(1) Advent International Corporation ("AIC") is the General Partner of Advent International Limited Partnership ("AILP") which in turn is the General Partner of the indicated Reporting Persons. As such, AIC has the sole power to vote and dispose of the securities owned by the indicated Reporting Persons. The beneficial ownership of AIC and AILP derive from such power.

(2) AIC is the General Partner of the indicated Reporting Person. As such, AIC has the sole power to vote and dispose of the securities owned by the indicated reporting persons. The beneficial ownership of AIC derives from such power.

(b) Each of the Reporting Persons listed in the table set forth above has sole voting and dispositive power over the Common Stock beneficially owned by it as indicated above.

(c) Other than the acquisition of the Series D-1 Convertible Preferred Stock and the WD Warrants from the Corporation on August 14, 2003, no transactions in the Common Stock were effected during the last sixty days by the Reporting Persons or any of the persons set forth on Schedules I or in Item 2(d) hereto.

(d) Except as set forth in this Item 5, no person other than each respective record owner referred to herein of the Series D-1 Convertible Preferred Stock and the WD Warrants is known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, such securities.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The following summaries of certain provisions of the Certificate of Designations, the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Investor Rights Agreement and the form of WD Common Stock Purchase Warrant are qualified in their entirety by reference to such documents (copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 1, 2, 3 and 4, respectively).

Certificate of Designations of Series D-1 Convertible Preferred Stock

As set forth in the Certificate of Designations, each of the Series D-1 shares will have a stated value of $333.00 and will be entitled to a cumulative dividend of 8% per year, payable at the discretion of the board of directors in cash or in common stock. If the dividend is paid in common stock, the number of shares issuable is subject to a formula set forth in the Certificate of Designations.

Except as described in the Certificate of Designations or as otherwise provided by law, the holders of Series D-1 shares generally have the right to vote with the holders of common stock on an as-converted or economic equivalent basis. Each Series D-1 share will represent the lesser of (1) 100 votes per share; and (2) the number of votes equal to the stated value of the Series D-1 shares ($333.00) divided by the average of the closing bid prices of the common stock on the Nasdaq National Market for the five trading days preceding the closing of the financing.

As set forth in the Certificate of Designations, the approval of the holders of a majority of the Series D-1 shares, voting as a class, will be required to approve certain corporate actions, including any amendment of our charter or by-laws that is inconsistent with the Series D certificate of designations or that adversely affects the holders of Series D-1 shares and any authorization of a class of capital stock ranking senior to, or on parity with, the Series D-1 shares. In addition, the approval of the holders of a majority of the Series D-1 shares, voting separately as a class, will be required to approve certain redemptions or repurchases of capital stock, acquisitions of capital stock or assets from other entities and the incurrence of certain amounts of debt for borrowed money by the Corporation. Holders of Series D-1 shares will not have a separate class approval right to approve a transaction that will result in a change in control of the Corporation, except as provided by law.

As set forth in the Certificate of Designations, holders of Series D-1 shares, exclusively and as a single class, will be entitled to elect a number of directors determined by a formula set forth in the Corporation's charter that is calculated as a ratio of the voting power of the Series D-1 shares to the total voting power of all of the Corporation's voting stock. The formula generally provides that the number of directors to which the Series D-1 is entitled to designate to the board of directors is equal to the product (rounded to the nearest whole number) of: (1) the total number of directorships (whether filled or vacant); and (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of votes accruing to holders of Series D-1 shares (calculated by dividing the stated value of the Series D shares, $333.00, by the five day average of the closing sale price of the common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market immediately prior to the closing date of the financing), and the denominator of which is, subject to certain limitations in the Certificate of Designations, the number of shares of outstanding voting stock.

Each of the Series D-1 shares is convertible into common stock at any time at the option of the holder. Each of the Series D-1 shares is convertible into a number of shares of common stock equal to its stated value of $333.00 per share, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Certificate of Designation divided by the conversion price of the Series D-1 shares. The initial conversion price of the Series D-1 shares is $3.33 per share, and may be adjusted if certain events occur. The Series D-1 shares have antidilution protection that adjusts the conversion price downwards using a weighted-average calculation in the event the corporation issues certain additional securities at a price per share less than the Series D-1 conversion price then in effect.

As set forth in the Certificate of Designations, the Corporation will be entitled to redeem the Series D-1 shares for $416.25 per share, plus any accumulated but unpaid dividends, at any time on or after the third anniversary of the issuance of the Series D-1 shares if, among other things, the daily volume-weighted average trading price of the common stock on the Nasdaq National Market exceeds $7.60 per share (subject to appropriate adjustment if a reverse split is effected) on each trading day for 45 consecutive trading days. In lieu of mandatory redemption at the Corporation's option, holders of the Series D-1 shares could elect to convert their Series D-1 shares into common stock rather than having them redeemed.

As set forth in the Certificate of Designations, at the request of holders having a majority of the outstanding Series D-1 shares on or after the sixth anniversary of the issuance date but prior to the seventh anniversary of such issuance date, the Corporation will be required to redeem up to 50% of the Series D-1 shares in cash at a price per share equal to $333.00, plus accumulated but unpaid dividends. After the seventh anniversary of the issuance date such holders may require the Corporation to redeem 100% of their shares.

