INTREPID CAPITAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2003

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Operations

(a) Organization and Basis of Presentation

Intrepid Capital Corporation (the Company), incorporated in 1998, is a Florida-based financial services holding company that conducts its business through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Intrepid Capital Management, Inc. (ICM).

ICM, a registered investment advisor, manages equity, fixed-income, and balanced portfolios for public and private companies, labor unions, endowments, foundations, and high net worth individuals and families. ICM has received authority to act as an investment manager in several states to meet the needs of its customers throughout the United States.

In a transaction effective October 30, 2001, the Company discontinued its resinous material operations formerly conducted through Enviroq Corporation (Enviroq) by selling all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Sprayroq, Inc. (Sprayroq), Enviroq's 50% owned subsidiary. Enviroq remains a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company to hold the promissory notes received in connection with the sale, but conducts no operations currently, as its operations consisted solely of its investment in Sprayroq.

In a transaction effective December 31, 2001, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of ICC Investment Advisors, Inc., the operations of which were conducted through its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Investment Counsel Company (ICC). Subsequent to the acquisition, ICC was merged with and into ICM.

During the first quarter of 2003, the Company decided to pursue the divestiture of Allen C. Ewing & Co. (Ewing), which formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, and accordingly, the Company has reported its operations as discontinued for all periods presented. On May 2, 2003, the Company entered into a stock purchase agreement whereby the Company agreed to sell all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing.

On June 16, 2003, the Company sold Ewing pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement dated May 2, 2003. The purchaser acquired all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing for an aggregate purchase price of $300,000, which amount was paid in cash by purchaser at the closing of the transaction.

The interim financial information included herein is unaudited. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in the financial statements have been condensed or omitted pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC. The Company believes that the disclosures made herein are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and related notes contained in the Company's Amended Annual Report on Form 10-KSB/A filed with the SEC on August 25, 2003. Except as indicated herein, there have been no significant changes from the financial data published in the Company's Annual Report. In the opinion of management, such unaudited information reflects all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals, necessary for fair presentation of the unaudited information. The results of operations for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

INTREPID CAPITAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2003

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries, ICM and Enviroq. Also included are the accounts of Ewing which have been reported as discontinued operations (see note 2). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

(c) Earnings Per Share

Net income per share of common stock is computed based upon the weighted average number of common shares and share equivalents outstanding during the period. Stock warrants and convertible instruments, when dilutive, are included as share equivalents. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, diluted net loss per share is the same as basic net loss per share as the effects of including potentially dilutive securities in the computation is anti-dilutive. The potentially dilutive securities excluded from the calculation of earnings per share consisted of Preferred Stock convertible into 1,166,666 shares of Common Stock in addition to unexercised options and warrants. Diluted earnings per share for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2002 assumes dilutive warrants and convertible instruments to purchase shares of common stock had been exercised using the treasury stock method.

(e) Comprehensive Income

No differences between total comprehensive income (loss) and net income (loss) existed in the financial statements reported for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2003 and 2002.

(f) Stock Option Plan

The Company applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (APB 25) in accounting for its stock options. As such, compensation expense would be recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price. As allowed by Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (FAS 123) and Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure (FAS 148), the Company has elected to apply the intrinsic value-based method of accounting described above, and has adopted the disclosure requirements of FAS 123 and FAS 148.

On January 21, 2003, stock options to purchase 32,500 shares were issued under the Company's Non Employee Directors Incentive Stock Option Plan. The options have a weighted average exercise price of $2.17 and a term of 5 years. Additionally, on January 21, 2003, non qualified stock options to purchase 240,000 shares were issued and have a weighted average exercise price of $2.04 and a term of 5 years.

Table of ContentsINTREPID CAPITAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIESNotes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2003

The per share weighted-average fair value of Non Employee Directors Incentive Stock Options and non qualified stock options granted on January 21, 2003 were $0.36 and $0.39, respectively, using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions: expected dividend yield 0%, risk free interest rate of 4%, expected volatility 50%, and an expected life of 5 years.

