INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Plan Administrators
Callon Petroleum Company
Employee Savings and Protection Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of Callon Petroleum Company Employee Savings and Protection Plan as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2002. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Callon Petroleum Company Employee Savings and Protection Plan as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets held for investment as of December 31, 2002 is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by the United States Department of Labor Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

EMPLOYEE SAVINGS AND PROTECTION PLAN
December 31, 2002 and 2001 and
Year Ended December 31, 2002

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

The following description of the Callon Petroleum Company Employee Savings and Protection Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

GENERAL

Employees become eligible to participate in the Plan on the first eligibility date of their employment and attainment of age twenty-one (21). Effective January 1, 2002, eligibility dates are the first day of each month. Prior to 2002, eligibility dates were the first day of each calendar quarter. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

CONTRIBUTIONS

Participating employees may defer up to $11,000 ($12,000 if over age 50) in 2002 and $10,500 in 2001 of their eligible compensation. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company contributed a 2.5 percent non-matching contribution in cash and a 2.5 percent non-matching contribution in the form of Callon Petroleum Company common stock for each employee's eligible compensation. The Company also contributed a matching contribution at the rate of .3125 percent in cash and .3125 percent in stock for every 1 percent that was deferred by the participant, limited to a maximum matching contribution by the company of 2.5 percent in cash and 2.5 percent in stock. For the year ended December 31, 2001, the Company contributed a 1 percent non-matching contribution in cash and a 1 percent non-matching contribution in the form of Callon Petroleum Company common stock for each eligible employee. The Company made a 50 percent matching cash contribution of each employee's deferred income. This Company matching contribution was limited to 4 percent of the employee's eligible compensation. In addition, the Company contributed Callon Petroleum Company common stock equal to its matching cash contributions.

Edgar Filing: CALLON PETROLEUM CO - Form 11-K

PARTICIPANT ACCOUNTS

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and earnings thereon and an allocation of (a) the Company's contribution, and (b) Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant compensation or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

EMPLOYEE SAVINGS AND PROTECTION PLAN
December 31, 2002 and 2001 and
Year Ended December 31, 2002

INVESTMENT OPTIONS

Effective August 1, 2002, participants direct contributions, including employer cash matching contributions, into any of the investment options offered by ING. Prior to August 2002, participants could direct their contributions into investment options offered by Equitable Life Assurance Society ("Equitable"). Participants may change their investment options daily.

Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their voluntary contributions plus earnings thereon and in the Company's contributions and earnings thereon.

Participant Loans

Loans are available to participants on a reasonably equivalent basis, at a minimum amount of $1,000 and bearing interest at a reasonable rate. Participants have up to 5 years to repay the loan unless it is for a principal residence, in which case the repayment period is 30 years. Each loan is secured by the borrowing participant's vested account balance; however, additional collateral may also be required. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Plan allows participants to borrow up to seven loans at a time, which consist of five regular loans and two residential loans. The maximum of any new loans, when added to the outstanding balance of all other loans from the Plan, will be limited to the lesser of (a) $50,000 reduced by the excess, if any, of the participant's highest outstanding balance of loans from the Plan during the one-year period ending on the day before the date of the new loan over the participant's current outstanding balance of loans as of the date of the new loan, or (b) one-half of the participant's vested interest in the Plan. For the year ended December 31, 2001, the Plan allowed participants to borrow up to 50 percent of their total account balance, provided that the participant had participated in the Plan for at least 12 consecutive months and did not have any other loans outstanding at the time of the request.

Payment of Benefits

Upon termination of service, a participant may elect to (a) receive a lump sum equal to the value of his or her account, or (b) receive installments over a period not to exceed the employee's and beneficiary's assumed life expectancy.

Edgar Filing: CALLON PETROLEUM CO - Form 11-K

PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

CALLON PETROLEUM COMPANY EMPLOYEE SAVINGS AND PROTECTION PLAN December 31, 2002 and 2001 and Year Ended December 31, 2002

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Principles

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements of the Plan have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

INVESTMENTS

All Plan investments as of December 31, 2002 are held by ING, the Plan custodian. Investments in pooled separate accounts are reported at the value reported to the Plan by ING, which approximates fair value. Investments in Callon Petroleum Company common stock is reported at quoted market values. Participant's loans are reported at the outstanding principal balance which approximates fair value. All Plan investments as of December 31, 2001 were held by Equitable.

Investment security transactions are accounted for on the date the securities are purchased or sold (trade date). Interest income is recorded as it is earned. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

In 2001, the Plan had a deposit contract with Equitable Life Assurance Society. The account was credited with actual earnings on the underlying investments and charged for plan withdrawals and administrative expenses charged by Equitable. The contract was included in the financial statements at the December 31, 2001 contract value, as reported to the Plan by Equitable.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Administrative Expenses

Edgar Filing: CALLON PETROLEUM CO - Form 11-K

The employer absorbs substantially all administrative expenses of the Plan.

Note 5. Tax Status of Plan

The trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan's assets is qualified pursuant to the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code, and, accordingly, the trust's net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Plan has obtained a favorable tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service. Although the Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter, the Plan's Administrator believes that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 6. Related-Party Transactions

Certain Plan investments are units of pooled separate accounts managed by ING. ING is the custodian of the Plan assets as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions.
