PROXY STATEMENT

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Halifax Corporation (the Company) will be held on July 23, 2004, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Sheraton Pentagon South Hotel, 4641 Kenmore Avenue, Alexandria, Virginia 22304, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders and described more fully below (the Annual Meeting). The approximate date on which this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card will first be sent or given to shareholders is June 21, 2004.

Sending in a signed proxy card will not affect the shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person since the proxy card is revocable.

The enclosed proxy is being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company for use in voting at the Annual Meeting, including any postponements or adjournments thereof.

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will vote upon the election of directors. The Board of Directors is not aware of any other matter to be brought before the Annual Meeting.

Costs of Proxy Solicitation

The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the notice, proxy statement and proxy card and miscellaneous costs with respect to the same will be paid by the Company. The Company may, in addition, use the services of its officers, directors and employees to solicit proxies personally or by telephone and telegraph, but at no additional salary or compensation. The Company intends to request banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward copies of the proxy materials to those persons for whom they hold shares and to request authority for the execution of proxies. The Company will reimburse them for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in so doing.

Proxies and Voting

A proxy card is enclosed. If properly executed and received in time for voting, and not revoked, the enclosed proxy card will be voted according to your directions. You can specify how you want your shares voted on each proposal by marking the appropriate boxes on the proxy card. Please review the voting instructions on the proxy card and read the entire text of the proposals prior to voting your proxy card. If your proxy is signed and returned without specifying a vote on any proposal, it will be voted according to the recommendations of the Board of Directors on that proposal.

You may revoke your proxy card at any time before it is voted at the meeting by taking one of the following actions: (1) giving timely written notice of the revocation to the Secretary of the Company (the Secretary); (2) executing and delivering a later dated proxy card; or (3) voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

The enclosed proxy card confers discretionary authority to vote with respect to any and all of the following matters that may come before the Annual Meeting: (i) matters about which the Company did not receive notice prior to May 6, 2004, (ii) approval of the minutes of a prior meeting of shareholders, if such approval does not amount to ratification at the Annual Meeting of the action taken at such prior meeting; (iii) the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve; (iv) any proposal omitted from this proxy statement and proxy card pursuant to Rules 14a-8 or 14a-9 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act); and (v) matters incident to the conduct of the Annual Meeting. In connection with such matters, the persons named in the enclosed proxy card will vote in accordance with their best judgment.

SHARES OUTSTANDING AND VOTING RIGHTS

Only shareholders who held shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.24 per share (the Common Stock), of record at the close of business on June 11, 2004 (the Record Date), will be entitled to notice of and vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 2,915,412 shares of Common Stock outstanding. The holders of the Common Stock on the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of and vote at the Annual Meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof. In order for a quorum to be present at the Annual Meeting, one-third of the shares of Common Stock as of the close of business on the Record Date must be present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting. All such shares that are present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, including abstentions and broker non-votes.

Under the rules of the American Stock Exchange (AMEX), brokers who hold shares in street name for customers have the authority to vote on certain items when they have not received instruction from beneficial owners. Such votes are known as broker non-votes, and are counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved by the shareholders. A shareholder who abstains from a vote by registering an abstention vote will be deemed present at the meeting for quorum purposes but will not be deemed to have voted on the particular matters. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted as votes cast in the election of directors.

Each share of Common Stock outstanding is entitled to one vote on each matter, which may be brought before the Annual Meeting. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Each other matter to be voted upon, if any, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes of shares present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on such matter.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT AND CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS

The following table sets forth as of June 11, 2004: (1) the number of shares of the Common Stock owned beneficially by each person who owned of record, or is known by the Company to have owned beneficially, more than 5% of such shares then outstanding; (2) the number of shares owned by each director and the Chief Executive Officer and the five most highly compensated executive officers of the Company whose salary and bonus totaled $100,000 or more during fiscal 2004 (the Named Executive Officers); (3) each nominee for director; and (4) the number of shares owned beneficially by all executive officers and directors as a group. PROPOSAL I - ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Bylaws of the Company provide that the Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of between three and seven members, the precise number of directors to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. The number of directors has been fixed at seven.