As permitted under FAS 148 and FAS 123, the Company has elected to continue to apply the provisions of APB 25 and provide the pro forma disclosures required by FAS 148 and FAS 123. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for its stock options in the consolidated financial statements. Had the Company determined compensation cost based on the fair value at the date of grant for its stock options under SFAS 123, the Company's net income (loss) for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2003 and 2002 would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

(g) New Accounting Pronouncements

During April 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS 149, Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. SFAS 149 amends and clarifies accounting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities under SFAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. The statement requires that contracts with comparable characteristics be accounted for similarly and clarifies when a derivative contains a financing component that warrants special reporting in the statement of cash flows. SFAS 149 is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003, except in certain circumstances, and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. The Company does not expect that the adoption of this standard will have a material effect on its financial position or results of operations.

Table of ContentsINTREPID CAPITAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIESNotes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2003

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. SFAS 150 requires that certain financial instruments, which under previous guidance were accounted for as equity, must now be accounted for as liabilities. The financial instruments affected include mandatorily redeemable stock, certain financial instruments that require or may require the issuer to buy back some of its shares in exchange for cash or other assets and certain obligations that can be settled with shares of stock. SFAS 150 is effective for all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. We do not expect the adoption of SFAS 150 to have a material impact on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

(2) Discontinued Operations

During the first quarter of 2003, the Company decided to pursue the divestiture of Ewing, which formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, and accordingly, the Company has reported its operations as discontinued for all periods presented. On May 2, 2003, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement whereby the Company agreed to sell all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing.

On June 16, 2003, the Company sold Ewing pursuant to the terms of a Stock Purchase Agreement dated May 2, 2003. The purchaser acquired all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing for an aggregate purchase price of $300,000, which was paid in cash by purchaser at the closing of the transaction. The Company used $247,783 of the net proceeds to reduce debt and $37,500 to reduce deferred compensation. The Company recorded a $58,932 gain on the sale of discontinued operations.

Ewing's assets and liabilities as of June 30, 2003 and December 31, 2002 consisted of the following:

	2003	2002
Assets:

Income from discontinued operations for the six months ended June 30, 2002 includes revenues of approximately $7.0 million earned under a single contract with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and expenses incurred of approximately $3.7 million. The contract, which was nonrecurring, began in January 2002 and ended in June 2002.

Notes payable, net of current portion	$ 75,000	$

On June 16, 2003, the former shareholder of Ewing agreed to extend the payment terms of the $100,000 principal payment originally due on December 31, 2003. Under the new agreement, a $25,000 principal payment is due on December 31, 2003 and the remaining $75,000 in principal is due on December 31, 2004. Interest will continue to be payable quarterly at an annual rate of 8% until the loan is paid in full.

On March 25, 2003, the $400,000 note payable to Wachovia Bank, National Association, originally due February 28, 2003 was extended by a Renewal Promissory Note to July 5, 2003, with monthly principal payments of $100,000 commencing April 5, 2003. The Company made a $100,000 principal payment on April 1, 2003.

On June 11, 2003, the Company received a notice of default from Wachovia Bank, National Association with respect to the indebtedness of the Company represented by that certain Renewal Promissory Note dated March 25, 2003. The default notice related to the Company's non-payment of three consecutive $100,000 monthly principal payments due in May, June and July 2003 under the terms of the Renewal Promissory Note.

June 30, 2003

On July 31, 2003, the Company entered into a Forbearance Agreement with Wachovia Bank, National Association as a result of the Company's non-payment of the $100,000 monthly principal payments due in May, June and July 2003 under the Renewal Promissory Note dated March 25, 2003. The Forbearance Agreement required that the Company make an immediate payment of $50,000 in principal plus $4,129 of accrued interest, a $50,000 principal payment by October 15, 2003 and a forbearance fee of $5,000 no later than November 15, 2003. On August 1, 2003, the Company paid $54,129 in accordance with the terms of the Forbearance Agreement. On November 15, 2003, Wachovia Bank, National Association at its option, can demand payment in full or structure the remaining principal balance of $200,000 to be paid by the Company in installments of $60,000 per quarter commencing January 15, 2004 until the note is paid in full. Interest is payable monthly at an annual rate of prime plus 4.75%.

