STEWART INFORMATION SERVICES CORPORATION
PROXY STATEMENT
FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To Be Held April 28, 2006

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the stockholders of Stewart Information Services Corporation (the Company), 1980 Post Oak Boulevard, Suite 800, Houston, Texas 77056 (Tel. No. 713-625-8100), in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of the Company of proxies to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Friday, April 28, 2006, at 8:30 A.M., in the First Floor Conference Room of Three Post Oak Central, 1990 Post Oak Boulevard, Houston, Texas, or any adjournment thereof.

Proxies in the form enclosed, properly executed by stockholders and received in time for the meeting, will be voted as specified therein. If a stockholder does not specify otherwise, the shares represented by his or her proxy will be voted for the nominees listed therein. The giving of a proxy does not preclude the right to vote in person should the person giving the proxy so desire, and the proxy may be revoked at any time before it is exercised by written notice delivered to the Company at or prior to the meeting. This Proxy Statement is being mailed on or about March 27, 2006 to stockholders of record at the close of business on February 28, 2006 (the Record Date).

At the close of business on the Record Date, there were outstanding and entitled to vote 17,146,697 shares of Common Stock and 1,050,012 shares of Class B Common Stock, and only the holders of record on such date shall be entitled to vote at the meeting. As long as 600,000 or more shares of Class B Common Stock are outstanding, at each election of directors the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are voted as separate classes. Shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock are convertible on a one-for-one basis into shares of the Company's Common Stock.

The holders of Common Stock, voting as a class, are entitled to elect five of the nine directors of the Company. Each share of Common Stock is entitled, at the option of the person voting such share, either to cast one vote per share for each of the five directors to be elected by the holders of the Common Stock or to vote cumulatively by casting five votes per share, which may be distributed in any manner among any number of the nominees. The enclosed form of proxy provides a means for stockholders to vote for all of the nominees listed therein, to withhold authority to vote for one or more of such nominees or to withhold authority to vote for all of such nominees. If authority to vote for four or fewer of the nominees is withheld, and if there are nominees other than management nominees for the directorships to be filled by the holders of the Common Stock, then the persons named in the enclosed proxy may vote cumulatively by dividing the number of votes represented by the proxy equally among the nominees for which authority to vote is not withheld. If there are no nominees for the five positions to be elected by the holders of Common Stock other than the management nominees set forth herein, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to allocate the votes represented by the proxy evenly among the management nominees. If there should be any additional nominees for such positions, then the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote cumulatively to elect as many as possible of the management nominees. If it is not possible to elect each of the five management nominees, then the persons named in the enclosed proxy will have discretion as to which of such nominees may be elected.

Unless a holder of Common Stock who withholds authority votes in person at the meeting or votes by means of another proxy, the withholding of authority will have no effect upon the election of those directors for whom authority to vote is withheld because the Company's By-Laws provide that directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast. Under applicable Delaware law, a broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors. The shares held by each stockholder who signs and returns the enclosed form of proxy will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the meeting.

The holders of Class B Common Stock, voting as a class, are entitled to elect the remaining four of the nine directors of the Company. Each holder of Class B Common Stock has the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for the four directors to be elected by the holders of Class B Common Stock and for whose election he has a right to vote.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCEBoard of Directors

The Company is managed by a Board of Directors comprised of nine persons, five of whom are elected by the holders of the Company's Common Stock and four of whom are elected by the holders of the Company's

Table of Contents

Class B Common Stock. A majority of the members of the Board of Directors are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. These directors are: Paul W. Hobby, E. Douglas Hodo, W. Arthur Porter, Robert L. Clarke and Laurie C. Moore. The Board of Directors has determined that none of such directors have any material relationship with the Company or its management that would impair the independence of their judgment in carrying out their responsibilities to the Company. For this purpose, the Board of Directors considers any transaction, or series of similar transactions, or any currently proposed transaction, or series of similar transactions, between the Company or any of its subsidiaries and a director to be material if the amount involved exceeds $60,000, exclusive of directors' fees, in any of the Company's last three fiscal years.

All directors of the Company hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. All officers of the Company hold office until the regular meeting of directors following the Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. Any action by the Board of Directors requires the affirmative vote of at least six members.

