compensation to the Corporate and Other business segment for the risk it assumed for realized investment losses through a charge to the insurance segments. Allocation of such charge was reducing the amount of net investment income allocated to those insurance segments. Net investment income of each business segment in the prior year was reclassified to be comparable with the current year's measurement basis.

16. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Commitments

In the ordinary course of operations, American National and its subsidiaries had commitments outstanding at September 30, 2011, to purchase, expand or improve real estate, to fund mortgage loans, and to purchase other invested assets aggregating $274,457,000, of which $173,999,000 is expected to be funded in 2011. The remaining balance of $100,458,000 will be funded in 2012 and beyond. As of September 30, 2011, all of the mortgage loan commitments have fixed interest rates.

In September 2011, American National renewed a previous $100,000,000 short-term variable rate borrowing facility containing a $55,000,000 subfeature for the issuance of letters of credit. The renewal contained a slight modification to duration from a mid-month to quarter-end expiration. Borrowings under the facility are at the discretion of the lender and would be used only for funding American National's working capital requirements. The combination of borrowings and outstanding letters of credit cannot exceed $100,000,000 at any time. As of September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the outstanding letters of credit were $33,823,000 and $37,452,000, respectively, and there were no borrowings on this facility to meet liquidity requirements. This facility expires on September 30, 2012. American National expects it will be renewed on substantially equivalent terms upon expiration.

Guarantees

In the normal course of business, American National has guaranteed bank loans for customers of a third-party marketing operation. The bank loans are used to fund premium payments on life insurance policies issued by American National. The loans are secured by the cash values of the life insurance policies. If the customer were to default on the bank loan, American National would be obligated to pay off the loans. As the cash values of the life insurance policies always equal or exceed the balance of the loans, management does not foresee any loss on these guarantees. The total amount of the guarantees outstanding as of September 30, 2011, was approximately $206,513,000 while the total cash value of the related life insurance policies was approximately $209,109,000.

Litigation

As previously disclosed, American National negotiated a settlement agreement with Plaintiff in a putative class action lawsuit, Rand v. American National Insurance Company (U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, filed February 12, 2009). During the quarter ended March 31, 2011, American National reserved $12,000,000 for this settlement agreement. In September of 2011, the Court entered an Order approving the Settlement and entered Final Judgment on the case. American National is in the process of completing administration of the settlement pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement and anticipates finalizing administration at the beginning of 2012.

American National and certain subsidiaries are defendants in other lawsuits concerning alleged failure to honor certain loan commitments, alleged breach of certain agency and real estate contracts, various employment matters, allegedly deceptive insurance sales and marketing practices, and other litigation arising in the ordinary course of operations.

Certain of these lawsuits include claims for compensatory and punitive damages. We have provided accruals for these items to the extent we deem the losses probable and reasonably estimable. After reviewing these matters with legal counsel, management is of the opinion that the ultimate resultant liability, if any, would not have a material adverse effect on American National's consolidated financial position or results of operations. However, these lawsuits are in various stages of development, and future facts and circumstances could result in management's changing its conclusions.

In addition, it should be noted that the frequency of large damage awards, which bear little or no relation to the economic damages incurred by plaintiffs in some jurisdictions, continue to create the potential for an unpredictable judgment in any given lawsuit. It is possible that, if the defenses in these lawsuits are not successful, and the judgments are greater than management can anticipate, the resulting liability could have a material impact on the consolidated financial results.

Table of Contents17. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

On December 31, 2010, American National sold its wholly-owned broker-dealer subsidiary, Securities Management & Research, Inc. (SM&R), to a third-party financial services corporation. The sale qualified for discontinued operations accounting and accordingly, the results of operations for this subsidiary are presented as discontinued operations in American National's consolidated statements of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010. SM&R had previously been a component of the Corporate and Other business segment. The following table summarizes income (loss) from discontinued operations (in thousands):

| | Three months ended September 30, 2010 | Nine months ended September 30, 2010 |
|--|--|---|
| Revenues: | | |
| Net investment income | $ | $ 145 |

Information Regarding Related Parties and Transactions

Mortgage Loans to Gal-Tex Hotel Corporation (Gal-Tex): The Moody Foundation and the Libbie Shearn Moody Trust own 34.0% and 50.2%, respectively, of Gal-Tex Hotel Corporation (Gal-Tex). The Moody Foundation and the Libbie Shearn Moody Trust also own approximately 22.9% and 37.1%, respectively, of American National. American National held a first mortgage loan issued to Gal-Tex secured by hotel property in San Antonio, Texas. This loan was originated in 1999, had a balance of $10,212,000 as of September 30, 2011, has a current interest rate of 7.30%, and has a final maturity date of April 1, 2019. This loan is current as to principal and interest payments.

Management Contracts with Gal-Tex: American National entered into management contracts with a subsidiary of Gal-Tex for the management of a hotel and adjacent fitness center owned by American National. Such contracts can be terminated upon thirty days prior written notice.

Transactions with Moody Insurance Group, Inc.: Robert L. Moody, Jr. (RLM Jr.) is the son of American National's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, brother of two of American National's directors, and he is one of American National's advisory directors. RLM Jr., mainly through his wholly-owned insurance agency, Moody Insurance Group, Inc. (MIG), has entered into a number of agency agreements with American National and some of its subsidiaries in connection with the marketing of insurance products.

MIG and American National are also parties to a Consulting and Special Marketing Agreement concerning development and marketing of new products. In addition to consulting fees paid under such agreement, compensation also includes dividends on shares of American National's Restricted Stock granted to MIG as a consultant.

Health Insurance Contracts with Certain Affiliates: American National's Merit Plan is insured by National Western Life Insurance Company (National Western). Robert L. Moody, Sr., American National's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, is also the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, and controlling stockholder of National Western. The Merit Plan is an insured medical plan that supplements American National's core medical insurance plan for certain officers by providing coverage for co-pays, deductibles, and other out-of-pocket expenses that are not covered by the core medical insurance plan, limited to medical expenses that could be deducted by the recipient for federal income tax purposes.