(4) Related Party Transactions

The Company performs certain investment management functions for Intrepid Capital, L.P, and during the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, received $31,692 and $34,313, respectively, for such services.

(5) Segments

During 2003 and 2002, the Company operated in one principal segment, investment management. The operations of Ewing formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, which have been reclassified as a discontinued operation. The Company assesses and measures operating performance based upon the net income (loss) derived from each of its operating segments, exclusive of the impact of corporate expenses.

The revenues and net loss for each of the reportable segments are summarized as follows for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2003 and 2002:

	Three months ended June 30		Six months ended June 30
	2003	2002	2003	2002

(6) Liquidity

The Company's current assets consist generally of interest in an equity fund, accounts receivable, and prepaid assets. The Company has financed its operations with funds provided by operations, proceeds from notes payable, liquidation of cash surrender value of insurance policies, and proceeds from the divestiture of Ewing (see note 2). The Company has developed and is implementing a refocused strategy plan that includes internal revenue growth, cost reductions, and operational efficiencies.

The Company believes that the divestiture of Ewing will allow management to focus on leveraging the Company's expertise in investment management services. By more closely aligning sales, client relationship management, and fund management, the Company believes that additional revenue sources can be derived from current relationships. The Company has taken steps, and is continuing to take additional steps, which will allow the Company to deliver superior service and performance at a reduced cost. These steps have led to a strategic reduction in recurring operating costs, as well as a more beneficial debt reduction schedule for the Company. Management is also looking at creating back-office efficiencies through the use of technology, work flow processes, and the consolidation of functions. Management believes that an improved organizational structure is beneficial to the Company today, and will be beneficial to the Company's future success.

While management believes that it will be able to support its current operations, debt service requirements (see note 3) and capital needs through its current cash flow, management is exploring and identifying potential equity sources of capital from private investors, which would give the Company more flexibility in its operations and debt reduction. Management cannot provide any assurances that such a transaction will take place. If adequate funds are not available, the Company's refocused strategy would be significantly limited, and such funding limitation would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations, and financial condition.

(7) Goodwill and Intangible Assets

Goodwill at June 30, 2003 of $3,564,898 was recorded as a part of the purchase of ICC and, accordingly, was allocated to the investment management segment. The Company's goodwill was recorded after the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" (FAS 142) and is being carried at cost. Management tests for impairment on an annual basis and between annual tests in certain circumstances in accordance with FAS 142.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2003

The Company has determined that certain identifiable intangible assets exist which are attributable to the estimated fair value of investment management contracts and customer relationships which were acquired through the purchase of ICC and have been allocated to the investment management segment. At June 30, 2003, identifiable intangible assets amounted to $723,006, net of accumulated amortization of $168,217. Amortization expense was $56,590 for the six months ended June 30, 2003.

(8) Severance Agreement

On June 6, 2003, the Company entered into a Complete and Permanent Waiver, Release and Severance Agreement with Michael J. Wallace, the Company's former Chief Financial Officer and a member of its Board of Directors. The agreement called for Mr. Wallace to receive, in consideration for signing the agreement, 6 months of income based on current annual salary, reimbursement of up to $500 for outplacement services provided to him by Career Florida.com of Jacksonville, and payment of his Company provided health insurance premiums for 6 months. In consideration for entering into this agreement, the Company received from Mr. Wallace affirmative acknowledgement of his Confidentiality Agreement, as well as other promises, releases, waivers and obligations bound by this agreement. At June 30, 2003, the terms of the agreement have been properly reflected in accrued expenses.

