PROXY STATEMENT

FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

May 3, 2003

This statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Berkshire Hathaway Inc. (hereinafter "Berkshire" or the "Corporation") of proxies in the accompanying form for the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders to be held on Saturday, May 3, 2003 at 9:30 a.m. and at any adjournment thereof.

This proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy were first sent to shareholders on or about March 21, 2003.

If the form of proxy enclosed herewith is executed and returned as requested, it may nevertheless be revoked at any time prior to exercise by filing an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date.

Solicitation of proxies will be made solely by mail at the Corporation's expense. The Corporation will reimburse brokerage firms, banks, trustees and others for their actual out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding proxy material to the beneficial owners of its common stock.

As of the close of business on March 5, 2003, the record date for the Annual Meeting, the Corporation had outstanding and entitled to vote 1,309,423 shares of Class A Common Stock (hereinafter called "Class A Stock") and 6,763,493 of Class B Common Stock (hereinafter called "Class B Stock"). Each share of Class A Stock is entitled to one vote per share and each share of Class B Stock is entitled to one-two-hundredth (1/200) of one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders of the Corporation. The Class A Stock and Class B Stock vote together as a single class. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 5, 2003 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting or at any adjournment thereof.

The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of Class A Stock and Class B Stock holding in the aggregate a majority of the voting power of the Corporation's stock entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A plurality of the votes properly cast for the election of directors by the shareholders attending the meeting, in person or by proxy, will elect directors to office. A majority of votes properly cast upon any question other than election of directors shall decide the question. Abstentions and broker non-votes will count for purposes of establishing a quorum, but will not count as votes cast for the election of directors or any other question and accordingly will have no effect.

Shareholders who send in proxies but attend the meeting in person may vote directly if they prefer and withdraw their proxies or may allow their proxies to be voted with the similar proxies sent in by other shareholders.

1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, a Board of Directors consisting of seven members will be elected, each director to hold office until a successor is elected and qualified, or until the director resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified.

Each of the current directors of the Corporation is a nominee for reelection. Certain information with respect to nominees for election as directors is contained in the following table:

Berkshire invested approximately $1.24 billion and acquired about a 9.7% voting interest and a 76% economic interest in MidAmerican on a fully-diluted basis. During 2002, Berkshire invested an additional $402 million in MidAmerican which increased its economic interest in MidAmerican to 80.2% on a fully-diluted basis. Mr. Scott, who invested approximately $280 million in cash and shares of MidAmerican common stock in the March 14, 2000 transaction, controls approximately 86% of the voting interest in MidAmerican and serves as a member of its board of directors.

When the accompanying proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares it represents will be voted in accordance with the directions indicated thereon or, if no direction is indicated, the shares will be voted in favor of the election of the seven nominees identified above. The Corporation expects each nominee to be able to serve if elected, but if any nominee notifies the Corporation before this meeting that he or she is unable to do so, then the proxies will be voted for the remainder of those nominated and, as designated by the Directors, may be voted (i) for a substitute nominee or nominees, or (ii) to elect such lesser number to constitute the whole Board as equals the number of nominees who are able to serve.

Board of Directors Meetings, Committees and Directors Compensation

Board of Directors actions were taken in 2002 at the Annual Meeting of Directors that followed the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, at one special meeting and upon three occasions by Directors unanimous written consent. Each director attended all meetings of the Board and of the Committees of the Board on which they served except for Ronald L. Olson who did not attend the annual meeting of directors and Walter Scott, Jr. who did not attend the special meeting of directors.