In addition, American National insures substantially similar plans offered by National Western, Gal-Tex, and The Moody Foundation to certain of their officers. American National also insures The Moody Foundation's basic health insurance plan.

Table of ContentsITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Set forth on the following pages is management's discussion and analysis (MD&A) of financial condition and results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010 of American National Insurance Company and its subsidiaries (referred to in this document as we, our, us, or the Company). Such information should be read in conjunction with our unaudited consolidated financial statements included in Item 1, Financial Statements, of this Form 10-Q.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained herein are forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and include estimates and assumptions related to economic, competitive and legislative developments. Forward looking statements may be identified by words such as expects, intends, anticipates, plans, believes, estimates, will or words of similar and include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the outlook of our business and financial performance. These forward-looking statements are subject to change and uncertainty, which are, in many instances, beyond our control and have been made based upon our expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effect upon us. There can be no assurance that future developments will be in accordance with our expectations, or that the effect of future developments on us will be as anticipated. These forward-looking statements are not a guarantee of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties. There are certain important risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ, possibly materially, from expectations or estimates reflected in such forward-looking statements. These factors include among others:

- domestic and international economic and financial factors, including the performance and fluctuations of fixed income, equity, real estate, credit capital and other financial markets;
- differences between actual experience regarding mortality, morbidity, persistency, surrender experience, interest rates or market returns, and the assumptions we use in pricing our products, establishing liabilities and reserves or for other purposes;
- the effect of increased claims activity from natural or man-made catastrophes, pandemic disease, or other events resulting in catastrophic loss of life or property;
- adverse determinations in litigation or regulatory matters and our exposure to contingent liabilities, including and in connection with our divestiture or winding down of businesses;
- inherent uncertainties in the determination of investment allowances and impairments and in the determination of the valuation allowance on the deferred income tax asset;
- investment losses and defaults;
- competition in our product lines;
- attraction and retention of qualified employees and agents;
- ineffectiveness of risk management policies and procedures in identifying, monitoring and managing risks;
- the availability, affordability and adequacy of reinsurance protection;
- the effects of emerging claim and coverage issues;
- the cyclical nature of the insurance business;
- the effects of inflation on claim payments in our property and casualty and health lines;
- interest rate fluctuations;
- changes in our experiences related to deferred policy acquisition costs;
- the ability and willingness of counterparties to our reinsurance arrangements and derivative instruments to pay balances due to us;
- changes in our financial strength ratings;
- domestic or international military actions;
- the effects of extensive government regulation of the insurance industry;
- changes in tax and securities law;
- changes in statutory or U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), practices or policies;
- regulatory or legislative changes or developments;
- the effects of unanticipated events on our disaster recovery and business continuity planning;
- failures or limitations of our computer, data security and administration systems;
- risks of employee error or misconduct;
- the introduction of alternative healthcare solutions; and
- changes in assumptions for retirement expense.

Table of Contents

We describe these risks and uncertainties in detail in Item IA, Risk Factors, in our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 2, 2011, as supplemented by our discussion in Part II Item 1A, Risk Factors, to this Form 10Q. It has never been a matter of corporate policy for us to make specific projections relating to future earnings, and we do not endorse any projections regarding future performance made by others. Additionally, we do not publicly update or revise forward-looking statements based on the outcome of various foreseeable or unforeseeable events.

Overview

We are a diversified insurance and financial services company, offering a broad spectrum of life, annuity, health, and property and casualty insurance products. Chartered in 1905, we are headquartered in Galveston, Texas. We operate in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Guam, American Samoa and Puerto Rico.

General Trends

There were no material changes to the general trends we are experiencing, as discussed in the MD&A included in our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 2, 2011.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with GAAP. In addition to GAAP, insurance companies apply specific SEC regulations when preparing the consolidated financial statements. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and notes. Actual results could differ from results reported using those estimates.

Our accounting policies inherently require the use of judgments relating to a variety of assumptions and estimates, particularly expectations of current and future mortality, morbidity, persistency, expenses, interest rates, and property and casualty frequency, severity, claim reporting and settlement patterns. Due to the inherent uncertainty when using the assumptions and estimates, the effect of certain accounting policies under different conditions or assumptions could be different from those reported in the consolidated financial statements.

For a discussion of our critical accounting estimates, see the MD&A in our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 2, 2011. There were no material changes in accounting policies from December 31, 2010.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

Refer to Note 3, Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements.

(1) A negative amount of net change indicates more expense was deferred than amortized and represents a decrease to expenses in the periods indicated.

Consolidated earnings decreased during the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 primarily as a result of:

a decrease in our property and casualty segment earnings due to weather-related events, a decrease in health segment earnings, as a result of discontinued products and decreases in net investment income and realized investment gains due to negative market value adjustments for option investments, which support our equity-indexed annuity products.

The decrease was partially offset by decreases in interest credited to policyholders' account balances (interest credited). Consolidated earnings increased during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 primarily as a result of:

improved property and casualty segment results and an increase in net investment income primarily due to an increase in invested assets.

In the Consolidated Results of Operations above and in the segment discussions that follow, certain amounts in the prior year have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation. See Note 15, Segment Information, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements.

Table of ContentsResults of Operations and Related Information by Segment*Life

The Life segment markets traditional life insurance products such as whole and term life, and interest-sensitive life insurance products such as universal life and variable universal life as well as indexed universal life. These products are marketed on a nationwide basis through employee agents, multiple-line agents, independent agents, brokers and direct marketing channels. Life segment financial results for the periods indicated were as follows (in thousands):

| Total benefits and expenses | 158,035 | 157,006 | 1,029 | 470,341 | 457,899 | 12,442 |
| Income before other items and federal income taxes | $ 17,026 | $ 16,605 | $ 421 | $ 48,682 | $ 56,902 | $ (8,220) |

(1) A negative amount of net change indicates more expense was deferred than amortized and represents a decrease to expenses in the periods indicated.