(9) Subsequent Events

On July 31, 2003, the Company entered into a Forbearance Agreement with Wachovia Bank, National Association as a result of the Company's non-payment of the $100,000 monthly principal payments due in May, June and July 2003 under the Renewal Promissory Note dated March 25, 2003. The Forbearance Agreement required that the Company make an immediate payment of $50,000 in principal plus $4,129 of accrued interest, a $50,000 principal payment by October 15, 2003 and a forbearance fee of $5,000 no later than November 15, 2003. On August 1, 2003, the Company paid $54,129 in accordance with the terms of the Forbearance Agreement. On November 15, 2003, Wachovia Bank, National Association at its option, can demand payment in full or structure the remaining principal balance of $200,000 to be paid by the Company in installments of $60,000 per quarter commencing January 15, 2004 until the note is paid in full. Interest is payable monthly at an annual rate of prime plus 4.75%.

On July 21, 2003, the Company entered into a Satisfaction of Subordinated Indebtedness agreement to permit the discounting and prepayment of two subordinated promissory notes receivable in the amounts of $150,000 and $173,919 owed to Enviroq Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, from Sprayroq of Ohio, Inc. The Company received a total sum of $200,000 in prepayment of the outstanding principal balance of $323,919 and accrued interest of $15,116. The Company recorded a loss in the amount of $139,035 on the settlement of the notes.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

As provided by the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the Company cautions that statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB that are forward-looking statements represent management's belief and assumptions based on currently available information. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as believes, intends, may, should, anticipates, expected, estimated, projected or comparable terminology, or by discussion of strategies or trends. Although the Company believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot give any assurances that these expectations will prove to be correct. Such statements, by their nature, involve substantial risks and uncertainties that could significantly impact expected results, and actual future results could differ materially from those described in such forward-looking statements. While it is not possible to identify all factors, the Company continues to face many risks and uncertainties. Among the factors that could cause actual future results to differ materially are the risks and uncertainties discussed in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB and those described from time to time in the Company's other filings with the SEC and the risk that the underlying assumptions made by management in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB are not, in fact, correct. Should one or more of these risks materialize (or the consequences of such a development worsen), or should the underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from those forecasted or expected. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations are based on the Company's consolidated financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. We base these estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that management believes are reasonable under the circumstances; additionally we evaluate these results on an on-going basis. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

The Company has a significant amount of goodwill and identifiable intangible assets recorded on its financial statements. The Company's identifiable intangible assets consist of investment management contracts and customer relationships. Management's allocation of purchase price to these identifiable intangible assets requires estimates about the amount and useful lives of identifiable intangible assets acquired. These estimates require a significant degree of estimates based on management's assumptions regarding future cash flows, account retention, expected profit margins, and applicable discount rates and are subject to uncertainty and may differ significantly from actual results under different assumptions or conditions.

The Company completed its initial assessment of impairment for goodwill and identifiable intangible assets during the first quarter of 2003. Management assessed the recoverability of the identifiable intangible assets and determined there to be no impairment based on its estimates and analysis of future cash flows. Management will continue to assess recoverability whenever events or circumstances indicate they may be impaired and monitor the future results of the investment management segment. In addition, the Company will review goodwill and intangible assets for impairment in accordance with existing accounting pronouncements and has set an annual impairment test date for goodwill of December 31. Such review will involve the Company's determination of reporting unit fair values through estimation of projected cash flows, discount rates, future performance and other variables, which will require a significant amount of judgment by the Company's management.

Discontinued Operations

During the first quarter of 2003, the Company decided to pursue the divestiture of Ewing, which formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, and accordingly, the Company has reported its operations as discontinued for all periods presented. On May 2, 2003, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement whereby the Company agreed to sell all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing.

On June 16, 2003, the Company sold Ewing pursuant to the terms of a Stock Purchase Agreement dated May 2, 2003. The purchaser acquired all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing for an aggregate purchase price of $300,000, which amount was paid in cash by purchaser at the closing of the transaction. The Company used $247,783 of the net proceeds to reduce debt and $37,500 to reduce deferred compensation. The Company recorded a $58,932 gain on the sale of discontinued operations.