Each director is elected to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until the election and qualification of his respective successor. The Board of Directors, based upon recommendation from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, has nominated the nominees named below, which nominees are currently serving as directors and have indicated their willingness to continue serving as directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why such nominees would be unable to serve as directors. The Company expects each nominee to be able to serve if elected, but if any nominee notifies the Company before the meeting that he is unable to do so, then the proxies will be voted for the remainder of those nominated and, as designated by the Board of Directors, may be voted (i) for a substitute nominee or nominees, or (ii) to elect such lesser number to constitute the whole Board of Directors as equals the number of nominees who are able to serve.

In accordance with the Merger Agreement pursuant to which the Company acquired Microserv, Inc. (the Merger Agreement), the Company agreed that the former shareholders of Microserv, Inc., shall have the right to nominate a director to the Company's Board of Directors so long as such former shareholders collectively own greater than 50% of the number of shares of Common Stock issued to them pursuant to the Merger Agreement. As of the Record Date, the former shareholders collectively owned greater than 50% of the number of shares of Common Stock issued to them pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Gerald F. Ryles is the nominee of the former shareholders of Microserv Inc. The Company agreed in the Merger Agreement to recommend, consistent with the fiduciary duties of its Board of Directors, such nominee to the Company's shareholders and to undertake its best efforts to secure the election of such nominee. In addition, pursuant to a voting agreement executed in connection with the Merger Agreement, Charles L. McNew, Joseph Sciacca, Hugh M. Foley and Thomas J. Basile (a former employee) agreed, subject to certain limitations concerning the qualification of the nominee, to vote their respective shares of voting capital stock of the Company in favor of the nominee of the former shareholders of Microserv, Inc. As recommended by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the Board of Directors also nominated Mr. Ryles for election as director.

The Board of Directors has the responsibility for establishing corporate policies and for the overall performance of the Company. The Board of Directors meets quarterly during the year to review significant developments affecting the Company and to act upon matters requiring Board of Directors approval. In addition, the Board of Directors receives monthly reports of significant activities that occur between meetings. It also may hold special meetings when important matters require action by the Board of Directors between scheduled quarterly meetings. Members of senior management attend Board of Directors meetings to report on and discuss their areas of responsibility. During fiscal year 2004, there were five (5) meetings of the Board of Directors.

All directors attended all of the meetings of the Board of Directors and each meeting of the committee(s) on which he served.

Committees of the Board of Directors and their Functions

The Board of Directors has established a number of committees, including the Audit Committee, the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee, and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, each of which is briefly described below.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in maintaining the integrity of the Company's financial statements, and of its financial reporting processes and systems of internal audit controls, and the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The Audit Committee reviews the scope of independent audits and assesses the results. The Audit Committee meets with management to consider the adequacy of the internal controls and the objectivity of financial reporting. The Audit Committee also meets with the independent auditors and with appropriate financial personnel concerning these matters. The Audit Committee selects, compensates, appoints and oversees the Company's independent auditors. The independent auditors periodically meet alone with the Audit Committee and always have unrestricted access to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee also approves related party transactions. The Audit Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Toups, Young and Hewitt, met five (5) times in 2004. The Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Toups, Young and Hewitt are independent as defined in applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide and Rule 10A-3 of the Exchange Act and that John Toups and Daniel Young qualify as audit committee financial experts as defined under Item 401 of Regulation S-K.

Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee. The Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee administers incentive compensation plans, including stock option plans, and advises the Board of Directors regarding employee benefit plans. The Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee establishes the compensation structure for senior managers of the Company, approves the compensation of senior executives of the Company, and makes recommendations to the independent directors of the Board of Directors with respect to compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee members are Messrs. Grover, Toups and Hewitt. Each member is independent as defined in applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide. In addition, each member is a nonemployee director as defined in Rule 16b-3(b)(3) of the Exchange Act. During the year ended March 31, 2004, the committee held five (5) meetings.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee advises and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors on all matters concerning directorships, including the selection of candidates as nominees for election as directors and committee membership. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for developing corporate governance policies and administering the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also recommends potential successors for key management. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee currently consists of Messrs. Grover, Toups and Young and held one (1) meeting in 2004. Each member is independent as defined in applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide. On April 23, 2004, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommended to the Board of Directors the slate of directors for election at the Annual Meeting.