Earnings for the three months ended September 30, 2011 were relatively flat compared to the same period for 2010. For the nine months ended September 30, 2011, earnings decreased compared to the same periods in 2010, primarily attributable to an increase in policyholder benefits.

Premiums and other revenues

Changes in premiums are primarily driven by new sales during the period and the persistency of in-force policies. Premiums were relatively flat in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011.

Other policy revenues include mortality charges, earned policy service fees and surrender charges on interest-sensitive life insurance policies. The increase during the nine-month period was primarily driven by growth in total mortality charges, as well as an increase in terminations during the first quarter, resulting in additional surrender charges and related fees.

Benefits, losses and expenses

Policyholder benefits increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The increases were the result of higher mortality costs net of reinsurance, primarily due to an increase in claims, most notably on larger face-value policies.

Table of Contents

The following table presents the components of the change in DAC (in thousands):

| | Three months ended September 30, | | | Nine months ended September 30, | | |
|---|---|-----------------|-------------------|--|-----------------|-------------------|
| | 2011 | 2010 | Change | 2011 | 2010 | Change |
| Acquisition cost capitalized | $ 20,153 | $ 21,474 | $ (1,321) | $ 59,672 | $ 59,622 | $ 50 |
| Amortization of DAC | (21,165) | (19,715) | (1,450) | (55,848) | (53,719) | (2,129) |
| Change in deferred policy acquisition costs ⁽¹⁾ | $ (1,012) | $ 1,759 | $ (2,771) | $ 3,824 | $ 5,903 | $ (2,079) |

(1) A positive amount of net change indicates more expense was deferred than amortized and represents a decrease to expenses in the periods indicated.

The increase in the amortization of DAC was the result of the previously described increase in policy terminations.

Regulatory Matters

On July 5, 2011, the State of New York Insurance Department issued a directive requiring life insurers doing business in the State of New York to utilize data available in the U. S. Social Security Death Master File (SSA Master File) to identify situations where death benefits under life insurance contracts, annuities and retained assets accounts could be due, to locate and pay beneficiaries under such contracts, and to report the results of the use of the data. We are reviewing our claims settlement procedures and utilizing information in the SSA Master File to determine when insureds have died. American National is evaluating the impact of the previously mentioned regulatory directive, if any, on its consolidated financial statements.

Policy In-Force Information

The following table summarizes changes in the Life segment's in-force amounts (in thousands):

| | 2011 | September 30, 2010 | Change |
|--------------------------------------|----------------------|---------------------------|-------------------|
| Life insurance in-force | | | |
| Traditional life | $ 46,562,702 | $ 45,751,640 | $ 811,062 |
| Interest-sensitive life | 23,640,651 | 23,999,398 | (358,747) |
| Total life insurance in-force | $ 70,203,353 | $ 69,751,038 | $ 452,315 |

The following table summarizes changes in the Life segment's number of policies in-force:

| | 2011 | September 30, 2010 | Change |
|------------------------------------|------------------|---------------------------|-----------------|
| Number of policies in-force | | | |
| Traditional life | 2,220,085 | 2,298,203 | (78,118) |
| Interest-sensitive life | 177,734 | 175,873 | 1,861 |
| Total number of policies | 2,397,819 | 2,474,076 | (76,257) |

There was an increase in total life insurance in-force in 2011 compared to 2010. The increase to our traditional life products is believed to be the result of consumers seeking contract guarantees due to the economic environment in recent years. This increase was partially offset by a decrease in our interest-sensitive life policies as the result of lower prevailing interest rates.

The decrease in our policy count is attributable to surrenders and lapses, as well as new business activity generally being comprised of fewer but larger face-value policies.

Table of ContentsAnnuity

We develop, sell and support a variety of immediate and deferred annuities, including fixed, equity-indexed and variable products. (1) A negative amount of net change indicates more expense was deferred than amortized and represents a decrease to expenses in the periods indicated.

Earnings remained relatively flat for the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The significant decreases in net investment income and offset to interest credited was primarily the result of benchmark interest rates declining during the period compared to the increases during the same period in 2010.

Earnings decreased slightly for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 primarily as the result of a decrease in premiums offset by the related decrease in policyholders' benefits, as well as growth in net investment income outpacing the growth in interest credited. The increase in other operating expenses was primarily the result of an accrual for a previously disclosed litigation matter resolved in the first quarter. For additional information, see Note 16, Commitments and Contingencies, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements. Without this accrual, earnings would have increased $10.4 million compared to the first nine months of 2010.

Market interest rates reached and remained at record lows during the first nine months of 2011, keeping sales of our fixed annuity products strong as consumers sought the protection of these investments, though market volatility slowed sales during the third quarter. Fixed deferred annuity deposits decreased for the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. We believe the decrease was driven primarily by consumer uncertainty during the third quarter as compared to the first half of the year and compared to the more optimistic environment in 2010. The financial market's volatility and analysts' predictions of increased chances of a "double-dip" recession may have impacted consumer intent to enter the market during the quarter.

Table of Contents

Fixed deferred annuity deposits increased significantly for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The increase was primarily a result of our marketing efforts to expand bank distribution through new accounts. In addition, continued depressed interest rates assisted in making our fixed deferred annuity rates more attractive relative to other competing financial products.

Single premium immediate annuities (SPIA) decreased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. Premiums for this product decreased primarily as a result of lower investment yields, restraining demand for this product in anticipation of increased income payments in the future.

Equity-indexed annuities allow policyholders to participate in equity returns while also having certain downside protection resulting from guaranteed minimum crediting rates. Deposits for this product decreased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the same period in 2010. We believe this decrease was primarily due to lower fixed investment yields resulting in lower declared indexed crediting terms.

