CERNER CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(1) Interim Statement Presentation & Accounting Policies

The condensed consolidated financial statements included herein have been prepared by the Company without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations, although the Company believes that the disclosures are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's latest annual report on Form 10-K. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the financial position, and the results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented. The results for the three and six month periods are not necessarily indicative of the operating results for the entire year.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income, establishes requirements for reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components. Total Comprehensive Income, which includes net earnings, foreign currency translation adjustments, and gains and losses from a hedge of the Company's net investment in the United Kingdom, amounted to $32,400,000 and $18,543,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006 and $61,364,000 and $39,551,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006, respectively. The Company has designated all of its GBP-denominated long-term debt (GBP 65,000,000) as a net investment hedge of its U.K. operations. The objective of the hedge is to reduce the Company's foreign currency exposure in the U.K. Changes in the exchange rate between the USD and GBP related to the notional amount of the hedge are being recognized as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income and the net loss totaled approximately $2,665,000 and $3,427,000 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007, respectively. The terms of the Company's software license agreements with its clients generally provide for a limited indemnification of such intellectual property against losses, expenses and liabilities arising from third-party claims based on alleged infringement by the Company's solutions of an intellectual property right of such third party. The terms of such indemnification often limit the scope of and remedies for such indemnification obligations and generally include a right to replace or modify an infringing solution. To date, the Company has not had to reimburse any of its clients for any losses related to these indemnification provisions pertaining to third-party intellectual property infringement claims. For several reasons, including the lack of prior indemnification claims and the lack of a monetary liability limit for certain infringement cases under the terms of the corresponding agreements with its clients, the Company cannot determine the maximum amount of potential future payments, if any, related to such indemnification provisions.

(2) Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) excludes dilution and is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that then shared in the earnings of the Company. A reconciliation of the numerators and the denominators of the basic and diluted per-share computations is as follows:

Table of Contents

(In thousands, except per share data)	Three Months Ended June 30, 2007			Three Months Ended July 1, 2006

Options to purchase 1,352,000 and 861,000 shares of common stock at per share prices ranging from $38.37 to $136.86 and $31.41 to $136.86 were outstanding at the six months ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006, respectively, but were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because the options were anti-dilutive.

(3) Accounting for Share-Based Awards

On January 1, 2006, the Company adopted SFAS No. 123(R), Share-Based Payments, using the modified prospective method of adoption. SFAS 123(R) replaces SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and supersedes Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. SFAS No. 123(R) addresses the accounting for share-based payment transactions with employees and other third parties and requires that the compensation costs relating to such transactions be recognized in the consolidated statement of earnings.

Table of Contents

As of June 30, 2007, the Company had four stock option and equity plans in effect for associates. Amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements with respect to these plans are as follows:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended June 30, 2007	Three Months Ended July 1, 2006
Total cost of share-based payments for the period	$ 4,718	$ 5,366
Amounts capitalized in software development costs	(332)	(282)
Amounts charged against earnings, before income tax benefit	$ 4,386	$ 5,084

Amounts charged against earnings, before income tax benefit	$ 8,197	$ 9,799
Amount of related income tax benefit recognized in earnings	$ 3,135	$ 3,745

A summary of the stock option activity of the Company's four stock option and equity plans as of June 30, 2007 and changes during the six months ended June 30, 2007 is presented below:

Options	Number of Shares	Six Months Ended June 30, 2007
		Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Aggregate Intrinsic Value (1)
Outstanding at the beginning of the year	10,432,448	$ 21.11
Granted	781,140	54.33
Exercised	(1,020,186)	17.19
Forfeited and Expired	(198,548)	28.34
Outstanding at June 30, 2007	9,994,854	$ 23.97	$ 314,888,606
Options exercisable at June 30, 2007	5,612,662	$ 16.87	$ 216,751,043

- (1) The intrinsic value of stock options outstanding represents the amount that would have been received by the option holders had all option holders exercised their stock options as of June 30, 2007.

The weighted-average grant date fair value of stock options granted during the first six months of 2007 and 2006 was $28.89 and $21.74, respectively. The total intrinsic value of stock options exercised during the first six months of 2007 and 2006 was $36,330,000 and $15,889,000, respectively. The Company issues new shares to satisfy option exercises.

As of June 30, 2007, there was $42,323,000 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested share-based compensation arrangements (including stock option and nonvested share awards) granted under all plans. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 1.79 years.