Director Nomination Process

General Information. The Company has a standing nominating and corporate governance committee of the board of directors (the Board) that is responsible for, among other matters, determining the types of backgrounds needed to strengthen and balance the Board, establishing criteria for selecting new directors, recommending nominees for director and recommending directors for membership on various Board committees for consideration of the full Board. See the nominating and corporate governance committee charter, which is attached as an appendix to this proxy statement, for a complete list of the nominating and corporate governance committee's duties and responsibilities.

Messrs. Toups, Grover and Young constitute the nominating and corporate governance committee. All members of the nominating and corporate governance committee are independent, as independence for nominating and corporate governance committee members is defined in the American Stock Exchange Company Guide (AMEX Company Guide). The nominating and corporate governance committee held five (5) meetings during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2004.

Consideration of Director Candidates Recommended or Nominated by Shareholders. The nominating and corporate governance committee will consider properly submitted shareholder recommendations of director candidates. A shareholder who wishes to recommend a prospective director nominee should send a letter to the Chairman of the nominating and corporate governance committee at: 5250 Cherokee Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22312. Such letter must be signed and dated and the following information must be included in or attached to the letter:

the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the Company if so elected.

The deadline for submitting shareholder nominations pursuant to the foregoing procedure in connection with the next annual meeting of shareholders is February 23, 2005.

Director Qualifications. In order to be nominated for director, a director candidate must meet the following criteria:

the director must be a natural person over 21 years of age;

the director should have high-level business experience;

the director should have knowledge about the issues affecting the Company's business and the industry in which the Company operates;

the director should have high moral character and share the values of the Company as outlined in the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics; and the director should have sufficient time to devote the director's energy and attention to the diligent performance of the director's duties, including, but not limited to, review of the Company documents, SEC filings and other materials and the attendance of the Board and committee meetings, as applicable.

Additional special criteria apply to directors being considered to serve on a particular committee of the Board, including, but not limited to, the audit committee. For instance, the nominating and corporate governance committee will review whether the director nominee is independent, as independence is defined in the AMEX Company Guide.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Director. The nominating and corporate governance committee assesses the appropriate size of the Board in accordance with the Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws, whether any vacancies on the Board are expected and what incumbent directors will stand for re-election at the next annual meeting of shareholders. If vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the nominating and corporate governance committee considers candidates for director suggested by members of the nominating and corporate governance committee and other Board members as well as management, shareholders and other parties and makes recommendations to the full Board regarding proposed candidates to fill the vacancy. The nominating and corporate governance committee also has the sole authority to retain a search firm to identify and evaluate director candidates. Except for incumbent directors standing for re-election as described below, there are no differences in the manner in which the nominating and corporate governance committee evaluates nominees for director, based on whether the nominee is recommended by a shareholder or any other party.

In the case of an incumbent director whose term of office expires, the nominating and corporate governance committee reviews such director's service to the Company during the past term, including, but not limited to, the number of Board and committee meetings attended, as applicable, quality of participation and whether the candidate continues to meet the general qualifications for a Board member outlined above, including the director's independence, as well as any special qualifications required for a member of a Board committee if such director serves on one or more committees of the Board and makes a recommendation regarding such director's nomination for reelection to the full Board. When a member of the nominating and corporate governance committee is an incumbent director eligible to stand for re-election, such director does not participate in the discussion of such director's recommendation for nomination for election as a director by the nominating and corporate governance committee.

In the case of a new director candidate, the nominating and corporate governance committee will evaluate whether the nominee is independent, as independence is defined in the AMEX Company Guide, and whether the nominee meets the qualifications for a Board member outlined above as well as any special qualifications applicable to a member of the Board committee, on which the nominee may be appointed to serve if elected. In connection with such evaluation, the nominating and corporate governance committee determines whether the committee should interview the nominee, and if warranted, one or more members of the nominating and corporate governance committee interview the nominee in person or by telephone.