Net investment income, a key component of the annuity segment profitability, decreased for the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 as a result of negative returns from option investments which support our equity-indexed annuity products. Refer to the Options and Derivatives discussion for further analysis of these results. Net investment income increased for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The increase was mainly attributed to a 9.9% increase in the average assets backing the in-force fixed deferred annuity account balances. The increase was partially offset by our option losses.

Benefits, losses and expenses

Policyholder benefits consist primarily of reserve increases and benefit payments on single premium immediate annuity contracts. The changes in this expense are consistent with the changes in total earned premiums in the current and comparable periods.

The decrease in the interest credited during the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010, as well as the increase in the nine months ended compared to 2010, were a direct result of the fluctuations in net investment income. Refer to the Options and Derivatives discussion for further analysis of these results.

Commissions decreased and increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, respectively, compared to 2010. These fluctuations were primarily due to the changes in premiums and annuity deposits.

Other operating expenses increased during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 primarily as the result of an accrual related to the previously disclosed litigation matter. Without this accrual, other operating expenses would have decreased $7.2 million.

Table of Contents

The change in DAC represents acquisition costs capitalized, net of amortization of existing DAC. The amortization of DAC is calculated in proportion to gross profits. The following table presents the components of the change in DAC (in thousands):

| | Three months ended September 30, | | | Nine months ended September 30, | | |
|---|---|------------------|-------------------|--|------------------|--------------------|
| | 2011 | 2010 | Change | 2011 | 2010 | Change |
| Acquisition cost capitalized | $ 27,321 | $ 28,633 | $ (1,312) | $ 98,345 | $ 92,038 | $ 6,307 |
| Amortization of DAC | (25,036) | (16,989) | (8,047) | $ (67,840) | (51,454) | (16,386) |
| Change in deferred policy acquisition costs ⁽¹⁾ | $ 2,285 | $ 11,644 | $ (9,359) | $ 30,505 | $ 40,584 | $ (10,079) |

(1) A positive amount of net change indicates more expense was deferred than amortized and is a decrease to expense in the periods indicated.

The decrease in acquisition costs capitalized during the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the same period in 2010 was the result of lower premium and deposit inflows and related commissions. Conversely, the increase in acquisition costs capitalized during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the same period in 2010 were the result of higher premium and deposit inflows and related commissions.

The increase in amortization during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 was the result of increased surrenders and withdrawals.

An important measure of the Annuity segment is the amortization of DAC as a percentage of gross profits. The amortization of DAC as a percentage of gross profits for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, was 50.7% and 44.1%, respectively, compared to 36.6% and 37.9%, respectively, for the same periods in 2010. The increases in the ratios were primarily driven by the increase in surrenders during 2011 compared to 2010.

Options and Derivatives

We utilize equity options as a means to hedge equity-indexed deferred annuity benefits. Equity-indexed deferred annuities include a fixed host annuity contract and an embedded equity derivative. Interest credited is generally comprised of interest accruals to fixed deferred annuity account balances. In addition to the accrual of interest on the host contract, the gain or loss on the embedded equity derivative is also recognized as interest credited for equity-indexed deferred annuities. Embedded derivative gains and losses can introduce material fluctuations in interest credited from one period to the next.

The profits on fixed deferred annuity contracts are driven by the difference between interest earned and credited (interest spreads) and, to a lesser extent, other policy fees. When determining crediting rates for fixed deferred annuities, management considers current investment yields in setting new money crediting rates and looks at average portfolio yields when setting renewal rates. Management also takes into account target spreads established by pricing models while factoring in price levels needed to maintain a competitive position. Target interest spreads vary by product depending on specific attributes.

Shown below is the analysis of the impact to net investment income resulting from the change in market value of options (option change), along with the impact to interest credited to equity-indexed deferred annuity account values resulting from the change in market value of their underlying contracts (equity-indexed change) (in thousands):

| Equity-indexed change | (4,299) | (2,473) | (1,826) | (7,907) | 10,438 | (18,345) |

Net investment income without option change, as well as the related interest credited without equity-indexed change, increased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the same periods in 2010. The increases were due to increases in aggregate annuity account values from year-to-date sales during 2011 and additional interest being credited on annuities in-force at year end 2010. The overall increase in the investment asset base attributed to annuities was 11.1% and 9.9% during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, respectively.

Option change, as well as the related equity-indexed change, decreased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the same periods in 2010. These decreases were due to the deterioration of the S&P 500 Index of 14.3% and 10.0% during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the gains of 10.7% and 2.3% during the same periods in 2010.

Account Values

We monitor account values and changes in those values as key indicators of the performance of our Annuity segment. Changes in account values may result from net inflows, surrenders, policy fees, interest credited and market value changes. Account values and reserves of our annuity products increased during the first nine months of 2011 compared to the same period in 2010, primarily as a result of new deposits and interest credited. Shown below are the changes in account values (in thousands):

Table of ContentsHealth

The Health segment primarily focuses on supplemental and limited benefit coverage products including Medicare Supplement insurance for the senior market as well as hospital surgical and cancer policies for the general population. For the first nine months of 2011, premium volume was concentrated in our Medicare Supplement (43.7%) and medical expense (20.9%) lines. Our other health products include credit accident and health policies and other limited benefit coverages. Health products are distributed through a network of independent agents and Managing General Underwriters (MGU). Health segment results for the periods indicated were as follows (in thousands):

(1) A negative amount of net change indicates more expense was deferred than amortized and represents a decrease to expenses in the periods indicated.

Changes in earnings for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 were driven primarily by the discontinuation of sales of our medical expense insurance plans effective June 30, 2010. Additionally, sales of our Medicare Supplement product decreased due to aggressive pricing by a large competitor. Earnings for the three months ended September 30, 2011 decreased compared to 2010, due to the contracting block of business. Earnings improved for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010, primarily because the reductions in claims incurred and commissions outpaced the reduction in premiums.