Table of Contents(4) Business Acquisition and Divestiture

On February 22, 2007, the Company completed the purchase of assets of Etreby Computer Company, Inc. (Etreby), for $25,120,000, which was reduced by $1,587,000 for a working capital adjustment in the second quarter of 2007. Etreby is a software provider of retail pharmacy management systems. The acquisition of Etreby will expand the Company's pharmacy systems portfolio. The operating results of Etreby were combined with those of the Company as of the purchase date of February 22, 2007. Unaudited pro forma results of operations are not presented because the acquisition was immaterial to the Company's operating results and financial position. The preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the estimated fair values of the identified tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed, resulted in goodwill of $13,504,000 and $9,353,000 in intangible assets consisting primarily of purchased software and customer lists. The intangible assets are being amortized over five years. The goodwill was allocated to the Domestic segment and is expected to be deductible for tax purposes. The allocation of the purchase price is preliminary until management completes its identification and valuation of intangible assets acquired.

(5) Receivables

Receivables consist of accounts receivable and contracts receivable. Accounts receivable represent recorded revenues that have been billed. Contracts receivable represent recorded revenues that are billable by the Company at future dates under the terms of a contract with a client. Billings and other consideration received on contracts in excess of related revenues recognized are recorded as deferred revenue. A summary of receivables is as follows:

(In thousands)	June 30, 2007	December 30, 2006
Accounts receivable, net of allowance	$245,967	$228,676
Contracts receivable	118,689	132,748
Total receivables, net	$364,656	$361,424

The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its clients and generally does not require collateral from its clients. The Company provides an allowance for estimated uncollectible accounts based on specific identification, historical experience and management's judgment. At June 30, 2007 and December 30, 2006, the allowance for estimated uncollectible accounts was $16,170,000 and $14,628,000, respectively.

During the first six months of 2007 and 2006, the Company received total client cash collections of $832,600,000 and $696,200,000, respectively, of which $42,634,000 and $46,755,000 were received from third party arrangements with non-recourse payment assignments.

(6) Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives are evaluated for impairment annually or whenever there is an impairment indicator. All goodwill is assigned to a reporting unit, where it is subject to an impairment test based on fair value. The Company's 2007 review of goodwill was completed in the second quarter of 2007 and indicated that goodwill was not impaired.

The Company's intangible assets, other than goodwill or intangible assets with indefinite lives, are all subject to amortization and are summarized as follows:

Table of Contents

	Weighted-Average Amortization Period (Yrs)	June 30, 2007		December 30, 2006
		Gross Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization	Gross Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization

Total	5.63	$ 122,168	$ 67,016	$ 111,709	$ 57,281

Aggregate amortization expense for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006 was $9,735,000 and $9,079,000, respectively. Estimated aggregate amortization expense for each of the next five years is as follows:

For the remaining six months:	2007	$ 9,140
For year ended:	2008	16,432
	2009	14,531
	2010	5,821
	2011	4,336

The changes in the carrying amount of goodwill for the six months ended June 30, 2007 are as follows:

(In thousands)

Balance as of December 30, 2006	$ 128,819
Goodwill acquired	13,504
Foreign currency translation adjustment and other	732
Balance as of June 30, 2007	$ 143,055

(7) Income Taxes

On January 1, 2007, the Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an interpretation of the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. This interpretation clarifies how companies calculate and disclose uncertain tax positions. The effect of adopting this interpretation did not impact any previously recorded amounts for unrecognized tax benefits.

As of January 1, 2007, the Company had $1,150,000 of accrued interest recorded related to the underpayment of income taxes. The Company classifies interest and penalties as income tax expense in its consolidated statement of earnings, which is consistent with how the Company previously classified interest and penalties related to the underpayment of income taxes. No accrual for tax penalties was recorded upon adoption of FIN 48.

The total amount of unrecognized tax benefits was $12,150,000 as of January 1, 2007. In the second quarter of 2007, new information became available to the Company that changed management's judgment about the measurement of these unrecognized tax benefits. Based on the new information available to management, the Company reduced previously recorded reserves for tax uncertainties by $1,700,000, including interest, during the second quarter of 2007. As of June 30, 2007, the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits, including interest, was $13,300,000. All of this amount, if recognized, would affect the effective tax rate. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has examined the Company's tax returns through the 2004 tax year. The Company continues to have ongoing discussions with the IRS and other tax authorities to resolve some of the disputes related to tax positions and tax credits the Company has taken on its previously filed tax returns. Depending on the results of those discussions, which are expected to be finalized in 2007, it is reasonably possible that the Company's accrual for unrecognized tax benefits could change by approximately $1,000,000 from its current estimate in the next twelve months.