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee consisting of Walter Scott, Jr., Chairman, Malcolm G. Chace and Ronald L. Olson. All members of the Audit Committee meet the current independence standards of the rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and New York Stock Exchange. The Audit Committee meets periodically with the Corporation's independent public accountants, Director of Internal Audit and members of management and reviews the Corporation's accounting policies and internal controls. It also reviews the scope and adequacy of the independent accountants examination of the Corporation's annual financial statements. In addition, the Audit Committee recommends the firm of independent public accountants to be retained by the Corporation. The Audit Committee held three formal meetings during 2002. The Board of Directors adopted an Audit Committee Charter on April 29, 2000. The Corporation does not have standing nominating or compensation committees of the Board of Directors.

Directors of the Corporation or its subsidiaries who are employees or spouses of employees do not receive fees for attendance at directors meetings. A director who is not an employee or a spouse of an employee receives a fee of $900 for each meeting attended in person and $300 for participating in any meeting conducted by telephone. A director who serves as a member of the Audit Committee receives a fee of $1,000 quarterly. Directors are reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings of directors or shareholders.

Board of Directors Report on Executive Compensation

Berkshire's program regarding compensation of its executive officers is different from most public corporations' programs. Mr. Warren E. Buffett recommends to the Board of Directors the amount of his proposed remuneration and he sets the remuneration of Berkshire's other executive officers (including both salary and bonus). Mr. Buffett has been paid an annual salary of $100,000 for each of the last 22 years. Factors considered by the Board of Directors and Mr. Buffett are typically subjective, such as their perception of the individual's performance and any planned change in functional responsibility. Neither the profitability of the Corporation nor the market value of its stock are considered in setting executive officer remuneration (including both salary and bonus). Further, it is the Corporation's policy that all compensation paid to its executive officers be deductible under Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m).

Board of Directors

Interlocks and Insider Participation

Warren E. Buffett, Chairman of Berkshire's Board of Directors, is an employee of the Corporation. Charles T. Munger, Vice Chairman of Berkshire's Board of Directors, is employed by a Berkshire subsidiary.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

Warren E. Buffett, whose address is 1440 Kiewit Plaza, Omaha, NE 68131, a nominee for director, is the only person known to the Corporation to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the Corporation's Class A or Class B Stock. Beneficial ownership of the Corporation's Class A and Class B Stock on February 28, 2003 by Mr. Buffett and by any other executive officers and directors of the Corporation who own shares is shown in the following table:

⁽¹⁾ Beneficial owners exercise both sole voting and sole investment power unless otherwise stated. Each share of Class A Stock is convertible into thirty shares of Class B Stock at the option of the shareholder. As a result, pursuant to Rule 13d-3(d)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, a shareholder is deemed to have beneficial ownership of the shares of Class B Stock which such shareholder may acquire upon conversion of the Class A Stock. In order to avoid overstatement, the amount of Class B Stock beneficially owned does not take into account such shares of Class B Stock which may be acquired upon conversion (an amount which is equal to 30 times the number of shares of Class A Stock held by a shareholder). The percentage of outstanding Class B Stock is based on the total number of shares of Class B Stock outstanding as of March 5, 2003 and does not take into account shares of Class B Stock which may be issued upon conversion of Class A Stock.

⁽²⁾ Includes 475,094 shares owned directly and beneficially by Warren E. Buffett, and 1,104 shares owned by three trusts of which Mr. Buffett is sole trustee but with respect to which Mr. Buffett disclaims any beneficial economic interest. Mr. Buffett shares investment and voting power with respect to 34,199 Class A shares and 9 Class B shares owned by Susan T. Buffett.

⁽³⁾ Mr. and Mrs. Buffett have entered into a voting agreement with Berkshire providing that, should the combined voting power of shares held by Mr. and Mrs. Buffett and the trusts exceed 49.9% of Berkshire's total voting power, they will vote those shares in excess of that percentage proportionately with votes of the other Berkshire shareholders.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Owner Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Corporation's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Corporation's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. Officers, directors and greater than ten-percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Corporation with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no Forms 5 were required for those persons, the Corporation believes that during 2002 all filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors, and greater than ten-percent shareholders were complied with.

2. SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL

Christopher J. Fried, who resides at 2911 Brighton Road, Philadelphia, PA 19149 and owns eight shares of Class B Common Stock, has given notice that he intends to present for action at the annual meeting the following proposal.

Class B Shareholders who own at least seven (7) registered shares of Berkshire Hathaway Class B stock shall become eligible for the shareholder-designated contribution program. The donated amount for each Class B share shall be set at one-thirtieth (1/30) the Class A donated amount.

Supporting statement: The shareholder-designated contribution program was initiated in 1981 when Berkshire Hathaway had only one class of shares. In 1996, a second class of shares was created that had the economic value of no greater than 1/30th of Class A shares. Shareholders of this class were given nearly the same rights as Class A shareholders, however they were banned from the Contribution Program. Since Berkshire Hathaway believes in a partnership philosophy with its shareholders, this program must be amended to include Class B shareholders.

The Proposal that is being presented is one that expands the Contribution Program to Class B shareholders in an efficient and economical way. First, the contribution rate for each Class B share will be set at 1/30th the amount of the Class A rate. At the current $18 per Class A share contribution allowance, this will result in a rate of $0.60 per Class B share. Second, only those shareholders who own a minimum of seven (7) Class B shares that are registered with the company shall be eligible for this program. This seven-share floor requirement will result in donations of no less than $4.20 per shareholder. When one takes into account inflation, this rate will be on par with the original 1981 contribution rate.

It is true that the Contribution Program is a perk for Class A shareholders. However, there are only a few people who can afford the price of a Class A share. Nevertheless, shareholders from both classes are in the same boat when it comes to our firm. Therefore, it would be appropriate for Class B shareholders to be included in the shareholder-designated contribution program.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FAVORS A VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSAL FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

Class A and Class B shares have always been different in some respects. Berkshire first issued shares of Class B stock in 1996. Berkshire's then outstanding common stock was designated Class A common stock and became convertible into Class B shares at a thirty-for-one conversion ratio. At that time, Berkshire stated in its Prospectus that Class B shares would be entitled to receive dividends and distributions (including liquidating distributions) equal to one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the amount per share, if any, declared by the Company's Board of Directors for each share of Class A common stock. However, the Prospectus also indicated that Class B common stockholders would be entitled to one-two-hundredth (1/200th) of a vote for each share held on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders, Class B shares would not be convertible into Class A shares, and Class B shares would not participate in Berkshire's shareholder-designated contribution program. The Prospectus also stated, and it has generally been the case, that although Class B shares may sell below one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the market price for Class A shares, it is unlikely that a Class B share will sell more than fractionally above one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the market price of Class A common stock because higher prices than that would cause arbitrage activity to ensue.

These differences between Class A and Class B common stock provide holders of Class A shares a marginally superior investment to holders of Class B shares, a superiority that was clearly laid out at the time of the issuance of the Class B shares. Subsequent purchasers of Class A shares have often paid a small premium above the concurrent price of 30 Class B shares in part because of their reliance on the differentiating factors originally established. Berkshire's directors believe that the rights of the classes should not be changed in any way that affects the relative values.

Accordingly, we suggest you vote AGAINST this proposal.

3. OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this statement your management knows of no business to be presented to the meeting that is not referred to in the accompanying notice, other than the approval of the minutes of the last shareholders meeting, which action will not be construed as approval or disapproval of any of the matters referred to in such minutes. The 2002 Form 10-K is also available through the Securities and Exchange Commission's World Wide Web site (sec.gov).

The proposal must be in accordance with the provisions of Rule 14a-8 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. It is suggested the proposal be submitted by certified mail return receipt requested. Shareholders who intend to present a proposal at the 2004 Annual Meeting without including such proposal in the Corporation's proxy statement must provide the Corporation notice of such proposal no later than February 5, 2004. The Corporation reserves the right to reject, rule out of order, or take other appropriate action with respect to any proposal that does not comply with these and other applicable requirements.