Revenues from Ewing were $115,778 and $4,459,370 for the three months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The income (loss) from discontinued operations for Ewing was ($109,764) and $1,551,650 for the three months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Revenues from Ewing were $699,554 and $7,875,799 for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The income (loss) from discontinued operations for Ewing was ($87,940) and $2,604,415 for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

For the six months ended June 30, 2003, the net cash used in operating activities of $318,769 was primarily attributable to excess salary and benefits, costs related to nonperforming sales staff, and excess administrative staff, offset by the receipt of a $420,000 tax refund and an increase of $488,716 in accounts payable and accrued expenses. Net cash provided by investing activities of $262,479 was primarily due to the net proceeds received from the divestment of Ewing in June 2003. Net cash provided by financing activities of $50,970 was attributable to proceeds of $500,000 from notes payable and $120,000 from life insurance cash surrender value loans offset by principal payments on notes payable of $434,783 and preferred stock dividends paid of $134,247.

Results of Operations

The Company has invested and plans to continue to focus on the development of its investment management segment. ICM has several portfolio styles, ranked by independent sources such as Effron-PSN, CheckFree Investment Services, Nelson Information and Money Manager Review, in the top percentile of all investment managers for both performance and risk control. The Company is investing in human capital through the retention of portfolio management professionals and investment management sales professionals, and has sales promotion efforts, through advertising and marketing, aimed at branding and broadening ICM's investment management market share and presence.

The Company is currently experiencing operational losses for 2003 as a result of its expenditures on sales and administrative salaries and expenses. Management has taken corrective measures to reduce sales and administrative costs, and believes that its current operational expenses are justified by the investment management revenue, which management expects to see increasing throughout the remainder of 2003 and in 2004.

Table of Contents

Three Months Ended June 30, 2003 Compared to the Three Months Ended June 30, 2002

Total revenues were $940,477 for the three months ended June 30, 2003, compared to $852,320 for the three months ended June 30, 2002, representing a 10.4% increase.

Investment management fees increased $91,381, or 11.3%, to $901,663. Investment management fees represent revenue earned by ICM for investment advisory services. The fees earned are generally a function of the overall fee rate charged to each account and the level of Assets Under Management (AUM). Quarterly management fees are billed on the first day of each quarter based on each account value at the market close of the prior quarter. AUM was $487.3 million at March 31, 2003, compared to $475.5 million at March 31, 2002. The increase in investment management fees for the three months ended June 30, 2003 relates to an increase in AUM of 2.5% as a result of the net addition of new clients and an increase of 8.6% in the average investment management fee rate charged per dollar of AUM. At June 30, 2003, AUM was $532.9 million compared to $452.1 million at June 30, 2002.

Other income decreased $3,224, or 7.7%, to $38,814. The decrease is primarily attributable to a one-time management account referral fee of $20,706 received in the second quarter of 2002 offset by an increase in investment-related record keeping fees of $17,802 in the second quarter of 2003.

Total expenses were $1,715,437 for the three months ended June 30, 2003, compared to $1,917,379 for the three months ended June 30, 2002, representing a decrease of $201,942, or 10.5%.

Compensation and benefits decreased $133,389, or 10.5%, to $1,138,598. Compensation and benefits represent fixed salaries, performance bonuses, commissions, temporary staffing costs, severance costs, and other related employee benefits. The decrease is primarily attributable to a one-time deferred compensation accrual of $364,000 in the second quarter of 2002, offset by an increase in compensation and benefits expense associated with severance costs incurred in 2003 and the hiring of thirteen personnel, five near the end of the second quarter of 2002 and eight in the third quarter of 2002.

Advertising and marketing expenses decreased $17,500, or 10.1%, to $155,016. The decrease is primarily attributable to a decrease in travel and entertainment expenses of $60,000 associated with management's efforts to reduce operating costs, offset by an increase of $39,000 related to the production of a national television commercial aimed at informing prospective clients of ICM's top-tier investment performance.

Occupancy and maintenance expenses decreased $12,185, or 11.0%, to $98,863. The decrease is attributable to reduced occupancy costs of $13,600 as a result of the integration of the ICM and ICC operations in the Jacksonville Beach, Florida office during the second quarter of 2002.

Interest expense decreased $713, or 4.6%, to $14,854. The decrease is primarily attributable to the reduction of $200,000 of notes payable in the first quarter of 2003 offset by the addition of interest expense associated with deferred compensation commencing in the third quarter of 2002.