Table of Contents

In connection with the Company's preparation and review of its 2006 foreign tax returns, management determined that the deferred tax assets related to certain foreign net operating loss carryforwards were understated in prior periods. In the second quarter of 2007, the Company corrected this error resulting in the recognition of approximately $5,065,000 of out-of-period tax benefits. The benefits, if properly recorded in the prior periods, were determined to be immaterial to each of the prior periods to which they related.

During the second quarter of 2007, the Company determined that due to a change in circumstances in the quarter, it is more likely than not that certain deferred tax assets in a foreign jurisdiction would not be realized resulting in the recognition of a valuation allowance totaling approximately $9,069,000.

(8) Segment Reporting

The Company has two operating segments, Domestic and Global. Beginning in the second quarter of 2006, we began allocating certain expenses related to our managed services that were previously classified as Other to the geographic segment to which they relate. As a result, the prior periods have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the change in reportable segments. Revenues are derived primarily from the sale of clinical, financial and administrative information systems and solutions. The cost of revenues includes the cost of third party consulting services, computer hardware and sublicensed software purchased from computer and software manufacturers for delivery to clients. It also includes the cost of hardware maintenance and sublicensed software support subcontracted to the manufacturers. Operating expenses incurred by the geographic business segments consist of sales and client service expenses including salaries of sales and client service personnel, communications expenses and unreimbursed travel expenses. Performance of the segments is assessed at the operating earnings level and, therefore, the segment operations have been presented as such. Other includes revenues not generated by the operating segments and expenses such as software development, marketing, general and administrative, share-based compensation expense and depreciation that have not been allocated to the operating segments. The Company does not track assets by geographical business segment.

Accounting policies for each of the reportable segments are the same as those used on a consolidated basis. The following table presents a summary of the operating information for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006.

Table of ContentsItem 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations*Introduction

Cerner Corporation (Cerner or the Company) is headquartered in North Kansas City, Missouri. The Company primarily derives revenue by selling, implementing and supporting software solutions, hardware, healthcare devices and services that give healthcare providers secure access to clinical, administrative and financial data in real time, allowing them to improve the quality, safety and efficiency in the delivery of healthcare. We implement the healthcare solutions as stand-alone, combined or enterprise-wide systems. Cerner Millennium[®] software solutions can be managed by the Company's clients or in the Company's data center via a managed services model.

Results Overview

The Company delivered strong levels of new business bookings, revenue and earnings in the second quarter of 2007. New business bookings revenue, which reflects the value of executed contracts for software, hardware, services and managed services (hosting of software in the Company's data center), in the second quarter was $486.8 million. The second quarter 2007 bookings included a $97.8 million booking related to the Company's participation in the London and Southern regions of the National Health Service (NHS) initiative to automate clinical processes and digitize medical records in England. The Company's bookings excluding the UK booking, were $389.0 million, which is up 25% over the second quarter of 2006 and is equal to an all-time high for adjusted bookings set in the fourth quarter of 2006. Revenues for the second quarter of 2007 increased 17% to $386.6 million compared to $330.6 million in the year-ago quarter.

Second quarter 2007 net earnings were $31.1 million, and diluted earnings per share were $0.37. Second quarter 2006 net earnings were $23.9 million and diluted earnings per share were $0.29. Second quarter 2007 and 2006 net earnings and diluted earnings per share reflect the impact of adopting Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123R, Share-Based Payment, which requires the expensing of stock options. Adoption of SFAS 123R reduced second quarter 2007 net earnings and diluted earnings per share by $2.7 million and $0.04, respectively, and second quarter 2006 earnings and diluted earnings per share by $3.1 million and $0.04, respectively.

The Company had strong cash collections of receivables of $437.6 million in the second quarter of 2007 compared to $354.7 million in the second quarter of 2006 and lowered days sales outstanding to 86 days compared to 91 days in the second quarter of 2006. Operating cash flows for the second quarter of 2007 were $62.9 million compared to $59.7 million in the second quarter of 2006.