During 2005, the Board of Directors held five meetings and executed three consents in lieu of meetings. Each director attended each of such meetings, except that one director did not attend one meeting. The Board of Directors has an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. See Committees of the Board of Directors below.

The Board of Directors has adopted the Stewart Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and Guidelines on Corporate Governance and a Code of Ethics for Chief Executive Officers, Principal Financial Officers and Principal Accounting Officer, each of which is available on the Company's website at www.stewart.com and available in print to any stockholder who requests it. The Company's Guidelines on Corporate Governance and the charters of the Audit Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee require an annual self-evaluation of the performance of the Board of Directors and of such committees, including the adequacy of such Guidelines and charters. The charters of the Audit Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee are available on the Company's website at www.stewart.com and available in print to any stockholder who requests them.

The Company's Guidelines on Corporate Governance strongly encourage attendance in person by directors at the Company's annual meetings of stockholders. All of the Company's incumbent directors attended the Company's annual meeting of stockholders held in 2005.

Advisory Directors

In addition to the directors elected by the holders of the Company's Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, the Company has advisory directors who are appointed by the Company's Board of Directors to supplement the experience and expertise of the elected directors. The Company's advisory directors receive notice of and regularly attend meetings of the Company's Board of Directors and committees on which they serve as non-voting members. They provide valuable insights and advice to the Company and participate fully in all deliberations of the Company's Board of Directors but are not included in quorum and voting determinations. Advisory directors receive the same compensation for their services as do the members of the Company's Board of Directors elected by the stockholders of the Company.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may exercise all of the powers of the directors, except those specifically reserved to the Board of Directors by law or resolution of the Board of Directors. Malcolm S. Morris, Stewart Morris, Jr. and Max Crisp serve as the members of the Executive Committee. During 2005, the Executive Committee held three meetings at which all members were present, except that one director did not attend one meeting, and executed 31 consents in lieu of meetings.

Audit Committee. It is the duty of the Audit Committee to (i) review, with the Company's independent auditors, the scope of the annual audit, (ii) review the independent auditors' management letter and (iii) meet with the Company's internal auditors. The Audit Committee has sole authority to appoint or replace the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.stewart.com. The Audit Committee is comprised of Dr. E. Douglas Hodo (Chair), Robert L. Clarke and Laurie C. Moore. During 2005, the Audit Committee held eight meetings, at which all members then serving were present. Each of the members of the Audit Committee is independent as defined under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the Board of Directors has determined that Dr. Hodo is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined in the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. No member of the Company's Audit Committee serves on the audit committees of more than three public companies. The Audit Committee has the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisers, as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

The Audit Committee has established procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. Persons wishing to communicate with the Company's Audit Committee may do so by writing in care of Chairman, Audit Committee, Stewart Information Services Corporation, 1980 Post Oak Boulevard, Suite 800, Houston, Texas 77056.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is comprised of Dr. W. Arthur Porter (Chair), Robert L. Clarke and Laurie C. Moore, each of whom is "independent" as defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. It is the duty of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to (i) recommend to the Board of Directors of the Company nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Company by the holders of Common Stock, (ii) create procedures for identification of nominees, (iii) consider and recommend to the Board of Directors criteria for nomination to the Board of Directors and (iv) receive and consider nominations submitted by stockholders of the Company.

The Company's Guidelines on Corporate Governance require that a majority of the nine members of the Company's Board of Directors be "independent" as defined in the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. Those Guidelines also provide that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be guided by the following principles:

Each director should be an individual of the highest character and integrity and have an inquiring mind, experience at a strategy or policy-setting level, or otherwise possess a high level of specialized expertise, and the ability to work well with others. Special expertise or experience that will augment the Board's expertise is particularly desirable.

Each director should have sufficient time available to devote to the affairs of the Company in order to carry out the responsibilities of a director and, absent special circumstances, no director should be simultaneously serving on the boards of directors of more than three other entities, excluding non-public companies, such as those related to personal or family business and charitable, educational or other non-profit entities. Directors are not qualified for service on the Board unless they are able to make a commitment to prepare for and attend meetings of the Board and its committees on a regular basis.

Each independent director should be free of any significant conflict of interest that would interfere with the independence and proper performance of the responsibilities of a director.

Directors to be nominated for election by the holders of the Company's Common Stock should not be chosen as representatives of a constituent group or organization; each should utilize his or her unique experience and background to represent and act in the best interests of all stockholders as a group.

