Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 8, 2006, Informatica Corporation (the Company) sold $230,000,000 in principal amount of the Company's 3% Convertible Senior Notes due 2026, including $30,000,000 in aggregate principal amount to cover over-allotments (the Securities). The Securities were sold pursuant to a Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 8, 2006 (the Purchase Agreement), between the Company and UBS Securities LLC, as the initial purchaser identified therein (the Initial Purchaser). The Securities were issued pursuant to an Indenture, dated as of March 13, 2006 (the Indenture), between the Company and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Securities were offered and sold to the Initial Purchaser and reoffered by the Initial Purchaser without being registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), in reliance on applicable exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Initial Purchaser and its direct and indirect transferees are entitled to the benefits of a Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 13, 2006 (the Registration Rights Agreement), between the Company and the Initial Purchaser. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company has agreed to register resales of the Securities under the Securities Act within a specified time or pay additional amounts to the holders of the Securities.

The Company used approximately $50 million of the net proceeds from the offering, which were approximately $224.3 million, to fund the purchase of shares of its common stock concurrently with the offering of the Securities, and intends to use the balance of the net proceeds for working capital and general corporate purposes, which may include the acquisition of businesses, products, product rights or technologies, strategic investments or additional purchases of common stock.

The Securities will bear interest at 3.0% per year and will mature on March 15, 2026. Interest on the Securities will accrue on the Securities from and including March 13, 2006 and will be payable on March 15 and September 15 of each year, beginning on September 15, 2006. Interest on the Securities will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

The Securities are convertible into shares of common stock of the Company at an initial conversion rate of 50 shares per $1,000 principal amount of Securities, equivalent to an initial conversion price of $20.00. The initial conversion price represents a premium of approximately 29.28% relative to the last reported sale price of common stock of the Company on the Nasdaq National Market of $15.47 on March 7, 2006.

The Company has the right to redeem some or all of the Securities after March 15, 2011. Holders of the Securities have the option to require the Company to repurchase the Securities on each of March 15, 2011, March 15, 2016 and March 15, 2021, or in the event of a fundamental change of the Company. In each case, the redemption or repurchase price would be 100% of the principal amount of the Securities, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the redemption or repurchase date, as applicable.

The above descriptions of the Indenture, the Securities, the Purchase Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement are summaries only and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the respective exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