Healthcare Information Technology Market

The Company believes the market for healthcare information technology (HIT) remains good. In the United States, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) has reported that healthcare represents 16% of the gross national product, and they project it will reach 20% by 2015. This unsustainable trend is not isolated to just the United States as most other countries are experiencing similar increases in healthcare costs. This is a favorable environment for HIT as it is broadly seen as a way to curb these growing costs while also improving the quality of care.

Table of ContentsResults of Operations*Three Months Ended June 30, 2007 Compared to Three Months Ended July 1, 2006

The Company's net earnings increased 30% to $31,115,000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2007, compared with $23,873,000 for the second quarter of 2006. The adoption of SFAS No. 123R, which requires the expensing of stock options, decreased net earnings in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006 by $2,708,000 net of $1,678,000 tax benefit and $3,139,000, net of $1,945,000 tax benefit, respectively.

Revenues increased 17% to $386,588,000 in the second quarter of 2007, compared with $330,572,000 for the same period in 2006. The revenue composition for the second quarter of 2007 was $130,097,000 in system sales, $97,721,000 in support and maintenance, $148,489,000 in services and $10,281,000 in reimbursed travel.

System sales revenues increased 14% to $130,097,000, in the second quarter of 2007, compared with $114,364,000 for the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in hardware sales. Included in system sales are revenues from the sale of software, hardware, sublicensed software, deployment period licensed software upgrade rights, installation fees, transaction processing and subscriptions.

Support, maintenance and service revenues increased 19% to $246,210,000, in the second quarter of 2007, compared with $206,217,000 for the same period in 2006. The increases in support, maintenance and services revenues were driven by a strong performance of the professional services business in delivering Cerner Millennium solutions to clients as well as strong growth in managed services. Included in support, maintenance and service revenues are support and maintenance of software and hardware, professional services excluding installation, and managed services. A summary of the Company's support, maintenance and service revenues is as follows:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended June 30, 2007	Three Months Ended July 1, 2006
Support and maintenance revenues	$ 97,721	$ 84,031
Service revenue	148,489	122,186
Total support, maintenance, and service revenues	$ 246,210	$ 206,217

Contract backlog, which reflects new business bookings that have not yet been recognized as revenue, increased 36% in the second quarter of 2007 compared to the second quarter of 2006. This increase was driven by good growth in new business bookings during the past four quarters, including continued strong levels of managed services bookings that typically have longer contract terms. A summary of the Company's backlog is as follows:

(In thousands)	As of June 30, 2007	As of July 1, 2006
Contract backlog	$ 2,492,797	$ 1,829,010
Support and maintenance backlog	512,590	440,381
Total backlog	$ 3,005,387	$ 2,269,391

Table of Contents

The cost of revenues was 21% of total revenues in the second quarter of 2007 and 19% in the second quarter of 2006. The cost of revenues includes the cost of reimbursed travel expense, third party consulting services and subscription content, computer hardware and sublicensed software purchased from hardware and software manufacturers for delivery to clients. It also includes the cost of hardware maintenance and sublicensed software support subcontracted to the manufacturers. Such costs, as a percent of revenues, typically have varied as the mix of revenue (software, hardware, maintenance, support, services and reimbursed travel) carrying different margin rates changes from period to period.

Total operating expenses increased 13% to $256,604,000, in the second quarter of 2007, compared with $226,467,000 for the same period in 2006. The adoption of SFAS 123(R) on January 1, 2006, which resulted in the expensing of stock based compensation, impacted expenses as indicated below:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended June 30, 2007	Three Months Ended July 1, 2006
Sales and client service expenses	$ 2,649	$ 3,073
Software development expense	750	1,097
General and administrative expenses	987	914
Total stock-based compensation expense	$ 4,386	$ 5,084

Sales and client service expenses as a percent of total revenues were 43% in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006. These expenses increased 17% to $165,844,000 in the second quarter of 2007, compared with $141,877,000 for the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in personnel and marketing related expenditures. Sales and client service expenses include salaries of sales and client service personnel, communications expenses, unreimbursed travel expenses, expense for share-based payments, sales and marketing salaries and trade show and advertising costs.