Upon completing the evaluation, and the interview in case of a new candidate, the nominating and corporate governance committee makes a recommendation to the full Board as to whether to nominate the director nominee for election at the shareholders meeting.

Independence of Directors

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Grover, Toups, Hewitt and Young are independent within the definitions contained in the applicable listing standards of the American Stock Exchange.

Communication with the Board of Directors

A majority of the Board of Directors members are independent as defined by the applicable listing standards of the AMEX Company Guide. The Company's shareholders may communicate issues or concerns regarding the Company's business or the functions of the Board of Directors to the Board of Directors or individual members of the Board of Directors, including the Chairman of the Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance, Compensation or Audit Committees, c/o the Secretary, Halifax Corporation, 5250 Cherokee Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22312.

The Secretary will review all correspondence and will create a log of all correspondence received. The Secretary will periodically forward any correspondence received from a holder of the Company's securities which deals with concerns regarding the Company's business or with the functions of its Board of Directors or which he otherwise determines requires their attention, to the Board of Directors or to the member of the Board of Directors to whom the correspondence is addressed. Directors may at any time review the log of all correspondence received and request copies of any such correspondence. Concerns relating to questionable accounting, internal controls or auditing matters will be brought to the attention of the Board of Directors in accordance with the procedures established by the Audit Committee with respect to such matters and set forth in the Company's Whistle Blower Policy.

Attendance at Annual Meetings of Shareholders

The Board of Directors has adopted a policy that a majority of the Company's directors attend the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All of the Company's directors attended last year's annual meeting of shareholders.

Directors who are not officers of the Company receive an annual fee of $1,000. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2004, those Directors also received $2,000 for each meeting of the Board of Directors, which they attended. REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND EMPLOYEE BENEFITS COMMITTEE

The overall philosophy regarding compensation of the Company's executive officers continues to be based upon the concept that in order to achieve the Company's objectives of progress, growth and profitability it is necessary to attract and retain qualified executives who are motivated to provide a high level of performance. A vital element in this motivation is to offer an executive compensation program that is not only competitive but rewards those executives whose efforts enable the Company to achieve its goals. To accomplish this objective, the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee has an established policy whereby a significant segment of an executive's total compensation is related directly to performance resulting in the interest of the Company's executives being parallel with the interests of its shareholders.

The executive compensation program includes three elements, which are intended to constitute a flexible and balanced method of establishing total compensation. These are base salary, annual bonus and stock options. When combined, these elements are intended to provide key executives sufficient motivation and incentives so that their efforts will maximize corporate performance thereby enhancing shareholder value. In accomplishing this objective, the compensation program seeks to balance performance rewards with what is reasonable under the total circumstances including the competitiveness of the executive marketplace.

The base salaries of the executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, are a reflection of the size of the Company, the scope of responsibility of each individual and the extent of experience in their particular positions. Reviewed annually, base salaries are related indirectly to the Company's performance and marginally related to the cost of living.

Because of the difficult economic conditions in the marketplace, the management team imposed cost containment measures, which included temporary 10% salary reductions to the executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, through December 31, 2003. Effective January 1, 2004 the salaries were returned to prior levels. The Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee approved these measures.

Mr. McNew was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer effective May 8, 2000. Prior to that, Mr. McNew served as Executive Vice President of the Company from July 1999 and Chief Financial Officer from September 1999. On July 1, 2002, Mr. McNew's base salary increased to $240,000. On March 1, 2003, Mr. McNew's salary was temporarily reduced by 10% to $216,000 and was restored on January 1, 2004 to $240,000.

The second component of the executive compensation program is incentive compensation related to the achievement of business plan objectives. The business plan and related objectives are reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors. Executives who qualify under the program are monetarily awarded if specific objectives are achieved and can be further rewarded, based upon a formula calculation if assigned objectives are exceeded. Mr. McNew did not earn incentive compensation for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2004. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2005, Mr. McNew may qualify for incentive compensation, which could total $50,000 or more based on the achievement of certain objectives.