Benefits, losses and expenses

Claims incurred decreased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the same periods in 2010. The decrease was primarily due to the discontinuance of sales of our medical expense insurance plans, as well as the decrease in sales of our Medicare Supplement products.

Commissions decreased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to the same period in 2010, consistent with lower premiums.

(2) Excludes reinstatement premiums

The Property and Casualty segment earnings decreased during the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010, primarily due to claims incurred from Hurricane Irene, which impacted much of the east coast of the United States, as well as Midwest weather-related catastrophe events. Results improved through the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. This is primarily due to improvement in our non-catastrophe combined ratios.

Premiums and other revenues

Net premiums written and earned decreased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The three-month decrease is primarily due to decreased premiums in our personal auto products. During this time period, our average premium per policy has increased as we are obtaining additional premium per exposure. The nine-month decrease is primarily due to our catastrophe reinsurance reinstatement premium and decreased premiums across both personal and commercial lines of business. During the nine months ended September 30, 2011 our catastrophe reinsurance reinstatement premium increased by $9.3 million over the same period in 2010 as the result of higher catastrophe reinsurance recoveries in 2011 compared to 2010.

Benefits, losses and expenses

Claims incurred include losses and loss adjustment expenses (LAE) on property and casualty policies. Claims incurred increased during the three months ended September 30, 2011 and decreased for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The three-month increase was primarily due to increased claims incurred in our homeowner and agribusiness lines from the previously mentioned catastrophe events. The nine-month decrease resulted primarily from the decreases in losses incurred related to our personal and commercial auto policies and losses from our other commercial and credit-related property products.

Table of Contents

The loss ratio increased for the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 primarily from increased catastrophe claims activity for both personal and commercial lines of business.

Gross catastrophes for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2011 were $17.1 million and $207.1 million, respectively, compared to $4.6 million and $124.2 million, respectively, for the same periods in 2010. Although we experienced a significant increase in our gross catastrophe losses, this was mitigated by our improved reinsurance program, which provided us with a significant increase in catastrophe reinsurance recoveries in 2011 compared to 2010. The additional catastrophe reinsurance recovery was attributable to lower catastrophe loss retentions and an aggregate property catastrophe excess reinsurance contract in place during 2011.

While the frequency of catastrophe events in 2011 was consistent with 2010, gross catastrophe losses increased primarily from the severity of the catastrophe events over the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2011. The nine months catastrophe activity includes a record number of tornados, two events which impacted primarily Alabama in late April and Joplin, Missouri in May. These two events alone accounted for $102.4 million in gross catastrophe losses and $28.8 million in net catastrophe losses during the nine-month period ending September 30, 2011.

The combined ratio, excluding net catastrophe losses, improved to 95.3% and 94.5% for the three and nine months ending September 30, 2011, respectively, compared with 99.2% and 98.4%, respectively, for the same periods in 2010. This was primarily driven by an improvement in rate adequacy. Inherent to our fundamental risk management practices, we continue to evaluate and manage our aggregate catastrophe risk exposure with targeted rate changes, risk selection and reinsurance coverage.

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, the net favorable prior year loss and LAE development was $10.2 million and $38.1 million, respectively, compared to $20.9 million and $65.0 million favorable development for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, respectively. This favorable development is primarily in our workers compensation, personal auto and commercial liability lines, which are demonstrating better than expected loss emergence compared to what was implied by our historical development patterns.

Commissions for acquiring and servicing policies decreased during the three months ended September 30, 2011. This is primarily from an $8.0 million expense incurred during 2010 related to a revision in our post termination compensation plan with some agents which was not incurred in 2011 partially offset by increased commissions in our credit-related property products.

The decrease in expense as a result of the change in deferred policy acquisition costs for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 is attributable to a shift in our credit-related property products from shorter duration products to longer duration products.

Products

Our Property and Casualty segment consists of three product lines: (i) Personal Lines, which we market primarily to individuals, represent 60.3% of net premiums written, (ii) Commercial Lines, which focus primarily on agricultural and other targeted commercial markets, represent 27.9% of net premiums written, and (iii) Credit-related property insurance products which are marketed to and through financial institutions and retailers and represent 11.8% of net premiums written.

Personal Automobile: Net premiums written and earned decreased in our personal automobile line during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010, due to a decline in policies in-force resulting from a competitive marketplace and lower new business sales. During this time period, our average premium per policy has increased, driven by improvement in rate adequacy, resulting in an improvement in the loss and combined ratio for the nine months ended September 30, 2011.

The combined ratio improved for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 primarily due to the previously mentioned decrease in commissions. The nine months ended combined ratio also improved as a result of a decreasing loss ratio.

Homeowners: Net premiums written and earned decreased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The three-month decrease was due to lower policies in-force mostly offset by increases in premium per policy. The decrease for the nine-months ended was primarily attributable to catastrophe reinsurance reinstatement premiums as a result of higher catastrophe reinsurance losses ceded.

The loss and combined ratios increased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010, due primarily to an increase in net claims incurred. The increase in claims incurred was a result of the increased severity of the catastrophe activity.

Other Personal: This product line is comprised primarily of watercraft, rental-owner and umbrella coverages for individuals seeking to protect their personal property not covered within their homeowner and auto policies. Net premiums written and earned have decreased during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. Premiums are trending commensurate with the reduction in the homeowners and personal automobile lines as policies are typically sold in conjunction with one another.

The loss and combined ratios increased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010 primarily due to increased umbrella claims and decreased premiums. As this is currently our smallest line of business in our Personal Products line, minor fluctuations in results can more easily cause volatility in these ratios.

| Commercial line combined ratio | 108.8% | 101.1% | 7.7 | 112.8% | 122.4% | (9.6) |

Other Commercial: The loss and combined ratios improved during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. This improvement is the result of less claim activity in the workers' compensation products, resulting in a $19.9 million decrease to benefits during the nine months ended September 30, 2011.