In recent years, vacancies occurring in the Company's Board of Directors have been filled by advisory directors whose experience and expertise have contributed significantly to the deliberations of the Board and who meet the criteria set forth above.

Table of Contents

Directors should have an equity ownership in Stewart Information Services Corporation. Toward that end, each non-employee director shall be paid a portion of his or her director's fees in Stewart Information Services Corporation Common Stock pursuant to the Company's 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan, or any successor plan, but only to the extent permitted by law and the Corporate Governance Standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, pursuant to the Company's By-Laws, will accept and consider nominations by stockholders of persons for election by the holders of Common Stock to the Board of Directors of the Company. To be considered for nomination at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held in 2007, stockholder nominations must be received by the Company no later than February 15, 2007. Persons wishing to submit the names of candidates for consideration by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may write to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in care of Corporate Secretary, Stewart Information Services Corporation, 1980 Post Oak Boulevard, Suite 800, Houston, Texas 77056, providing the candidate's name, credentials, contact information and consent to be considered as a candidate. The person proposing the candidate should include his or her contact information and a statement of his or her share ownership, including the number of shares and the period of time the shares have been held.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held four meetings during 2005, at which all members were present, except that one director did not attend one meeting. The charter of the Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is available on the Company's website at www.stewart.com.

Compensation Committee. It is the duty of the Compensation Committee to approve the compensation of the executive officers. The Compensation Committee is comprised of Paul W. Hobby (Chair), Robert L. Clarke and Dr. W. Arthur Porter. During 2005, the Compensation Committee held two meetings, at which all members then serving were present.

Each member of the Company's Audit Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee has been determined by the Board of Directors to be independent as that term is defined in the rules of the New York Stock Exchange.

Executive Sessions of Non-Management Directors

The non-management directors of the Company, all of whom are independent, meet at regularly scheduled executive sessions without management. The Chairman of the Company's Audit Committee serves as the presiding director at those executive sessions. Persons wishing to communicate with the Company's non-management directors may do so by writing in care of Chairman, Audit Committee, Stewart Information Services Corporation, 1980 Post Oak Boulevard, Suite 800, Houston, Texas 77056. Persons wishing to communicate with the Company's other directors may do so by writing in care of Corporate Secretary, Stewart Information Services Corporation, at the same address.

Option Grants and Exercises

The following table sets forth information concerning individual grants of stock options made during the year ended December 31, 2005 to each of the Company's executive officers to whom such options were granted. All such grants were made on February 2, 2005. The hypothetical values on the date of grant of stock options granted in 2005 shown below are presented pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and are calculated under the modified Black-Scholes Model (the Model) for pricing options. This hypothetical value of options trading on the stock markets bears little relationship to the compensation

The actual amount, if any, realized upon the exercise of stock options will depend upon the market price per share of the Company's Common Stock relative to the exercise price per share of Common Stock issuable under the stock option at the time the stock options are exercised. There is no assurance that the hypothetical present values of stock options reflected in this table actually will be realized.

Deferred Compensation Agreements

On March 10, 1986, the Company entered into a Deferred Compensation Agreement with each of Malcolm S. Morris, Stewart Morris, Jr. and Max Crisp (individually, a Beneficiary). Pursuant to such agreements, as amended, a Beneficiary or his designee is entitled to receive, commencing upon his death or attainment of the age of 65 years, 15 annual payments in amounts that will, after payment of federal income taxes thereon, result in a net annual payment of $66,667 to Max Crisp and $133,333 to each of Malcolm S. Morris and Stewart Morris, Jr. For purposes of such agreements, each Beneficiary is deemed to be subject to federal income taxes at the highest marginal rate applicable to individuals. Such benefits are fully vested and are forfeited only if a Beneficiary's employment with the Company is terminated by reason of fraud, dishonesty, embezzlement or theft. Any death or income benefits provided to a Beneficiary under certain insurance policies currently maintained by the Company will reduce payments due to such Beneficiary or his designee under his Deferred Compensation Agreement.