The final component of the executive compensation program is the 1994 Key Employee Stock Option Plan (Plan) which was adopted and approved by the Company s shareholders at the 1994 annual meeting and is for the benefit of the Company s key employees, including officers, who meet certain criteria. The purpose of the Plan is to attract, motivate, and retain those highly competent individuals upon whose judgment, initiative, and leadership, the continued success of the Company depends. The Plan is administered by a committee of three members of the Board of Directors who are not eligible to participate in the Plan. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee has sole discretion and authority to determine from among eligible employees those to whom and time or times at which, options may be granted, the numbers of shares of Common Stock to be subject to each option, and the type of option to be granted. On April 27, 2004, Mr. McNew was granted options to acquire 25,000 shares of the Company s common stock at an exercise price of $4.45 per share. On March 20, 2003, Mr. McNew was granted options to acquire 10,000 shares of the Company s common stock at an exercise price of $3.10 per share. On March 20, 2002, Mr. McNew was granted options to acquire 25,000 shares of the Company s common stock at an exercise price of $4.05 per share. On October 5, 1999 and May 18, 2000 Mr. McNew was granted options to acquire 45,000 and 25,000 shares of the Company s common stock at exercise prices of $5.75 and $5.50 per share, respectively.

No member of the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee is a former or current officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

The Board shall elect or appoint a chairperson of the Committee (or, if it does not do so, the Committee members shall elect a chairperson by vote of a majority of the full committee); the chairperson will have authority to act on behalf of the Committee between meetings.

A member of the Committee shall promptly notify the Committee and the Board if the member is no longer an independent director and such member shall be removed from the Committee unless the Board determines that an exception to the independent director requirement is available under the applicable section of the AMEX Company Guide with respect to such member s continued membership and that an exception should be made.

III. Meetings and Procedures

Consistent with the Company s Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and applicable state law, the following shall apply:

The Committee shall fix its own rules of procedure, which shall be consistent with the Bylaws of the Company and this Charter.

The Committee shall meet at least four times per year on a quarterly basis, or more frequently as circumstances require. One or more meetings may be conducted in whole or in part by telephone conference call or similar means if it is impracticable to obtain the personal presence of each audit committee member. The Company shall make available to the Committee, at its meetings and otherwise, such individuals and entities as may be designated from time to time by the Committee, such as members of management including (but not limited to) the internal audit and accounting staff, the independent auditors, inside and outside counsel, and other individuals or entities (whether or not employed by the Company and including any corporate governance employees and individuals or entities performing internal audit services as independent contractors).

The chairperson of the Committee or a majority of the members of the Committee may call special meetings of the Committee.

The chairperson, in consultation with other members of the Committee, shall set the length of each meeting and the agenda of items to be addressed at each meeting and shall circulate the agenda to each member of the Committee in advance of each meeting.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

The Committee may request that any directors, officers or employees of the Company, or other persons whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, attend any meeting of the Committee and/or provide such pertinent information as the Committee requests.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall be as follows:

Be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of any registered public accounting firm engaged (including resolution of disagreements between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company, and each such registered public accounting firm must report directly to the Committee;

Establish procedures for (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submissions by Company employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters;

Have the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisers, as it determines necessary to carry out its duties;

Receive appropriate funding from the Company, as determined by the Committee in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for payment of: (i) compensation to any registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company; (ii) compensation to any advisers employed by the Committee; and (iii) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties;

Ensure its receipt from the outside auditors of a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the auditor and the Company, consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard 1, and actively engage in a dialogue with the auditor with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the auditor and for taking, or recommending that the full Board take, appropriate action to oversee the independence of the outside auditor;

Report regularly to the Board;

Make an annual performance evaluation of the Committee;

Review and assess the adequacy of the Committee's charter annually;

Comply with all preapproval requirements of Section 10A(i) of the Exchange Act and all SEC rules relating to the administration by the Committee of the auditor engagement to the extent necessary to maintain the independence of the auditor as set forth in 17 C.F.R. § 210.2-01(c)(7);

Approve all related party transactions;

Make such other recommendations to the Board on such matters, within the scope of its function, as may come to its attention and which in its discretion warrant consideration by the Board; and

V. Delegation

Any duties and responsibilities of the Committee, including, but not limited to, the authority to preapprove all audit and permitted non-audit services, may be delegated to one or more members of the Committee or a subcommittee of the Committee.

