SELLING SECURITYHOLDERS

We originally issued the notes in a private placement in January 2005. The notes were sold by the initial purchasers to persons they or their agents reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers under Rule 144A under the Securities Act. These subsequent purchasers, including, to the extent permitted, their transferees, pledges or donees or their successors, may use this prospectus supplement and the prospectus to which this prospectus supplement refers to sell the notes and the shares of our common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes.

The following table supplements the table of selling securityholders in the prospectus to which this prospectus supplement refers, and sets forth additional information about the beneficial ownership of the notes and shares of our common stock by the selling securityholders. We have prepared this table using information furnished to us by or on behalf of the selling securityholders listed below. Unless set forth below, to our knowledge, no selling securityholder listed below nor any of its affiliates has held any position or office with, been employed by or otherwise has had any material relationship with us or our affiliates during the three years prior to the date of this prospectus supplement.

Our registration of the notes and the shares of our common stock that may be issuable upon conversion of the notes does not mean that the selling securityholders identified below or in the prospectus to which this prospectus supplement refers will sell all or any of the securities. In addition, the selling securityholders listed below and in the prospectus to which this prospectus supplement refers may have sold, transferred or disposed of all or a portion of their notes since the date on which they provided the information regarding their holdings. Information concerning the selling securityholders may change from time to time, and upon notice thereof we will provide any changed information in supplements to or amendments of the prospectus, if and when necessary.

- (1) No unnamed holder may use this prospectus supplement or the prospectus to which it refers to offer or sell notes or shares of our common stock into which the notes are convertible unless such unnamed holder is identified as a selling securityholder.
- (2) Assumes conversion of the full amount of notes held by the selling securityholder at the rate of 92.9023 shares of our common stock per $1,000 in principal amount of the notes. The conversion rate and the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes may be adjusted under circumstances described under Description Of Notes Conversion Rights in the prospectus to which this prospectus supplement refers.

Accordingly, the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes may increase or decrease from time to time. Holders will receive a cash adjustment for any fractional share amount resulting from conversion of the notes, as described under Description of Notes Conversion Rights in the prospectus to which this prospectus supplement refers.

- (3) Assumes that the selling securityholder has sold all the shares of our common stock shown as being issuable upon the assumed conversion of the notes listed next to its name and represents additional shares of our common stock, if any, beneficially owned before the offering.
- (4) Calculated based on 45,592,075 shares of common stock outstanding as of August 1, 2005. In calculating this amount, we treated as outstanding that number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of all of a particular securityholder's notes. However, we did not assume the conversion of any other securityholders' notes.
- (5) The selling securityholder served as an initial purchaser of the notes in January 2005. The selling securityholder has represented to us that it purchased the notes listed on the table for investment purposes and not with a view toward distribution of such notes. Includes previously registered $2,860,000 principal amount of the notes covered by our prospectus dated June 13, 2005.
