Item 1.02. Termination of a Definitive Material Agreement.

On March 28, 2012, Las Vegas Sands Corp. (the “Company”) redeemed all of its outstanding 6.375% Senior Notes due 2015 (the “Notes”). On such date, the Company used cash on hand to irrevocably deposit $193,173,216.39 with U.S. Bank National Association, the trustee for the Notes (the “Trustee”), to be applied toward the redemption and to satisfy and discharge the Company’s obligations under the Notes and the Indenture, dated as of February 10, 2005 (as amended and supplemented through the date hereof, the “Indenture”), by and between the Company and the Trustee. In connection with the satisfaction and discharge of the Notes and the Indenture, the collateral securing the Notes was released. Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of the Notes and the Indenture, certain customary provisions of the Indenture relating to the compensation and indemnification of the Trustee and the application of trust money will survive.

The Indenture contained covenants that, subject to certain exceptions and conditions, limited the ability of the Company and the subsidiary guarantors thereunder to enter into sale and leaseback transactions in respect of their principal properties, create liens on their principal properties and consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all their assets. U.S. Bank National Association has performed corporate trust, warrant agent and lending services for the Company from time to time, for which it has received customary compensation, and may do so again in the future.