VI. Limitations

The Committee is responsible for the duties and responsibilities set forth in this charter, but its role is oversight and therefore it is not responsible for either the preparation of the Company's financial statements or the auditing of the Company's financial statements. The members of the Committee are not employees of the Company and may not be accountants or auditors by profession or experts in accounting or auditing. Management has the responsibility for preparing the financial statements and implementing internal controls and the independent auditors have the responsibility for auditing the financial statements and monitoring the effectiveness of the internal controls, subject, in each case, to the oversight of the Committee described in this charter. The review of the financial statements by the Committee is not of the same character or quality as the audit performed by the independent auditors. The oversight exercised by the Committee is not a guarantee that the financial statements will be free from mistake or fraud. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to a changing environment.

HALIFAX CORPORATION

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. Purpose

There shall be a committee of the board of directors (the Board) known as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the Committee) of Halifax Corporation (the Company). The Committee is responsible for developing and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance policies for the Company, establishing criteria for selecting new directors, and identifying, screening and recruiting new directors. The Committee will also recommend to the Board nominees for directors and for committee membership.

II. Composition

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more members, all of whom must qualify as independent directors (Independent Directors) under the American Stock Exchange Company Guide (the AMEX Company Guide).

Notwithstanding this independence requirement, if the Committee is comprised of at least three members, one director, who is not independent as defined in Section 121 of the AMEX Company Guide, and is not a current officer or employee of the Company or a Family Member (as defined in the commentary of Section 121 of the AMEX Company Guide) of such person, may be appointed to the Committee if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that such individual's membership on the committee is required by the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, and the Board discloses, in the next annual meeting proxy statement subsequent to such determination, the nature of the relationship and the reasons for the determination (or Form 10-K if the Company does not file a proxy statement). A member appointed under this exception may not serve longer than two years.

The Committee members shall be appointed by the Board. The Board shall appoint one member of the Committee as chairperson. If the Board fails to elect a chairperson, the Committee members shall elect a chairperson from their members. The chairperson shall be responsible for leadership of the Committee, including overseeing the agenda, presiding over the meetings and reporting to the Board. If the Committee chairperson is not present at a meeting, the remaining members of the Committee may designate an acting chairperson.

The members of the Committee shall serve for a term of one year or until their successors shall be appointed and qualified. No member of the Committee shall be removed except by majority vote of the full Board. The Board shall have the authority to fill vacancies or add additional members to the Committee.

A member shall promptly notify the Committee and the Board if the member is no longer an Independent Director and such member shall be removed from the Committee unless the Board determines that an exception to the Independent Director requirement is available under the AMEX Company Guide with respect to such member's continued membership on the Committee.

III. Meetings and Procedures

Consistent with the Company's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and applicable state law, the following shall apply:

The Committee shall fix its own rules of procedure, which shall be consistent with the Bylaws of the Company and this Charter.

The Company shall make available to the Committee, at its meetings and otherwise, such individuals and entities as may be designated from time to time by the Committee.

The chairperson of the Committee or a majority of the members of the Committee may call special meetings of the Committee.

The chairperson, in consultation with other members of the Committee, shall set the length of each meeting and the agenda of items to be addressed at each meeting and shall circulate the agenda to each member of the Committee in advance of each meeting.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

The Committee may request that any directors, officers or employees of the Company, or other persons whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, attend any meeting of the Committee and/or provide such pertinent information as the Committee requests, except that no director of the Company shall participate in discussions at which that director's nomination or committee selection is being discussed.

The Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which minutes shall be maintained by the Company with the books and records of the Company. The chairperson may designate an officer or employee of the Company to serve as secretary to the Committee.

IV. Responsibilities and Duties of the Committee
