As reported in a press release dated August 25, 2005, First Bancorp's (the Company) Audit Committee is reviewing the accounting for various transactions that the Company reflected as acquisitions of mortgages and securities backed by mortgages as well as certain other matters. Since the review is on-going, the Company is unable to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005 on a timely basis. The Company does not know now when the required filing will be made.

SEC 1344(07-03) Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes o No x

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company does not know now whether the results for the third quarter and nine-month period ended September 30, 2005 will significantly differ from the comparable periods of 2004. The Company's Audit Committee and management are reviewing certain accounting matters, including the possible need to restate historical financial statements to reflect the fair value of derivatives in the income statements for prior periods and to change the accounting for certain acquisitions of mortgages and securities backed by mortgages in prior periods, including the third quarter and nine months ended September 30, 2004 and the quarter ended March 31, 2005.