Agribusiness Product: Our agribusiness product allows policyholders to customize and combine their coverage for residential and household contents, buildings and building contents, farm personal property and liability. Net premiums written and earned decreased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The decrease in the three-month period was primarily the result of a decrease in policies in-force. The nine-month period decrease was also due to the decrease in policies in-force as the result of non-renewing certain policies in unprofitable segments and catastrophe reinsurance reinstatement premiums that were not incurred in 2010. The loss and combined ratios increased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010, primarily as the result of the increase in catastrophe losses from Hurricane Irene in the month of August and other severe weather related events.

Commercial Automobile: Net premiums written and earned had a slight decrease during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The decrease was primarily the result of a reduction in policies in-force resulting from rate increases and improved selective underwriting. This product line experienced a 17.6% and 10.5% decrease in losses incurred during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, respectively. The decrease was due to a decrease in frequency and severity of claims, which resulted in an improvement in the loss and combined ratios during the periods.

Credit-related property insurance products are offered on automobiles, furniture and appliances in connection with the financing of those items. These policies pay an amount if the insured property is lost or damaged and is not directly related to an event affecting the consumer's ability to pay the debt. The primary distribution channel for credit-related property insurance is general agents who market to auto dealers, furniture stores and financial institutions.

Net premiums written and earned increased for the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared to 2010. The primary driver for the increase in premiums is the growth of our Guaranteed Asset Protection (GAP) products. Our credit business continues to shift from the shorter duration Collateral Protection products, to the longer duration GAP products. This shift is reflected in our net premiums earned. The primary driver for the increases in net premiums written, while net premiums earned decreased for the nine months ended September 30, 2011, is due to the previously mentioned shift in our product mix. Shorter duration products generally earn the entire premium within 12 months of the effective date, while longer duration products may take up to 84 months before they are fully earned.

The improvements in the loss ratios were attributable to an overall decline in claims incurred as a result of lower frequency and severity of claims. Specifically, the GAP line of business experienced a positive trend in claims incurred as the result of used automobile market values rebounding from the recent financial crisis.

Table of ContentsCorporate and Other

Our Corporate and Other business segment primarily includes the capital not allocated to support our insurance business segments. Our capital and surplus is invested and managed by internal investment staff. Investments include publicly traded equities, real estate, mortgage loans, high-yield bonds, private equity partnerships, mineral interests and tax-advantaged instruments. Corporate and Other business segment results for the periods indicated were as follows (in thousands):

Earnings for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 increased compared to the same period in 2010, due to an increase in net investment income and realized investment gains offset somewhat by higher operating expenses. The increase in net investment income is primarily the result of higher interest income from our mortgage loan portfolio.

Investments

We manage our investment portfolio to optimize our rate of return commensurate with sound and prudent practices to maintain a well-diversified portfolio. Our investment operations are governed by various regulatory authorities including, but not limited to, the state insurance departments where our insurance companies are domiciled.

Investment activities, including the setting of investment policies and defining acceptable risk levels, are subject to review and approval by our Board of Directors, which is assisted by our Finance Committee, comprised of two board members, senior executives and investment professionals.

Our insurance and annuity products are primarily supported by investment-grade bonds, collateralized mortgage obligations and commercial mortgage loans. We purchase fixed maturity securities and designate them as either held-to-maturity or available-for-sale as necessary to match our estimated future cash flow needs. We use statistical measures, such as duration and the modeling of future cash flows using stochastic interest rate scenarios, to balance our investment portfolio to the pricing objectives of our underlying insurance products. As part of our asset-liability risk management program, we monitor the composition of our fixed maturity securities between held-to-maturity and available-for-sale securities and adjust the concentrations within the portfolio as investments mature or with the purchase of new investments.

We invest directly in quality commercial mortgage loans when the yield and quality compare favorably with other fixed maturity securities. Investments in individual residential mortgage loans have not been part of our investment portfolio and we do not anticipate investing in them in the future.

Our strong historic capitalization has enabled us to invest in equity securities and investment real estate where there are opportunities for enhanced returns. We invest in real estate and equity securities based on a risk and reward analysis.

The increase in our total investments was primarily a result of purchasing investments with the net proceeds of annuity and life premium and investment income. During the quarter ended September 30, 2011, we sold a portfolio of directly owned industrial real estate and our interests in partnerships of similar industrial real estate. These sales are the primary causes of the decrease in our investments in investment real estate and other invested assets.

Each of the components of our invested assets is described further in Note 4, Investments; Note 7, Credit Risk Management; and Note 8, Fair Value of Financial Instruments, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements. In addition, net investment income and realized investments gains (losses), before federal income taxes, are summarized within Note 4, Investments, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements.

Additionally, Note 2, Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Practices, of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements within our Annual Report on Form 10-K as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010, filed with the SEC on March 2, 2011, contains a detailed description of the Company's methodology for evaluating other-than-temporary impairment losses on its investments.

For the quarter ended September 30, 2011, our review of invested assets resulted in our recognizing, in realized losses, other-than-temporary-impairment losses of $4.9 million compared to $1.5 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2010. Each of the recognized impairments were attributable to equity securities trading below cost basis for a prolonged period of time and investment and operating management did not foresee a recovery to our cost basis within a reasonable period of time.

Investments to Support Our Insurance Business

Bonds- We allocate most of our fixed maturity securities to support our insurance business.

At September 30, 2011, our fixed maturity securities had an estimated fair market value of $14.3 billion, which was $876.4 million, or 6.5%, above amortized cost. At December 31, 2010, our fixed maturity securities had an estimated fair value of $13.1 billion, which was $664.6 million, or 5.3%, above amortized cost. The increase in total fair value was the result of new purchases to support policyholders' account values attributable to annuity sales as well as market value increases.

Fixed maturity securities' estimated fair value, due in one year or less, increased to $1.0 billion as of September 30, 2011 from $685.3 million as of December 31, 2010, as the result of approaching maturity dates of long-term bonds.