Total expense for software development for the second quarter of 2007 increased 3% to $62,873,000, as compared to $60,888,000 for the same period in 2006. The increase in aggregate expenditures for software development in 2007 is due to continued development of Cerner Millennium software solutions. A summary of the Company's total software development expense is as follows:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended June 30, 2007	Three Months Ended July 1, 2006
Software development costs	$ 65,750	$ 66,514
Capitalized software costs	(15,902)	(16,159)
Capitalized costs related to share-based payments	(332)	(282)
Amortization of capitalized software costs	13,357	10,815
Total software development expense	$ 62,873	$ 60,888

General and administrative expenses as a percent of total revenues were 7% in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006. These expenses increased 18% to $27,887,000, for the quarter ended June 30, 2007, compared with $23,702,000 for the same period in 2006. This increase was due primarily to the growth of the Company's core business, a result of acquisitions and increased presence in the global market. General and administrative expenses include salaries for corporate, financial and administrative staffs, utilities, communications expenses, professional fees, the transaction gains or losses on foreign currency and expense for share based payment. The Company recorded a net transaction loss on foreign currency of $310,000 in the second quarter of 2007 compared to a net transaction gain on foreign currency of $772,000 during the second quarter of 2006.

Net interest income was $424,000 in the second quarter of 2007 compared to net interest expense of $478,000 in the second quarter of 2006. This decrease is due to a reduction in long-term debt and higher yields on cash and short-term investments.

Table of Contents

Other expense was $415,000 and $67,000 in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The Company's effective tax rate for the second quarter of 2007 and 2006 was 37% and 39%, respectively. The change in tax rate is related to the change in federal tax laws related to the Research and Development Credit and the Domestic Production Activities Deduction. The Federal Research and Development Tax Credit was reinstated in the fourth quarter of 2006, therefore, the benefits of the credit were not included in the effective tax rate for the second quarter of 2006. The Domestic Production Activities Deduction increased from 3% in 2006 to 6% in 2007.

In connection with the Company's preparation and review of its 2006 foreign tax returns, management determined that the deferred tax assets related to certain foreign net operating loss carryforwards were understated in prior periods. In the second quarter of 2007, the Company corrected this error resulting in the recognition of approximately $5,065,000 of out-of-period tax benefits. The benefits, if properly recorded in the prior periods, were determined to be immaterial to each of the prior periods to which they related. In addition, during the second quarter of 2007, the Company determined that due to a change in circumstances in the quarter, it is more likely than not that certain deferred tax assets in a foreign jurisdiction would not be realized resulting in the recognition of a valuation allowance totaling approximately $9,069,000. Also, in the second quarter of 2007, new information became available to the Company that changed management's judgment about the measurement of the unrecognized tax benefits under FIN 48. Based on the new information available to management, the Company reduced previously recorded reserves for tax uncertainties by $1,700,000, including interest. The net impact of the reduction of previously recorded reserves for tax uncertainties, the correction of foreign net operating losses and the recognition of a deferred tax asset valuation allowance was an increase to tax expense of $2,304,000 in the second quarter of 2007.

Operations by Segment

The Company has two operating segments, Domestic and Global. Beginning in the second quarter of 2006, we began allocating certain expenses related to our managed services that were previously classified as Other to the geographic segment to which they relate. As a result, the prior periods have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the change in reportable segments.

The following table presents a summary of the operating information for the three months ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006:

Domestic Segment

Operating earnings increased 7% for the quarter ended June 30, 2007, compared to the quarter ended July 1, 2006.

Revenues increased 7% in the second quarter of 2007, compared to the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily driven by strong bookings growth.

Cost of revenues was 19% of revenues in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006.

Operating expenses increased 6% for the three months ended June 30, 2007, as compared to the three months ended July 1, 2006, due primarily to growth in managed services.

Global Segment

Operating earnings increased 78% for the quarter ended June 30, 2007, compared to the quarter ended July 1, 2006.

Revenues increased 77% in the second quarter of 2007 compared to the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily driven by an increase in the Company's major contracts in England. These contracts generated $25,800,000 and $15,000,000 of revenues in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively. The revenues from these contracts did not affect operating earnings as the Company is accounting for them using a zero-margin approach of applying percentage-of-completion accounting until the software customization and development services are completed. Software customization and development services are expected to be completed in 2008. At that time, the remaining unrecognized portion of the fee will be recognized over the remaining term of the arrangement, which expires in 2014.

Cost of revenues were 27% in the second quarter of 2007, compared with 20% in the same period of 2006. The higher cost of revenues in the 2007 was driven by an increase in global hardware sales.