Table of ContentsCompensation Committee Report

To the Board of Directors of
Stewart Information Services Corporation:

Compensation Policy. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) is responsible for the oversight and administration of the Company's executive compensation program. The Committee reviews the compensation program of the Company's operating subsidiaries during each year as it deems necessary. The objective of the Company is to provide the executive officers of the Company, who are Malcolm S. Morris, Stewart Morris, Jr., Max Crisp and Matthew W. Morris, with a compensation package that is fair and reasonable based on their individual levels of responsibility and performance in relation to the compensation of executive officers of other publicly held companies in the title insurance and comparable industries. In making its determinations as to the reasonableness of the Company's executive compensation, the Committee relies in part on the advice of a nationally recognized, independent compensation consulting firm. The principal elements of the Company's executive compensation program are an annual salary, an annual cash bonus and stock option grants. As a holding company, the Company has no payroll, and the annual salaries and cash bonuses of its executive officers are paid by a subsidiary of the Company.

Base Salary. For 2005, the minimum bonus levels described below for each of the Co-Chief Executive Officers of the Company remained unchanged, and the base salaries of such persons were raised from $150,000 to $165,000. Base salary amounts do not include the minimum bonuses described below. Historically, the base salaries of the Company's Co-Chief Executive Officers have remained relatively stable from year to year. Since the Company, as a holding company, has no direct payroll, the base salaries of the Company's executive officers are paid at the subsidiary level and are set at levels deemed reasonable by the Committee based upon its subjective evaluation of the executive officer's level of responsibility.

Annual Bonus. Each of the Co-Chief Executive Officers is eligible to receive an annual cash bonus based on the consolidated income before taxes of Guaranty, including a minimum bonus of $250,000. The Committee believes that the consolidated net income before taxes of Guaranty and the effect thereof on the Company's book value per share are important determinants over time of the value of the Company's Common Stock. For 2005, the Committee recommended and the Company adopted the following bonus formula for each of the Co-Chief Executive Officers:

Guaranty Consolidated Net Income Before Taxes	Incremental Percent Payable as Bonus
Up to $20 million	1.00%
$20 million to $40 million	0.75%
$40 million to $60 million	0.50%
Over $60 million	0.25%

For 2005, the Committee recommended and the Company adopted the following bonus formula for Mr. Crisp:

Guaranty Consolidated Net Income Before Taxes	Incremental Percent Payable as Bonus
Up to $50 million	0.50%
$50 million to $75 million	0.40%
$75 million to $100 million	0.30%
Over $100 million	0.20%

Mr. Crisp's minimum bonus is $145,000 and his bonus may not exceed 75% of the aggregate base salary and bonus earned by a Chief Executive Officer.

For 2005, the Committee also recommended and the Company adopted a bonus plan for Matthew W. Morris under which he will receive a bonus of 0.10% of the consolidated net income before taxes of Guaranty, with a minimum bonus of $75,000, and up to $25,000 in discretionary bonuses based upon the completion of projects and with the approval of Stewart Morris, Jr.

Table of Contents

The consolidated income before taxes of Guaranty in 2005 was approximately $150.5 million. Accordingly, each of the Co-Chief Executive Officers received a bonus of $676,172 for 2005, and Mr. Crisp received a bonus of $468,879 for 2005.

Stock Options. In 2005 the Committee granted options to Malcolm S. Morris, Stewart Morris, Jr. and Max Crisp for 25,000, 25,000 and 16,500 shares, respectively. See Option Grants and Exercises elsewhere in the Proxy Statement in which this report is included. Such options were taken into account by the Committee in determining the reasonableness of the recipient officer's annual compensation package. The Incentive Plan is intended to make available to the Committee an additional form of compensation that will align the interests of executive officers with those of the stockholders over a multi-year term. Each of the executive officers is eligible for grants of options at a purchase price not less than the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant.

The Company's net earnings increased from $4.53 per diluted share in 2004 to $4.86 per diluted share in 2005. The Committee recognizes that the title insurance industry is strongly affected by nationally prevailing interest rates, and the Company's financial results from year to year will depend largely on the level of real estate activity in its primary markets. The Committee, as well as the other independent members of the Company's Board of Directors, subjectively evaluates the performance of the Company's executive officers, including the Co-Chief Executive Officers, with respect to their efforts to provide for the long-term financial well-being of the Company and to respond to continuing changes in the industry environment. In 2005, the Committee gave particular consideration to the efforts of the Co-Chief Executive Officers in further developing the Company's automation programs, entering new markets through acquisitions, increasing book value per share and pursuing opportunities in international markets.