The slight shifts in the credit quality distribution of our investment grade bonds at September 30, 2011 compared to December 31, 2010, was primarily the result of purchase transactions and maturities. At 4.2% of our total bond portfolio, the exposure to below investment grade securities is acceptable to management. The decrease in the amount and percentage of fixed maturity securities rated below investment grade is primarily attributable to maturities.

Mortgage Loans- We invest in commercial mortgage loans that are diversified by borrower, property-type and geography. We do not make individual residential mortgage loans. Therefore, we have no direct exposure to sub-prime or Alt A mortgage loans in our portfolio. Generally, mortgage loans are secured by first liens on income-producing real estate with a loan-to-value ratio of up to 75%. Mortgage loans are used to support a portion of our insurance liabilities. Mortgage loans held-for-investment are carried at outstanding principal balances, adjusted for any unamortized discount, deferred fees or expenses, and net of allowances.

The weighted average coupon yield on the principal funded for mortgage loans was 6.3% and 6.8% for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and year ended December 31, 2010, respectively.

Equity Securities- As of September 30, 2011, 96.0% of our equity securities consisted of publicly traded (on a national U.S. stock exchange) common stock. The remaining 4.0% of the equity securities consisted of publicly traded preferred stock. As of December 31, 2010, 96.6% of our equity securities consisted of publicly traded common stock, and the remaining 3.4% consisted of publicly traded preferred stock. The decrease in the fair value of our equity securities during the first nine months of 2011 reflects fair value decreases within the portfolio. We carry our equity portfolio at fair value primarily based on quoted estimated fair value prices obtained from external pricing services.

Investment Real Estate- We invest in commercial real estate with positive cash flows or where appreciation in value is expected. Real estate may be owned directly by our insurance companies, through non-insurance affiliates or joint ventures. The carrying value of real estate is cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the properties.

Short-Term Investments- Short-term investments are composed primarily of commercial paper rated A2/P2 or better by Standard & Poor's and Moody's, respectively. The amount fluctuates depending on the available long-term investment opportunities and our liquidity needs, including investment-funding commitments.

The decrease in the amount of short-term investments since December 31, 2010 is attributable to our purchasing longer maturity fixed income investments and investing in commercial mortgages to support our insurance businesses. Decreases in benchmark interest rates, such as the 10-year U.S. Treasury, has caused us to slow the acquisition of longer term investments as we believe we are not being adequately compensated for accepting the risk associated with changes in future interest rates. We monitor on a daily basis the amount of short-term investments and long-term investment opportunities to select appropriate investments to support our insurance businesses.

Table of Contents

Policy Loans- For certain life insurance products, we permit policyholders to borrow funds using their policy as collateral. The maximum amount of the policy loan depends upon the policy's surrender value and the number of years since policy origination. As of September 30, 2011, we had $389.8 million in policy loans with a loan to surrender value of 57.2%, and at December 31, 2010, we had $380.5 million in policy loans with a loan to surrender value of 61.2%. Interest rates on policy loans primarily range from 3.0 % to 12.0% per annum.

Policy loans may be repaid at any time by the policyholder and have priority to any claims on the policy. If the policyholder fails to repay the policy loan, funds are withdrawn from the policyholder's benefits.

Net Investment Income and Realized Investments Gains (Losses)

Net investment income from bonds and mortgage loans used to support our insurance products increased over the period as assets increased with net annuity sales. Net investment income in other asset classes (equities, real estate and options) fluctuated in response to investment decisions based on valuations, financial markets movement and expectations of future returns.

Mortgage loan interest income is accrued on the principal amount of the loan based on the loan's contractual interest rate. Accretion of discounts is recorded using the effective yield method. Interest income, accretion of discounts, and prepayment fees are reported in net investment income. Interest income earned on impaired loans is accrued on the principal amount of the loan based on the loan's contractual interest rate. However, interest ceases to be accrued for loans on which interest is generally more than 90 days past due or when the collection of interest is not considered probable. Loans in foreclosure are placed on non-accrual status. Interest received on non-accrual status mortgage loans is included in net investment income in the period received.

Unrealized Gains and Losses

The net change in unrealized gains (losses) on available-for-sale securities, as presented in the stockholders' equity section of the consolidated statements of financial position, was an unrealized loss of $61.6 million at September 30, 2011 and an unrealized gain of $109.0 million at December 31, 2010.

Liquidity

Our liquidity requirements have been and are expected to continue to be met by cash flows from operations. Current and expected patterns of claim frequency and severity may change from period to period but are expected to continue to be within historical norms. Management considers our current liquidity position to be sufficient to meet anticipated demands over the next twelve months.

To ensure that we will be able to continue to pay future commitments, the funds received as premium payments and deposits are invested in high quality investments, primarily fixed maturity securities and commercial mortgages. Funds are invested with the intent that income from the investments and proceeds from the maturities will meet our ongoing cash flow needs. We historically have not had to liquidate invested assets in order to cover cash flow needs; however, our portfolio of highly liquid available-for-sale debt and equity securities is available to meet future liquidity needs, if necessary.

We have renewed our $100 million short-term variable rate borrowing facility containing a $55 million subfeature for the issuance of letters of credit. The renewal contained a slight modification to duration from a mid-month to a quarter-end expiration. Borrowings under the facility are at the discretion of the lender and would be used only for funding our working capital requirements. The combination of borrowings and outstanding letters of credit cannot exceed $100 million at any time. As of September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the outstanding letters of credit were $33.8 million and $37.5 million, respectively, and there were no borrowings on this facility to meet liquidity requirements. This facility expires on September 30, 2012. We expect it will be renewed on substantially equivalent terms upon expiration.