Operating expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2007 increased 52%, compared to the three months ended July 1, 2006, primarily due to hiring personnel for the projects in England and supporting growth in other global regions.

Other Segment

The Company's Other segment includes revenues and expenses not tracked by geographic segment. Operating losses increased 10% in the second quarter of 2007 compared to the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily due to an increase in operating expenses such as software development, marketing, general and administrative, share-based compensation expense and depreciation.

Table of ContentsSix Months Ended June 30, 2007 Compared to Six Months Ended July 1, 2006

The Company's net earnings increased 33% to $58,695,000, for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, compared with $44,017,000 for the same period in 2006. The adoption of SFAS No. 123R, which requires the expensing of stock options decreased net earnings year to date June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006, by $5,062,000, net of $3,135,000 tax benefit and $6,054,000, net of $3,745,000 tax benefit, respectively.

Revenues increased 15% to $752,440,000, for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, compared with $651,797,000 for the same period in 2006. The revenue composition for the first six months of 2007 was $252,966,000 in system sales, $191,633,000 in support and maintenance, $288,467,000 in services and $19,374,000 in reimbursed travel.

System sales revenues increased 9% to $252,966,000, for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, compared with $231,214,000 for the same period in 2006. The increase is primarily attributable to an increase in hardware sales. Included in system sales are revenues from the sale of software, hardware, sublicensed software, deployment period licensed software upgrade rights, installation fees, transaction processing and subscriptions.

Support, maintenance and service revenues increased 19% to $480,100,000, for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, compared with $401,803,000 for the same period in 2006. The increases in support, maintenance and services revenues were driven by a strong performance of the professional services business in delivering Cerner Millennium solutions to clients as well as strong growth in managed services. Included in support, maintenance and service revenues are support and maintenance of software and hardware, professional services excluding installation, and managed services. A summary of the Company's support, maintenance and service revenues is as follows:

Total stock-based compensation expense	$ 8,197	$ 9,799

Sales and client service expenses as a percent of total revenues was 43% for the six-months 2007 and 2006. These expenses increased 15% to $323,002,000, for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, compared with $281,401,000 for the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in personnel and marketing related expenditures. Sales and client service expenses include salaries of sales and client service personnel, communications expenses, unreimbursed travel expenses, expense for share-based payments, sales and marketing salaries and trade show and advertising costs.

Total expense for software development for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007 increased 7% to $128,696,000, as compared to $119,904,000 for the same period in 2006. The increase in aggregate expenditures for software development in 2007 is due to continued development of Cerner Millennium software solutions. A summary of the Company's total software development expense is as follows:

(In thousands)	Six Months Ended June 30, 2007	Six Months Ended July 1, 2006
Software development costs	$ 134,267	$ 130,474

Amortization of capitalized software costs	26,687	21,620
Total software development expense	$ 128,696	$ 119,904

General and administrative expenses as a percent of total revenues were 7% for the first six months of 2007 and 2006. These expenses increased 17% to $54,342,000, for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, compared with $46,373,000 for the same period in 2006. This increase was due primarily to the growth of the Company's core business and increased presence in the global market. General and administrative expenses include salaries for corporate, financial and administrative staffs, utilities, communications expenses, professional fees, the transaction gains or losses on foreign currency and expense for share based payment. The Company recorded net transaction gains on foreign currency of $187,000 and $974,000 during the first six months of 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Net interest income was $545,000 for the first six months of 2007 compared to net interest expense of $1,171,000 for the same period of 2006. This decrease is due to a reduction in long-term debt and higher yields on cash and short-term investments.

Other expense of $738,000 in the first six months of 2007 compared to other income of $2,058,000 in the same period of 2006. In the first quarter of 2006 a gain was recorded related to the renegotiation of a supplier contract that eliminated a liability related to unfavorable future commitments due to that supplier. The Company was able to renegotiate the contract to eliminate certain minimum volume requirements and reduce pricing to market rates leading to the elimination of the previously recorded liability.

The Company's effective tax rate for the first six months of 2007 and 2006 was 37% and 39%, respectively. The change in tax rate is related to the change in federal tax laws related to the Research and Development Credit and the Domestic Production Activities Deduction. The Federal Research and Development Tax Credit was reinstated in the fourth quarter of 2006, therefore, the benefits of the credit were not included in the effective tax rate for the first six months of 2006. The Domestic Production Activities Deduction increased from 3% in 2006 to 6% in 2007.