Other expenses decreased $40,807, or 25.1%, to $121,501. The decrease is primarily attributable to the reduction of office supplies of $19,300, printing costs of $13,000 as a result of the integration of the ICM and ICC operations in the Jacksonville Beach, Florida office during the second quarter of 2002.

Six Months Ended June 30, 2003 Compared to the Six Months Ended June 30, 2002

Total revenues were $1,864,923 for the six months ended June 30, 2003, compared to $1,694,360 for the six months ended June 30, 2002, representing a 10.1% increase.

Investment management fees increased $167,837, or 10.2%, to $1,811,598. Investment management fees represent revenue earned by ICM for investment advisory services. The fees earned are generally a function of the overall fee rate charged to each account and the level of Assets

Under Management (AUM). Quarterly management fees are billed on the first day of each quarter based on each account value at the market close of the prior quarter. AUM was $469.1 million at December 31, 2002, compared to $458.4 million at December 31, 2001. AUM was $487.3 million at March 31, 2003, compared to $475.5 million at March 31, 2002. The weighted average AUM increased 2.4% from $467.0 to $478.2 for the six month period ended June 30, 2002 and 2003, respectively. The increase in investment management fees for the six months ended June 30, 2003 relates to an increase in AUM of 2.4% as a result of the net addition of new clients and an increase of 8.6% in the average investment management fee rate charged per dollar of AUM. At June 30, 2003, AUM was $532.9 million compared to $452.1 million at June 30, 2002.

Other income increased $2,726, or 5.4%, to $53,325. The increase is primarily attributable to a one-time management account referral fee of $20,706 received in the second quarter of 2002, a decrease of $6,835 in the annual life insurance cash surrender value appreciation and a decrease of $3,942 in subsidiary income, offset by an increase in investment-related record keeping fees of $38,279 in the second quarter of 2003.

Total expenses were $3,213,858 for the six months ended June 30, 2003, compared to $3,179,818 for the six months ended June 30, 2002, representing a decrease of $34,040, or 1.1%.

Compensation and benefits decreased $71,771, or 3.6%, to $1,942,492. Compensation and benefits represent fixed salaries, performance bonuses, commissions, temporary staffing costs, severance costs, payroll taxes and other related employee benefits. The decrease is primarily attributable to a one time deferred compensation accrual of $364,000 in the second quarter of 2002, offset by an increase in compensation and benefits expense associated with severance costs incurred in 2003 and the hiring of thirteen personnel, five near the end of the second quarter of 2002 and eight in the third quarter of 2002.

Advertising and marketing expenses increased $130,461, or 49.1%, to $396,133. The decrease is primarily attributable to a decrease in travel and entertainment expenses of $38,000 associated with management's efforts to reduce operating costs, offset by an increase of $154,000 related to the production of a national television commercial aimed at informing prospective clients of ICM's top-tier investment performance.

Professional and regulatory fees increased $78,707, or 33.8%, to $311,397. The increase is primarily attributable to an increase in information technology and investment research services.

Occupancy and maintenance expenses decreased $31,362, or 14.4%, to $186,182. The decrease is attributable to reduced occupancy costs of $13,600 and a reduction of maintenance costs of $12,700 as a result of the integration of the ICM and ICC operations in the Jacksonville Beach, Florida office during the second quarter of 2002.

Interest expense decreased $33,466, or 50.1%, to $33,396. The decrease is primarily attributable to the decrease of interest on the AJG note resulting from its conversion into shares of the Company's Class A Cumulative Convertible Pay-In-Kind Preferred Stock at the end of the first quarter of 2002, offset by the addition of interest expense associated with deferred compensation commencing in the third quarter of 2002 and a $400,000 bank note commencing in the fourth quarter of 2002.

Other expenses decreased $48,887, or 17.5%, to $230,202. The decrease is primarily attributable to the reduction of office supplies of $20,300 and printing costs of $20,700 as a result of the integration of the ICM and ICC operations in the Jacksonville Beach, Florida office during the second quarter of 2002.