Table of ContentsCapital Resources

Our capital resources consisted of American National stockholders' equity, summarized as follows (in thousands):

| | September 30, 2011 | December 31, 2010 |
|--|-------------------------------|------------------------------|
| American National stockholders' equity, excluding accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), net of tax (AOCI) | $ 3,484,931 | $ 3,407,439 |
| AOCI | 163,032 | 225,212 |
| Total American National stockholders' equity | $ 3,647,963 | $ 3,632,651 |

We have notes payable in our consolidated statements of financial position that are not part of our capital resources. These notes payable represent amounts borrowed by real estate joint ventures that we consolidate into our financial statements. The lenders for the notes payable have no recourse against us in the event of default by the joint ventures. Therefore, the only amount of liability we have for these notes payable is limited to our investment in the respective venture, which totaled $21.5 million at September 30, 2011 and $21.2 million at December 31, 2010.

Total stockholders' equity in the first nine months of 2011 increased primarily due to the $136.1 million net income earned during the period, offset by $61.6 million unrealized losses on available-for-sale securities and $62.0 million in dividends paid to stockholders.

Statutory Surplus and Risk-based Capital

Statutory surplus represents the capital of our insurance companies reported in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the applicable state insurance departments. Risk-based capital (RBC) is a minimum capital requirement calculated using formulas and instructions from the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC). State laws specify regulatory actions if an insurer's ratio of statutory surplus to RBC, a measure of an insurer's solvency, falls below certain levels. The RBC formula for life companies establishes minimum capital requirements for asset, interest rate, market, insurance and business risks. The RBC formula for property and casualty companies establishes minimum capital requirements for asset and underwriting risks including reserve risk.

The achievement of long-term growth will require growth in American National Insurance Company and our insurance subsidiaries' statutory capital. Our subsidiaries may obtain additional statutory capital through various sources, such as retained statutory earnings or equity contributions from us. As of December 31, 2010, the levels of our and our insurance subsidiaries' surplus and RBC exceeded the NAIC's minimum RBC requirements.

Contractual Obligations

Our future cash payments associated with claims and claims adjustment expenses, life, annuity and disability obligations, contractual obligations pursuant to operating leases for office space and equipment, and notes payable have not materially changed since December 31, 2010. We expect to have the capacity to repay or refinance these obligations as they come due.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have off-balance sheet arrangements relating to third-party marketing operation bank loans discussed within Note 16, Commitments and Contingencies, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements. We could be exposed to a liability for these loans, which support the cash value of the underlying insurance contracts. However, since the cash value of the life insurance policies is designed to always equal or exceed the balance of the loans, management does not foresee any loss related to these arrangements.

Related-Party Transactions

We have various agency, consulting and investment arrangements with individuals and corporations that are considered to be related parties. Each of these arrangements has been reviewed and approved by our Audit Committee. The total amount involved in these arrangements, both individually and in the aggregate, is not material to any segment or to our overall operations. For additional details, see Note 18, Related Party Transactions, of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Our market risks have not changed materially from those disclosed in our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 2, 2011.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as that term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act)) that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the Company's reports under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Corporate Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures. Any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives. The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Corporate Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of September 30, 2011. Based upon that evaluation and subject to the foregoing, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Corporate Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of September 30, 2011, the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to accomplish their objectives at the reasonable assurance level.

Management has monitored the internal controls over financial reporting, including any material changes to the internal control over financial reporting. There were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as that term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that occurred during the quarter ended September 30, 2011 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Information required for Item 1 is incorporated by reference to the discussion under the heading "Litigation" in Note 16, "Commitments and Contingencies," of the Notes to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

The following should be read in conjunction with and supplements the section titled "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010. Such risks could materially affect our business, results of operations or financial condition, cause the trading price of our Common Stock to decline materially, or cause our actual results to differ materially from those expected or those expressed in any forward-looking statements by or on behalf of us. These risks are not exclusive, and additional risks to which we are subject include, but are not limited to, the factors mentioned under "Forward-Looking Statements" section and the risks of our business described elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

A downgrade or a potential downgrade in our financial strength ratings could result in a loss of business and could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Financial strength ratings, which various Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organizations ("NRSROs") publish as indicators of an insurance company's ability to meet policyholder and contractholder obligations, are important to maintaining public confidence in our products, our ability to market our products, and our competitive position. We cannot predict what actions rating agencies may take, or what actions we may take in response to the actions of rating agencies, which could adversely affect our business. As with other companies in the financial services industry, our ratings could be downgraded at any time and without any notices by any NRSRO.

On October 6, 2011, Standard & Poor's rating service lowered its counterparty credit and financial strength ratings on our core operating companies from "A+" to "A" with an outlook of "stable." This follows Standard & Poor's October 20, 2010 action lowering such ratings from "AA-" to "A+" with an outlook of "negative." These recent ratings downgrades, a further downgrade of such ratings, or an announced potential further downgrade could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations in many ways, including:

reducing new sales of insurance products, and annuity products;

adversely affecting our relationships with our sales force and independent sales intermediaries; materially increasing the number or amount of policy surrenders and withdrawals by policyholders and contract holders;

requiring us to reduce prices for many of our products and services to remain competitive;

increasing our possible borrowing cost;

adversely affecting our ability to obtain reinsurance at reasonable prices; and adversely affecting our relationships with credit counterparties.

Standard & Poor's rating actions focused heavily on our property and casualty operations, which have been impacted by a number of large catastrophic events over the last several years. While the property and casualty operations have become more significant in recent years, the life and annuity operations remain our key focus, and those operations have had a substantial improvement in performance over recent periods. Standard & Poor's ratings actions also cited competitive challenges due to our relative scale as compared to other larger multi-line companies.

Table of Contents

In view of the difficulties experienced recently by many financial institutions, including our competitors in the insurance industry, we believe it is possible that the NRSROs will heighten the level of scrutiny that they apply to such institutions, will increase the frequency and scope of their credit reviews, will request additional information from the companies that they rate, and may adjust upward the capital and other requirements employed in the NRSRO models for maintenance of certain ratings levels.