In connection with the Company's preparation and review of its 2006 foreign tax returns, management determined that the deferred tax assets related to certain foreign net operating loss carryforwards were understated in prior periods. In the second quarter of 2007, the Company corrected this error resulting in the recognition of approximately $5,065,000 of out-of-period tax benefits. The benefits, if properly recorded in the prior periods, were determined to be immaterial to each of the prior periods to which they related. In addition, during the second quarter of 2007, the Company determined that due to a change in circumstances in the quarter, it is more likely than not that certain deferred tax assets in a foreign jurisdiction would not be realized resulting in the recognition of a valuation allowance totaling approximately $9,069,000. Also, in the second quarter of 2007, new information became available to the Company that changed management's judgment about the measurement of the unrecognized tax benefits under FIN 48. Based on the new information available to management, the Company reduced previously recorded reserves for tax uncertainties by $1,700,000, including interest. The net impact of the reduction of previously recorded reserves for tax uncertainties, the correction of foreign net operating losses and the recognition of a deferred tax asset valuation allowance was an increase to tax expense of $2,304,000 in the second quarter of 2007.

Operations by Segment

The Company has two operating segments, Domestic and Global. Beginning in the second quarter of 2006, we began allocating certain expenses related to our managed services that were previously classified as Other to the geographic segment to which they relate. As a result, the prior periods have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the change in reportable segments.

The following table presents a summary of the operating information for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006:

(In thousands)	Operating Segments			Total
	Domestic	Global	Other
Six months ended June 30, 2007

Domestic Segment

Operating earnings increased 13% for the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to the six months ended July 1, 2006.

Revenues increased 7% in the first six months of 2007, compared to the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily driven by strong bookings growth.

Cost of revenues was 19% in the first six months of 2007, compared with 21% in the same period of 2006. Such costs, as a percent of revenues, typically vary as the mix of revenue (software, hardware, maintenance, support, services and reimbursed travel) carrying different margin rates changes from period to period.

Table of Contents

Operating expenses were basically unchanged for the six months ended June 30, 2007, as compared to the six months ended July 1, 2006.

Global Segment

Operating earnings increased 48% for the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to the six months ended July 1, 2006.

Revenues increased 68% in the first six months of 2007, compared to the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily driven by an increase in the Company's major contracts in England. These contracts generated $49,600,000 and $26,000,000 of revenues in the first six months of 2007 and 2006, respectively. The revenues from these contracts did not affect operating earnings as the Company is accounting for them using a zero-margin approach of applying percentage-of-completion accounting until the software customization and development services are completed. Software customization and development services are expected to be completed in 2008. At that time, the remaining unrecognized portion of the fee will be recognized over the remaining term of the arrangement, which expires in 2014.

Cost of revenues was 26% in the first six months of 2007 compared with 19% in the same period of 2006. The higher cost of revenues in the 2007 was driven by an increase in global hardware sales.

Operating expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2007, increased 58% compared to the six months ended July 1, 2006, primarily due to hiring personnel for the projects in England and supporting growth in other global regions.

Other Segment

The Company's Other segment includes revenues and expenses not tracked by geographic segment. Operating losses increased 12% in the first six months of 2007, compared to the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily due to an increase in operating expenses such as software development, marketing, general and administrative, share-based compensation expense and depreciation.

Capital Resources and Liquidity

The Company's liquidity is influenced by many factors, including the amount and timing of the Company's revenues, its cash collections from its clients and the amounts the Company invests in software development, acquisitions and capital expenditures.

The Company's principal source of liquidity is its cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments. The majority of the Company's cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments consist of U.S. Government Federal Agency Securities, short-term marketable securities and overnight repurchase agreements. At June 30, 2007 the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $158,278,000, short-term investments of $123,574,000 and working capital of $450,004,000 compared to cash and cash equivalents of $162,545,000, short-term investments of $146,239,000 and working capital of $444,656,000 at December 30, 2006.

