FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Harbinger Capital Partners Notes Glass Lewis Recommendation that Media General Stockholders Vote the Green Proxy Card

Glass Lewis urges Media General stockholders not to vote for any of Media General's class A nominees

New York, NY, April 14, 2008 Harbinger Capital Partners Master Fund I, Ltd. and Harbinger Capital Partners Special Situations Fund, L.P. (together, Harbinger Capital Partners) today announced that Glass Lewis, one of the leading providers of proxy advisory services, has recommended that stockholders of Media General (NYSE : MEG) use the GREEN proxy card to vote for a Harbinger Capital Partners proposed director at the upcoming annual stockholders meeting scheduled for April 24, 2008. Importantly, Glass Lewis urged Media General stockholders NOT to vote for any of Media General's class A nominees.

In its analysis, Glass Lewis explained the following about Harbinger Capital Partner's nominee, J. Daniel Sullivan:

...we believe that the board may benefit from the participation from an experienced and independent voice on the board. We believe that nominee Sullivan has extensive operating experience in the media industry which could prove valuable to the Company during its turn-around period.

Glass Lewis was critical of Media General for several reasons, including:

...extended under-performance of Media General's shares.

...despite the Company's strategic plan and turn around efforts, Media General's share price has not traded in the middle of the pack for some time.

...the Company has not disclosed the director attendance records for the board and committee meetings held during the past fiscal year.

...ratification of the Company's independent auditor is a voting item for class B owners only.

Media General's executive compensation received a grade in [Glass Lewis's] proprietary pay-for-performance model...

...governance matters only serve to underscore the performance issues...

Commenting on Glass Lewis's recommendation, Joseph Cleverdon, Vice President and Director of Investments at Harbinger Capital Partners, said: We are pleased with Glass Lewis's recommendation to their clients to vote on Harbinger Capital Partner's GREEN proxy card to elect one of our nominees, and not use management's white card. We believe that Glass Lewis's decision corroborates our view that the current Media General board of directors has not succeeded in delivering stockholder value and is in urgent need of media industry experience and a fresh perspective.

Harbinger Capital Partners encourages all stockholders to vote for all its nominees on the GREEN proxy card at the Media General upcoming annual stockholder's meeting scheduled for April 24, 2008.

On March 19, 2008, Harbinger Capital Partners filed a definitive proxy statement with the SEC to solicit proxies in connection with the 2008 Annual Meeting of stockholders of Media General, Inc. to be held on April 24, 2008. Company stockholders are encouraged to read the definitive proxy statement and other proxy materials relating to the 2008 Annual Meeting because they contain important information, including a description of who may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies and the direct or indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, of the participants in the solicitation. Such proxy materials are available at no charge on the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. In addition, stockholders may also obtain a free copy of the definitive proxy statement and other proxy materials by contacting our proxy solicitors, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, toll free at (888) 750-5834.
