SYNCOR ADJOURNS SPECIAL MEETING
TO VOTE ON ACQUISITION BY CARDINAL HEALTH

WOODLAND HILLS, California, December 6, 2002 - Syncor International Corporation (Nasdaq: SCOR) announced today that it has adjourned the special meeting of stockholders held today until December 30, 2002. The meeting will be reconvened at 2:00 p.m. PST, at the Warner Center Hilton Hotel, 6360 Canoga Avenue, Woodland Hills, California. The purpose of the meeting is to vote on the agreement providing for the acquisition of Syncor by Cardinal Health (NYSE: CAH). The meeting has been adjourned in order to give Syncor stockholders an opportunity to review the amendments to the original merger agreement dated June 14, 2002 and other recent developments affecting Syncor. As announced on December 4, 2002, under the terms of the amended merger agreement, in the merger, Syncor stockholders will receive 0.47 of a Cardinal Health common share in exchange for each outstanding share of Syncor common stock. Supplemental proxy materials describing the amended merger agreement and related matters will be mailed to all Syncor stockholders as of the record date of October 9, 2002 as soon as such materials have been filed and cleared by the Securities and Exchange Commission, although there can be no assurance that these materials will be mailed in sufficient time to permit the amended merger agreement to be voted upon at the reconvened meeting on December 30, 2002.

The proposed acquisition of Syncor by Cardinal Health was first announced in June 2002 and is a stock-for-stock merger in which Syncor will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cardinal Health. The acquisition remains subject to satisfaction of various conditions, including approval of the