As set forth in the Certificate of Designations, upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of Series D-1 shares are entitled to be paid a liquidation preference out of the assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the stockholders before any payment may be made to the holders of common stock or any other holders of preferred stock. The liquidation preference is equal to the greater of (1) the stated value of the Series D-1 shares plus any accumulated but unpaid dividends, and (2) the amount such holders would be entitled to if the Series D-1 shares were converted into common stock immediately prior to the liquidation. Mergers and certain other similar transactions may be deemed to be liquidation events for these purposes.

Investor Rights Agreement

Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement dated August 14, 2003 by and among Aspen Technology, Inc. and the Purchasers named therein, the holders of the Series D-1 Convertible Preferred Stock and WD Warrants have certain rights and are subject to certain restrictions with respect to such securities and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion, exercise or exchange of such securities.

Registration Rights. Under the Investor Rights Agreement, the holders of Series D-1 shares and WD Warrants have certain registration rights with respect to those holders' registrable shares--that is, shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series D-1 shares, upon exercise of the WD warrants, as dividends on the Series D shares, or upon the conversion or exercise of securities issued pursuant to the preemptive rights described below. Specifically, the holders of Series D-1 shares have four demand registration rights and unlimited incidental, or so-called "piggyback," registration rights with respect to the Advent investors' registrable shares.

Preemptive Rights. Under the Investor Rights Agreement, the holders of Series D-1 shares have been granted preemptive rights to participate in future issuances of certain of our securities until such time as they hold less than 10% of the Series D-1 shares. These preemptive rights will not apply to, among other things, stock issued in firm-commitment underwritten public offerings, stock issued solely in consideration for the acquisition of all or substantially all of the stock or assets of an entity, or stock issued pursuant to certain employee stock plans.

Restrictions on Transfer. Transfers of any Series D-1 shares, any shares of common stock issued upon conversion of the Series D-1 shares, any other securities acquired pursuant to the preemptive rights described above, any shares of common stock issued upon the exercise of the WD warrants or any other shares of common stock issued in respect of such shares, are permitted in limited circumstances. Permitted transfers include transfers pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act, transfers pursuant to an effective registration statement, transfers to affiliates of such holder, and transfers to non-affiliates that are not our competitors and that will not beneficially own more than 10% of the outstanding common stock after such transfer.

Standstill Agreement. The holders of Series D-1 shares may not, without the Corporation's consent:

- acquire any securities that would cause an increase in its percentage of the common stock beneficially owned by such investor;
- seek to solicit proxies with respect to the voting of any of the Corporation's securities;
- deposit any of the Corporation's securities in a voting trust;
- participate in or form any group of persons generally for the purpose of acting jointly or in concert with respect to any of the Corporation's voting securities;
- arrange any financing for the purchase of any of the Corporation's voting securities;
- seek to enter into or be involved in any tender offer, exchange offer, merger, business combination, restructuring, liquidation, recapitalization or similar transaction relating to the Corporation or any of the Corporation's subsidiaries;
- for so long as the Advent investors may nominate their own directors to the board of directors, nominate any person for election by the holders of common stock or present any stockholder proposals for approval (other than through their board nominees); or
- authorize or solicit any person to take any of the previous actions or make any public announcement regarding the intention to take any of the previous actions.

These standstill restrictions terminate for each of the Advent investors when such Advent investor and its affiliates beneficially own less than five percent of the outstanding common stock on an as-converted basis.

Trading Limitations. None of the Advent investors may, for so long as such investor or its affiliates holds any Series D-1 shares, sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, or make any short sale of common stock, establish a "put equivalent position" (as defined in Rule 16a-1(h) of the Exchange Act) or engage in any transaction with a similar result, if the Advent investor does not have an equivalent offsetting long position on the common stock. This trading limitation terminates for each of the Advent investors when such investor and its affiliates ceases to beneficially own any Series D-1 shares, any shares of common stock issued upon conversion of the Series D-1 shares, any other securities acquired by the investor pursuant to the preemptive rights described above, any shares of common stock issued upon the exercise of the WD warrants or any other shares of common stock issued in respect of such shares.

Edgar Filing: ASPEN TECHNOLOGY INC /DE/ - Form SC 13D

may be exercised to acquire shares of common stock at an initial exercise price of $3.33 per share. The number of shares is subject to adjustment in the event of stock splits, recapitalizations, reorganizations and, in certain circumstances, is subject to a weighted-average antidilution adjustment if the Corporation issues equity securities (or debt securities convertible into equity securities) at a price per share less than the exercise price then in effect. The WD Warrants will be exercisable for cash or, at any time at which the underlying shares of common stock are not registered under the Securities Act, through a "cashless exercise" feature. The WD Warrants will be exercisable immediately upon issuance and will have a term of seven years.

Upon certain fundamental transactions, such as a merger or consolidation, the sale of all or substantially all of the Corporation's assets or the reclassification of the common stock, each holder of WD Warrants has the right to receive the same amount and kind of securities, cash or property upon exercise as it would have been entitled to receive had it been the owner of the shares of common stock underlying the WD Warrant at the time of such transaction.

Except as described herein, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the persons named in Item 2 above or between such persons and any other person with respect to any securities of the Company.
