Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On November 8, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) of Lindsay Corporation (the Company) adopted the Management Incentive Plan for the Company's fiscal year ending August 31, 2007 (2007 MIP) under which the Company's senior officers could earn annual cash incentive awards. Each person who was a named executive officer in the Company's proxy statement for its 2006 annual meeting was a participant in the 2007 MIP.

The 2007 MIP established target bonus amounts for each participating officer ranging from 25% to 60% of such officer's base salary. Participants were eligible for awards of between 0% and 200% of their target bonus depending on the achievement of certain Company financial performance criteria and individual performance criteria. Depending on an officer's role in the Company, the Company financial performance component ranged from 65% to 80% of the overall performance criteria for such officer. The Company financial performance component generally was based on achieving stated goals for 2007 operating income and average working capital to sales, with target bonuses for these subcomponents keyed to the Company's 2007 operating budget. For certain officers, the Company financial performance component also included additional subcomponents relating to a specific market segment or operational area over which those officers had direct responsibility or control. The amount of bonus awarded under the individual performance component is dependent upon an officer's personal performance as evaluated using individual performance objectives established by the Committee for each participating officer.

The foregoing description of the 2007 MIP is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the 2007 MIP, a copy of which is attached as exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On July 12, 2007, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted amendments to Sections 8.1 and 8.3 of the By-Laws of the Company. The amendments were adopted to allow the Company to issue shares of its capital stock as either certificated or uncertificated shares, thus allowing the Company to become eligible for and participate in the Direct Registration System (the DRS). The amendments to the By-Laws were effective immediately.

Pursuant to New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) Rules, all NYSE-listed companies must be eligible to participate in the DRS by January 1, 2008. The DRS allows investors to have securities registered in their names without the issuance of physical certificates and allows investors to electronically transfer securities to broker dealers in order to effect transactions without the risk and delays associated with transferring physical certificates.

A copy of the Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Company is filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