Cash from Operating Activities

The Company generated cash of $106,084,000 and $110,870,000 from operations in the first six months of 2007 and 2006, respectively. Cash flow from operations decreased in the first six months of 2007, when compared to the same period in 2006, due primarily to an increase in tax payments. The Company has periodically provided long-term financing options to creditworthy clients through third party financing institutions and has on occasion directly provided extended payment terms from contract date. Some of these payment streams have been assigned on a non-recourse basis to third party financing institutions. The Company has provided its usual and customary performance guarantees to the third party financing institutions in connection with its on-going obligations under the client contract. During the first six months of 2007 and 2006, the Company received total client cash collections of $832,600,000 and $696,200,000, respectively, of which 5.1% and 6.7% were received from third party client financing arrangements and non-recourse payment assignments. Days sales outstanding were 86 days at June 30, 2007, decreasing from 91 days at July 1, 2006.

Table of Contents

Revenues provided under support and maintenance agreements represent recurring cash flows. Support and maintenance revenues increased 17% for the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to the six months ended July, 1, 2006. The Company expects these revenues to continue to grow as the base of installed systems grows.

Cash from Investing Activities

Cash used in investing activities in the first six months of 2007 consisted primarily of capital purchases of $101,502,000, which includes $53,182,000 of capital equipment and $48,320,000 of land, buildings and improvements. Capitalized software development costs were $32,680,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2007. Cash was also provided by sales and maturities of short-term investments, net of purchases, of $23,737,000 in the first six months of 2007. The company also completed its acquisition of Etreby during the six months ended June 30, 2007 for approximately $23,845,000, net of the cash acquired. Cash used in investing activities in the first six months of 2006 consisted primarily of capital purchases of $67,364,000, which includes $38,359,000 of capital equipment and $29,005,000 of land, buildings and improvements. Capitalized software development costs were $32,190,000. In the second quarter of 2007, the Company nearly completed the construction of a new data center on its campus in North Kansas City. The Company has spent $50,000,000 on this construction project and expects to spend an additional $10,000,000.

Cash from Financing Activities

The Company's financing activities for the first six months of 2007 consisted of proceeds from the exercise of stock options of $17,536,000 and the excess tax benefits from share based compensation of $19,494,000 and repayment of debt of $12,487,000. For the first six months of 2006 the Company's financing activities consisted of proceeds from the exercise of stock options of $9,560,000 and the excess tax benefits from share based compensation of $3,462,000 and repayment of debt of $22,322,000.

The Company believes that its present cash position, together with cash generated from operations and, if necessary, its line of credit, will be sufficient to meet anticipated cash requirements during 2007.

The effects of inflation on the Company's business during the period discussed herein were minimal.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157 (SFAS 157), Fair Value Measurements. This statement establishes a single authoritative definition of fair value when accounting rules require the use of fair value, sets out a framework for measuring fair value and requires additional disclosures about fair-value measurements. The company is currently assessing the impact of adoption of SFAS 157 on its results of operations and its financial position and will be required to adopt SFAS 157 as of the first day of the 2008 fiscal year.

In February 2007, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 159 (SFAS 159), The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities. This statement provides companies with an option to report selected financial assets and liabilities at fair value. The company is currently assessing the impact of adoption of SFAS 159 on its results of operations and its financial position and will be required to adopt SFAS 159 as of the first day of the 2008 fiscal year.

Forward Looking and Cautionary Statements

Except for the historical information and discussions contained herein, statements contained in this Form 10-Q may constitute forward looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Act). Forward-looking statements can often be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as could, should, will, intended, continue, believe, may, expect, hope, anticipate, goal, estimate or the negative of these words, variations thereof or similar expressions. These statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially, including: the possibility of product-related liabilities; potential claims for system errors and warranties; the possibility of interruption at our data centers or client support facilities; our proprietary technology may be subjected to

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

No material changes.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

- a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures. The Company's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO) have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in the Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of the end of the period covered by the Quarterly Report (the Evaluation Date). They have concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, these disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that material information relating to the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries would be made known to them by others within those entities and would be disclosed on a timely basis. The CEO and CFO have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are designed, and are effective, to give reasonable assurance that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time period specified in the rules and forms of the SEC. They have also concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports that are filed or submitted under the Exchange Act are accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including the CEO and CFO, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.
- b) There were no changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting during the three months ended June 30, 2007 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, its internal controls over financial reporting.
- c) The Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving their objectives and are effective at that reasonable assurance level. However, the Company's management can provide no assurance that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal control over financial reporting can prevent all errors and all fraud under all circumstances. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been or will be detected. The design of any system of controls also is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions; over time, controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with policies or procedures may deteriorate. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.
